AUSTIN GUND

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT/OFFENSIVE LINE

FIRST-AND-10

AUSTIN GUND joined the Bills in 2022 after serving as the Graduate Assistant at Wake Forest University for the past two seasons. Gund spent his first season in Buffalo as an offensive quality control coach and was promoted to offensive assistant/offensive line in 2023.

COACHING SHOUTOUTS

2022-present: (Buffalo Bills)

• During his first season in Buffalo, the Bills ranked second in the NFL in both total offense (397.6 YPG) and points per game (28.4). The offensive success translated into team success as the Bills ranked second in the NFL and led the AFC with a +169 point differential, while tallying a 13-3 record.

2020-21: (Wake Forest)

• Worked primarily with the offensive line, assisting offensive line coach Nick Tabacca on a day-to-day basis. Helped develop OL Zach Tom, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2022 draft by the Green Bay Packrs.

2018-19: (Belhaven University)

• Spent two seasons serving as the offensive line coach and director of football operations at Belhaven University (MS). During his two seasons at Belhaven, Gund was instrumental in the Blazers transformation from an Air Raid to a Pro Style offense.

2017: (University of Delaware)

• While working with the offensive line during his time on campus, the Blue Hens averaged 190.7 rushing yards per game, which ranked second in the CAA. Delaware averaged 4.2 yards per carry and just 20 sacks allowed over the course of the 2017 season.

PERSONAL

• A 2015 graduate in leadership studies of the University of Richmond, Gund was a four-year starter at center for the Spiders, serving as a team captain during his final three seasons. He helped lead Richmond to one FCS playoff appearance and the 2012 CAA Conference Championship.

• In his final two seasons with the Spiders, Gund earned first team All-CAA honors while being named a second team All-American in 2014. Over his career, he totaled 42 starts in the middle of the Richmond offensive line.
