

RAIDERETTE OF THE GAME

PRESENTED BY E6SFITNESS

Jenna

Jenna has had a passion for movement since childhood. At seven years old, she was enrolled in gymnastics by her parents, where she quickly became a competitive gymnast and even earned the title of State Champion in Arizona. As she grew up, Jenna sought new challenges in movement, and began taking dance classes, where she discovered her love for dance as a form of self-expression. Alongside her dance pursuits, she also became a member of her high school pom team, competing and showcasing her skills.

After high school, Jenna had the privilege of attending UC Berkeley's Haas School of Business, where she graduated with a degree in Business Administration. During her time at university, she focused not only on her studies, but also on dance, becoming a member of the esteemed Cal Dance Team. As a result of her degree, Jenna works as a Senior Account Director at a global agency, leading a remarkable team and overseeing the paid media strategy for enterprise clients.

Alongside her professional accomplishments, she is immensely proud of her time with the Raiderettes, which started in Oakland and have continued into Las Vegas. The exhilaration and energy of performing in front of thousands of fans is an unparalleled experience for her.

Representing Raider Nation is a dream come true for Jenna, but it also holds a deeper meaning, and serves as a platform to make a difference in honoring the memory of her father. In December of 2023, her father was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer and passed within two weeks of his diagnosis, despite his brave fight. In recognition of her father's memory and to raise awareness about pancreatic cancer, Jenna was selected as the Raiderette of the Game for this Raiders' Crucial Catch matchup. This game holds great significance as it is dedicated to raising awareness and funds for cancer research, a cause that is deeply personal to Jenna.

Being a Raiderette is more than just dancing and cheering for the team for Jenna. It is an opportunity to utilize her platform to make a difference and honor her late father's memory. She is grateful for the chance to be a part of such an incredible organization and represent the Raider Nation. With unwavering commitment, Jenna will continue to make a positive impact both on and off the field. Thank you, Jenna, for all that you do.
