

RAIDERETTE OF THE GAME

PRESENTED BY E6SFITNESS

Raegen

In the exciting world of professional football, the Raiderettes bring an amazing vibe to the game, making the experience unforgettable for fans. Among this talented group is Raegen, a marketing coordinator who's living her dream as a Raiderette and embracing every moment. Her journey is all about dedication, community connection, and personal growth.

Raegen is in her second season as a Raiderette, proudly representing the iconic Las Vegas Raiders. Hailing from Chino Hills, California, she has always embraced an active lifestyle that fuels her passion for dance. Her journey began at the University of Oregon, where she spent four years cheering for the Ducks, a time that solidified her love for performance and teamwork.

When asked what makes her unique, Raegen enthusiastically cites her love for the outdoors. Whether hiking, going on long walks, or exploring new places, she finds inspiration in nature and adventure. This zest for life transitions seamlessly into her role as a Raiderette, where she not only performs but also connects with the local community through various appearances.

Las Vegas, known for its vibrant atmosphere, holds a special place in Raegen's heart. "I love how there's always something going on—from concerts and shows to trying new restaurants," she shares. Yet, her favorite aspect is the opportunity to engage with the community beyond the glitz of the Strip. Through her Raiderette appearances, she experiences the diverse stories and cultures that make Las Vegas unique.

Raegen's favorite TV show, Modern Family, reflects her appreciation for the importance of family and community. This sentiment resonates deeply with her own family, who serve as her greatest source of inspiration. "My parents inspire me through their constant support and dedication," she explains.

Their unwavering presence at every game last season propelled her to work harder and do what she loves, reminding her of the importance of connection and encouragement.

As for the future, Raegen has ambitious aspirations. "I hope to continue growing in both dance and marketing while finding opportunities to keep traveling," she expresses. Her desire to explore new places and experience different cultures speaks to her adventurous spirit and commitment to personal development. Raegen embodies the essence of a Raiderette, blending her professional pursuits with her love for dance and exploration.

Her favorite quote, "What's meant for me will always find me," encapsulates her positive outlook on life and career. It serves as a guiding principle as she navigates her professional journey, reminding her that dedication and hard work will lead her to her goals.

In her role as a Raiderette, Raegen not only brings skill and grace to the field but also represents the spirit of community and the joy of living life to the fullest. Her commitment to both her profession and personal passions makes her a remarkable ambassador for the Raiderettes and a shining example for aspiring performers everywhere. As she continues her journey, fans and teammates alike will undoubtedly be cheering her on every step of the way.
