TENNESSEE TITANS 2025 SEASON REVIEW

Titans, GM Mike Borgonzi hold fourth-overall draft pick; Robert Saleh takes the reins as head coach in 2026

NASHVILLE — On Jan. 22, 2026, the Titans announced the hiring of new head coach Robert Saleh. Second-year general manager Mike Borgonzi led the search that concluded with the addition of Saleh, and together, the duo is poised to tackle their first offseason together and build upon the team's foundation.

Saleh's first year in Tennessee will be his 22nd season as an NFL coach. He spent the 2025 campaign as the defensive coordinator for the San Francisco 49ers, a role he also held from 2017 to 2020. His resume also boasts six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16) and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

Joining Saleh's staff will be former New York Giants head coach Brian Daboll as offensive coordinator and former Jaguars head coach Gus Bradley as defensive coordinator. John "Bones" Fassel will remain on the staff as special teams coordinator, a role he assumed with the Titans in 2025. Collectively, the trio of Bradley, Fassel and Daboll account for 66 previous seasons of NFL coaching experience and 45 seasons of NFL experience at the coordinator or head coach level.

WARD, SIMMONS HEADLINE RETURNING NUCLEUS

One year into his tenure, Borgonzi has seen his initial Titans draft class gain invaluable experience. The 2025 class included nine picks, including quarterback Cam Ward, the first-overall selection. Each of the picks appeared in at least six games, and six members of the group started five or more times. The Titans draft class accumulated 64 combined starts, which ranked second in the NFL (75 by Cleveland) and was the largest total for the franchise in its "Titans era," which began in 1999.

Ward, who was voted a team captain as a rookie, started all 17 games, and his 3,169 passing yards broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015). With 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 323-of-540 passing, Ward's 1.3 interception percentage was the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks, breaking Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception with 10 touchdown passes.

Another draft pick, Chimere Dike, was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner and added first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. Dike, who played in all 17 games with 10 starts at wide receiver, led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which ranked third all-time for the franchise and first all-time among NFL rookies. His 17.3-yard punt return average broke Billy "White Shoes" Johnson's franchise record (15.4) that stood since 1977, and he also posted a franchise-best 1,588 kickoff return yards. Dike scored six total touchdowns—four as a receiver and two as a punt returner.

Borgonzi's 2025 draft selections also included second-round outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (six games, two starts), third-round safety Kevin Winston Jr. (10 games, six starts), fourth-round tight end Gunnar Helm (16 games, 10 starts), fourth-round wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (16 games, 14 starts), fifth-round guard Jackson Slater (12 games), sixth-round cornerback Marcus Harris (14 games, five starts) and sixth-round running back Kalel Mullings (nine games).

Dike was one of two first-team All-Pros for the team, along with Jeffery Simmons, who also earned his fourth Pro Bowl berth and his third consecutive Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nomination. The seventh-year defensive tackle led all NFL interior defensive linemen in solo tackles (39), tackles for loss (17), sacks (11), sack yards (79), quarterback pressures (60), pressure rate (14.5 percent) and forced fumbles (tied - three). His sacks, sack yards, tackles for loss and forced fumbles all set career highs, despite missing two games due to injury.

OFFSEASON TIMELINE

When the NFL's 2026 League Year begins on March 11, Borgonzi will have his first major opportunity of the offseason to add outside talent to the roster. The date marks the beginning of unrestricted free agency for players whose 2025 contracts have expired, the start of the NFL's trading period, and the requirement to be under the league's 2026 salary cap. Teams can begin negotiating with certified agents of unrestricted free agents on March 9, two days before the new league year.

In the meantime, scouting efforts related to the NFL Draft will be in full swing. The draft is scheduled for April 23-25 in Pittsburgh, Pa. The Titans currently own nine total picks, including the fourth overall selection in the first round and the 35th choice in the second round. The process leading to the draft includes the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis (Feb. 23 to March 2), college pro days and prospect visits to Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park. In addition to these events, the staff has already attended college All-Star games, where they were able to meet with players in attendance for the first time.

Saleh and the coaching staff will get their first up-close interaction with new and returning veterans when the offseason program begins in April. The first date that NFL teams with a new head coach can begin offseason programs is April 6. All NFL clubs are allowed to conduct a voluntary nine-week offseason program in three phases and may hold a mandatory minicamp during phase three, which is a four-week period that also includes a maximum of 10 days of organized team practice activities (OTAs). The offseason program concludes in June, and at that point, players will be off until training camp commences in July.

FINAL YEAR AT THE CURRENT NISSAN STADIUM

The 2026 season will mark the final time the Titans play at their current stadium before the new Nissan Stadium opens in 2027. The team broke ground in February 2024 on the new building, which is being built directly on the east side of the current venue.

The new Nissan Stadium will have an enclosed, translucent roof and seats that are 38 percent closer to the field than the current Nissan Stadium. Features will include exterior terraces and porches with panoramic views of Nashville; the "Ring of Fire" ribbon-style LED display surrounding the entire stadium's interior—13 feet high by 2,275 feet wide to make it the longest display in the NFL; fully frictionless concessions that eliminate longer wait times; and nearly twice the amount of restrooms as the current stadium. Built with high-tech, sustainable materials, the stadium is also designed to minimize waste and preserve energy and water. It will host year-round events.

After the season, the Titans will bid farewell to the current Nissan stadium, which opened in 1999. It has hosted 224 regular season and postseason contests—more than any other venue in the franchise's history, which dates back to 1960. The Astrodome hosted 223 Oilers games.

2026 OPPONENTS

The Titans' opponents for the 2026 regular season are set under the NFL's 17-game scheduling formula. During the regular season, they are slated for eight games at Nissan Stadium and nine road contests.

As always, the Titans have home and road games against each of the AFC South rival Houston Texans, Indianapolis Colts and Jacksonville Jaguars.

Based upon the NFL's schedule rotation, the Titans will face every team from the AFC North in 2026. They are slated for home games against the Cleveland Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers and are scheduled to meet the Baltimore Ravens and Cincinnati Bengals on the road.

Additionally, the Titans will square off against the NFC East. They are scheduled for home dates against the Philadelphia Eagles and Washington Commanders and road games versus the Dallas Cowboys and New York Giants.

Every team plays two intraconference games that are determined by order of finish within its division. By finishing fourth in the AFC South in 2025, they are slated for a 2026 home matchup with the AFC East's equivalent finisher, the fourth-place New York Jets. The Titans will go on the road to meet the AFC West's fourth-place Las Vegas Raiders.

Similarly, the NFL's 17-game format unveiled for the first time in 2021 features interconference matchups based on the previous year's divisional standings. The AFC will be the road conference for the 17th game in 2026 after hosting in 2025. As a result, the Titans are scheduled to travel for a ninth game, which means going to the fourth-place finishers of the NFC North, the Detroit Lions.

The complete league schedule with dates and times, including each club's three-game preseason slate, is typically released by the NFL in May.

PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CHAD BRINKER

Chad Brinker serves as president of football operations for the Titans. He joined the Titans in 2023 as assistant general manager before being promoted to his current position in 2024. In his role, Brinker provides executive leadership for the football staff, reporting directly to Titans controlling owner Amy Adams Strunk.

Since his arrival in Tennessee, Brinker's progressive approach has led to several initiatives aimed at moving the organization forward. He spearheaded the club's extensive search for a new general manager in 2025, resulting in the hiring of Mike Borgonzi. Additionally, he reshaped and refined the foundation of the team's analytics department from the ground up, while building and executing the 2024 and 2025 offseason strategies for player acquisitions in both free agency and the draft.

An NFL personnel veteran, Brinker embodies core strengths focused in executive leadership, strategic operations, financial analysis, and talent evaluation. His dual background in football operations merged with a business acumen gained from an MBA at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management further developed his skills as a team builder and strategic leader both on and off the field.

Prior to joining the Titans, Brinker spent 13 years with the Green Bay Packers in a variety of roles as a talent evaluator and strategic counselor to Packers leadership. In his initial season with the Packers, he collected his first Super Bowl championship when the team defeated the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV.

Throughout his experience with the Packers, he served as a pro and college scout; led strategy for unrestricted free agency and undrafted free agent processes; handled player contracts, salary cap administration, and roster management; and advised the general manager and executive vice president of football operations on team needs in free agency and drafts, always with an eye on long-term vision. The Packers won the NFC North Division eight times and drafted 13 Pro Bowl Players during his tenure.

Brinker also owns corporate business experience with two Fortune 100 companies in the pharmaceutical and medical device industries. He serves as an executive council member on the Freed-Hardeman University President's Council and has shared his expertise as a guest lecturer in the Sports Marketing program at Freed-Hardeman and the Sports Administration program at his alma mater, Ohio University.

A native of Martins Ferry, Ohio, Brinker first entered the NFL in 2003 as an undrafted free agent running back with the New York Jets. He holds two degrees from Ohio University, including a master's degree in sports administration, where he was a two-sport athlete and a two-time All-Mid-American Conference selection at running back. He was also selected as Ohio University's Male Athlete of the Year in 2003.

Mike Borgonzi was named the 15th general manager in franchise history on Jan. 17, 2025.

Borgonzi arrived in Tennessee with 16 years of experience with the Kansas City Chiefs. For the last four seasons, he served as Kansas City's assistant general manager.

"Mike's experience speaks for itself: he has been part of the core team that delivered five AFC championships and three Super Bowls over the past six seasons," said Titans Controlling Owner Amy Adams Strunk. "It's the type of standard I want to build here in Tennessee. I know we have a lot of work ahead of us, and I'm excited for Mike to get started."

"During Mike's 16 years in the league, he has been a key part of transforming the Chiefs from a two-win team to a three-time Super Bowl champion," said Titans President of Football Operations Chad Brinker. "During our meetings, he articulated a clear plan to build a championship standard in Nashville through consistency, discipline, and hard work. I've admired him for many years and I'm thrilled to add him to the team as our general manager."

In Borgonzi's first offseason in Tennessee, the Titans acquired several veteran free agents. Among the most notable signings were tackle Dan Moore Jr. (previously with Pittsburgh); guard Kevin Zeitler (Detroit); linebacker Cody Barton (Denver); outside linebacker Dre'Mont Jones (Seattle); wide receiver Van Jefferson (Pittsburgh); safety Xavier Woods (Carolina); punter Johnny Hekker (Carolina); and kicker Joey Slye (New England).

In April, Borgonzi led the process that concluded with the selection of Miami (Fla.) quarterback Cam Ward with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. The team's nine total draft choices also included UCLA outside linebacker Oluwafemi Oladejo (second round), Penn State safety Kevin Winston Jr. (third round), Florida wide receiver Chimere Dike (fourth round), Texas tight end Gunnar Helm (fourth round), Stanford wide receiver Elic Ayomanor (fourth round), Sacramento State offensive lineman Jackson Slater (fifth round), California cornerback Marcus Harris (sixth round) and Michigan running back Kalel Mullings (sixth round).

During Borgonzi's time in Kansas City, he contributed to 12 playoff seasons (2010, 2013, 2015-24) and 10 AFC West titles (2010, 2016-24). Borgonzi helped construct a roster that won the AFC five times (2019-20, 2022-24) and captured three Super Bowl championships (2019, 2022-23) over a six-season span.

From 2017 to 2024, Borgonzi worked under Chiefs general manager Brett Veach. As the assistant general manager from 2021 through 2024, he supervised and directed the college and professional scouting operations while closely supporting and advising Veach with the club's roster management and player acquisition via the NFL Draft, free agency, waiver claims and trades. During his four seasons as assistant general manager, the Chiefs built a league-best 52-16 regular-season record (.765). In the same four-year span, 10 different Kansas City players earned a combined 23 Pro Bowl selections: tackle Orlando Brown Jr. (2021-22), wide receiver Tyreek Hill (2021), center Creed Humphrey (2022-24), defensive tackle Chris Jones (2021-24), tight end Travis Kelce (2021-24), quarterback Patrick Mahomes (2021-23), safety Tyrann Mathieu (2021), guard Trey Smith (2024), guard Joe Thuney (2022-24) and punter Tommy Townsend (2022).

The Chiefs entered the 2024 postseason after capturing their ninth consecutive AFC West crown. They tied the Detroit Lions for the NFL's best record at 15-2, setting a franchise record for wins in a regular season and securing the AFC's top seed. Twenty original Chiefs draft picks started at least six games for the team during the 2024 regular season. Kansas City had five players voted to the Pro Bowl, marking the seventh consecutive year in which it had at least five players earn the honor.

Prior to his promotion to assistant general manager, Borgonzi served as director of football operations (2018-20), director of player personnel (2017), co-director of player personnel (2015-16), assistant director of pro scouting (2013-14), pro personnel scout (2011-12) and manager of football operations (2010). He joined the Chiefs in 2009 as the club's college scouting administrator.

Before landing in the NFL with the Chiefs, Borgonzi spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at Boston College, where he was the assistant recruiting coordinator. He also coached tight ends at Amherst College in 2002 before working in the financial sector in Boston for several years.

A native of Everett, Mass., Borgonzi graduated from Brown University, where he was a four-year starter at fullback and was a three-time All-Ivy League selection.

He and his wife, Jill, have a son, Joseph, and a daughter, Nina. His brother, Dave, has served as the linebackers coach for the Indianapolis Colts and Chicago Bears and currently serves as the linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys.

TITANS OWN FOURTH OVERALL DRAFT PICK

The Titans currently own nine total choices, including the fourth overall pick, in the 91st National Football League Player Selection Meeting. The first round will start on Thursday, April 23, in Pittsburgh, Pa., with the second and third rounds on Friday, April 24, followed by rounds four through seven on Saturday, April 25.

For the duration of the draft, Titans general manager Mike Borgonzi, head coach Robert Saleh and their staffs will be headquartered at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park in MetroCenter, just north of downtown Nashville.

If the Titans keep their current allotment, it would mark the second consecutive draft with nine picks. Additionally, the NFL will award a total of 32 compensatory picks to teams in Rounds 3-7, based on net unrestricted free agency losses in 2025. The NFL typically announces the compensatory picks in March.

Teams are permitted to trade any pick, including compensatory selections.

THE FOURTH PICK

In determining draft order, non-playoff clubs select first through 18th, according to the reverse order of their standing (i.e., the team with the lowest winning percentage receives the first pick, the team with the second-lowest winning percentage receives the second pick, etc.). Playoff teams select 19th through 32nd based on their level of advancement in the postseason.

Ties in the draft order are broken by figuring the aggregate won-lost-tied percentage of each involved club's regular season opponents (strength of schedule) and awarding preferential selection order to the club which faced the schedule of teams with the lowest aggregate won-lost-tied percentage. If ties still exist, the divisional, conference or interconference tie-breaking methods are applied, whichever is applicable.

Clubs involved in two-club ties alternate positions from round-to-round. In ties that involve three or more clubs, the club at the top of a tied segment in a given round will move to the bottom of the segment for the next round, while all other clubs in the segment move up one position. This rotation continues throughout the draft.

The Titans were one of four teams with a 3-14 record in 2025, along with the Las Vegas Raiders, New York Jets and Arizona Cardinals. The Titans had a .574 strength of schedule in 2025, while the Raiders, Jets and Cardinals finished at .538, .552 and .571, respectively. As a result of their highest strength of schedule, the Titans pick last in the four-team group in the first round. The Titans move to the third slot within the group in the second round (35th overall), the second slot in the third round (66th overall) and the first slot in the fourth round (overall pick TBD). The four teams will rotate positions accordingly throughout the remainder of the draft.

Exact selection numbers for Rounds 4-7 will be known once compensatory selections are awarded.

Cam Ward was selected with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft.

Peter Skoronski was selected in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

Since 1967, when the NFL and AFL agreed to a "common draft," the Titans/Oilers have never used the No. 4 pick in the draft.

The fourth pick of the 2025 NFL Draft was tackle Will Campbell, who was taken by the New England Patriots. As a rookie, Campbell started 13 games at left tackle for the AFC East champions.

In addition to Campbell, the recent list of players selected first overall includes wide receiver Marvin Harrison Jr. (2024, Arizona), quarterback Anthony Richardson Sr. (2023, Indianapolis), cornerback Sauce Gardner (2022, New York Jets) and tight end Kyle Pitts Sr. (2021, Atlanta).

In 59 drafts in the common draft era, there have been a total of 35 No. 4 overall picks (59.3 percent) that have gone on to make at least one Pro Bowl. The list includes 12 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame: quarterback Bob Griese (1967, Miami), defensive lineman Joe Greene (1969, Pittsburgh), guard Jack Hannah (1973, New England), running back Walter Payton (1975, Chicago), defensive end Dan Hampton (1979, Chicago), safety Kenny Easley (1981, Seattle), defensive end Reggie White (1984, Philadelphia), outside linebacker Chris Doleman (1985, Pittsburgh), outside linebacker Derrick Thomas (1989, Kansas City), tackle Jonathan Ogden (1996, Baltimore), defensive back Charles Woodson (1998, Oakland) and running back Edgerrin James (1999, Indianapolis).

FIRST-ROUND PICKS BY POSITION

Since the team's initial draft as a charter member of the American Football League in 1960, the Titans have made 62 first-round selections, using that pick on an offensive player 37 times and on defense 25 times.

On offense, running backs and tackles lead the list, with each position having been chosen eight times in the first round. Seven quarterbacks have been chosen with a first-round pick, including Cam Ward in 2025.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebackers have been selected the most—eight times—by the Titans in the first round. Robert Brazile (1975), Lamar Lathon (1990) and Keith Bulluck (2000) headline the linebackers chosen.

During the franchise's "Titans era," which began in 1999, Tennessee has chosen an offensive player with a first-round pick 15 times and a defensive player 11 times. On two occasions during that span—2001 and 2004—the team did not have a first-round pick due to trades.

TITANS HEAD COACH ROBERT SALEH

The Tennessee Titans have hired Robert Saleh as the 22nd head coach in franchise history on Jan. 22, 2026.

"It is a tremendous honor to serve as the head coach of the Tennessee Titans," Saleh said. "I want to thank Amy Adams Strunk, Mike Borgonzi and Chad Brinker for trusting me to lead this football team. Our connection and shared vision during the interview process was immediately evident and reinforced my desire to be a Titan. This is where I want to be. We're not at the level we need to be as a team and a part of my love for this game is getting better every day and doing it together. We will be deliberate in everything we do. Championships are won by people, and we have the right people to construct a championship-caliber program. Finally, I want to make sure I recognize and thank the San Francisco 49ers, The York Family, Kyle Shanahan and John Lynch for five special seasons, where I grew not only as a coach, but as a husband and father. The relationships I built during my time there have made me better and given me the opportunity to be here. My family is fired up to join the Titans and this special community. Let's get to work."

Saleh arrives in Tennessee with 21 seasons of NFL coaching experience: six seasons with the Houston Texans (2005-10), three with the Seattle Seahawks (2011-13), three with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2014-16), five total seasons over two stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2017-20, 2025), and four campaigns as the head coach of the New York Jets (2021-24). During his time in the NFL, he has been a part of nine top-10 defenses, and in his nine seasons as a defensive coordinator or head coach, his team has finished in the top five in total defense on five occasions.

In 2025, Saleh returned to the San Francisco 49ers for his second stint as defensive coordinator under head coach Kyle Shanahan. With the roster decimated by injuries, including season-ending injuries to All-Pro defensive lineman Nick Bosa and All-Pro linebacker Fred Warner, the 49ers went 12-5 during the regular season and progressed to the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

As the head coach of the Jets (2021-24), Saleh guided four different players in their first four years in the NFL to Associated Press First-Team All-Pro honors (cornerback Sauce Gardner, defensive lineman Quinnen Williams and returner Braxton Berrios) and/or Pro Bowl appearances (Gardner, Williams and linebacker Jermaine Johnson II). The Jets defense finished in the top 10 in multiple categories over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, and over that two-year span, Saleh's Jets ranked first in passing yards allowed per game (178.9) and opponent yards per play (4.7), second in total defense (301.7) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1). The unit also tallied 93 sacks and 29 interceptions during that time, tied for the eighth and 10th-most, respectively, in the NFL.

The 2023 Jets featured a pair of first-team Associated Press All-Pros in Gardner and linebacker Quincy Williams, as well as three Pro Bowl selections in Gardner, Johnson II and Quinnen Williams. The Jets also won four games after trailing in the fourth quarter, tying for the second-most such victories in the NFL. Defensively, the Jets finished in a tie for first place in opponent yards per play (4.6) and ranked second in passing yards allowed per game (168.3), third in total defense (292.3) and tied for eighth in takeaways (27). The Jets held opponents to seven points or less in 10 of their 17 games, which was tied for the most such games in the NFL. Meanwhile, the Jets offense gained 4,566 total yards in 2023, with 64.1 percent of those yards coming from rookie and second-year players, the second-most in the NFL. Saleh saw second-year running back Breece Hall register career highs in rushing yards (994), receiving yards (591), yards from scrimmage (1,585) and total touchdowns (nine).

In 2022, Saleh led a roster that featured two first-team AP All-Pro selections (Gardner and Quinnen Williams), a second-team All-Pro (linebacker C.J. Mosley) and four Pro Bowl selections (special teamer) Justin Hardee, Gardner, Mosley and Quinnen Williams). He also oversaw the development of the NFL's Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year in wide receiver Garrett Wilson and Gardner, making the Jets the third team in NFL history to have both rookie players win the honor. Wilson led all rookie wide receivers in receptions (83) and receiving yards (1,103), while Gardner led the NFL in passes defensed (20). The Jets improved their win total by three games, which marked the sixth-largest win improvement in the NFL in 2022. The club boasted a defense that tied for first in opponent yards per play (4.8) and finished third in passing defense (189.4), fourth in scoring defense (316) and fourth in total defense (311.1).

In his first year as head coach of the Jets, the 2021 team was led by rookie quarterback Zach Wilson (2,519 passing yards), rookie running back Michael Carter (639 rushing yards) and rookie wide receiver Elijah Moore (538 receiving yards). The Jets were just the second team since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to be led by rookies in passing yards, rushing yards and receiving yards.

Before taking the helm in New York, Saleh logged four seasons (2017-20) in his first stint as the defensive coordinator for the 49ers. During that span, the 49ers defense ranked third in passing yards allowed per game (211.4), fourth in total defense (323.6) and opponent yards per play (5.1) and sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.1).

In 2020, despite injuries to key players throughout the year, the 49ers defense held top-five marks in passing yards allowed per game (207.9, fourth), third-down defense (35.5 percent, fourth), total defense (314.4, fifth) and opponent yards per play (5.0, tied for fifth). The unit also ranked tied for sixth in opponent yards per rush (4.0) and seventh in opponent rushing yards per game (106.4). The defense was led by Warner, who earned first-team AP All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection after registering a team-high 125 tackles to go along with a sack, two interceptions, six passes defensed, one forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

In 2019, Saleh was named Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News after leading the 49ers defense to a second-place finish in total defense – 281.8 yards allowed per game – which was the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco placed first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (153.7 by the Jets). It marked the

QUOTES ON ROBERT SALEH

CONTROLLING OWNER AMY ADAMS STRUNK:

"We're delighted to welcome Robert and his family to the Titans, and firmly believe he is the right person for our team and community. We immediately connected with his competitive spirit and detailed approach to developing our players and team. Also, Robert's recommendations from across the league were overwhelmingly positive and were only reinforced during our time together. I want to thank Mike Borgonzi for his leadership during this process and acknowledge the work done by the search committee. They dedicated so much time and effort and I am thrilled with the results – and most importantly – I believe Titans fans will be, too. Congratulations to Robert and his family, and welcome to Nashville."

GENERAL MANAGER MIKE BORGONZI:

"On behalf of the entire Titans organization and Nashville community, I am thrilled to welcome Robert Saleh as our head coach. Robert embodies the fundamental values of what we believe a Titan should look like and represent. He's smart, tough, dependable, and values working with people. His innate ability to lead and respond to adversity is what makes him the right person to lead our football program back to one whose identity embodies sustainable success. We understand the urgency to win, and believe this is a step in that direction with a coach best equipped to accomplish our goals. The work has just begun, but I'm grateful for this partnership and excited to build this together."

first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing defense since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51). San Francisco also ranked seventh in opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Bosa, a rookie in 2019, played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed. He was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News and PFWA, as well as the NFL's Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (nine), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four or more players with at least 6.5 sacks in 2019. Rookie linebacker Dre Greenlaw was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by cornerback Richard Sherman, who registered three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and was named second-team All-Pro.

In 2018, the 49ers defense registered 37 sacks, the most by the team in a single season at the time since 2013 (38). The defense ranked among the top dozen teams in the league in rushing yards per play allowed (4.09, seventh), opponent completion percentage (63.5, 10th), yards per play allowed (5.42, 11th) and net passing yards per game allowed (233.3, 11th). San Francisco was one of six teams (Baltimore Ravens, Buffalo Bills, Detroit Lions, Indianapolis Colts & New England Patriots) to allow fewer net yards per game, rushing yards per game and passing yards per game than in 2017. The 2018 San Francisco defense was anchored by Buckner, who led the team with a career-high 12 sacks and was named to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career. His 12 sacks were the most by a 49ers defender since 2012 (19.5 by Aldon Smith). Warner started all 16 games as a rookie and led the team with 123 tackles, ranking 12th in the NFL and third among all rookies.

In 2017, Saleh spearheaded a 49ers defensive unit that allowed 5.28 yards per play, which was a 0.62 yards-per-play improvement from 2016 and the third-largest improvement in the NFL from 2016 to 2017 behind Cleveland (0.76) and the Jets (0.72). The defense also held its opponents under 100 yards rushing seven times. From Weeks 12-16, the 49ers' streak of holding each of their five opponents under 100 yards rushing was tied for the longest streak in the NFL over that span (Arizona). The 49ers defense was among the league leaders at getting into the opponent's backfield on running plays, finishing tied for fifth in the NFL by forcing 53 rushes for negative yardage. Over the final eight weeks of the year, San Francisco ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards allowed (640) and tied for fourth in yards per carry allowed (3.62).

Saleh joined San Francisco after three years (2014-16) as the linebackers coach of the Jaguars. In 2016, Saleh's linebackers helped the Jacksonville defense rank fifth in passing yards allowed (215.3) and sixth in opponent rushing average (3.82). Team captain Paul Posluszny started all 16 games at middle linebacker and led the club in tackles for the second consecutive season. According to Jaguars team statistics, linebacker Telvin Smith Sr. registered 118 tackles while starting all 16 games at outside linebacker for the first time in his career. Smith's 350 career tackles from 2014 through 2016 were the most by a Jaguars player in his first three NFL seasons.

In 2015, the Jaguars defense allowed 3.68 yards per rushing attempt, which was the fifth-lowest rushing average allowed in the NFL. Posluszny led the squad and ranked fifth in the NFL with 133 tackles, according to GSIS statistics, while tying with Smith for the team lead with 13 tackles for loss.

Under Saleh's guidance, Smith stepped in the starting lineup in 2014 and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. After a season-ending injury to Posluszny midway through the year, J.T. Thomas stepped in and set a career high in tackles along with two interceptions.

Prior to Jacksonville, Saleh spent three seasons (2011-13) as a defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks. During that period, he was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties with a focus on the linebackers. Working under linebackers coach Ken Norton Jr., Saleh aided in the development of K.J. Wright, Bobby Wagner and Super Bowl XLVIII MVP Malcolm Smith.

Before joining the Seahawks, Saleh totaled six seasons with the Texans, serving as a coaching intern (2005), defensive assistant (2006-08) and assistant linebackers coach (2009-10). While there, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). In 2009, the Pro Bowl duo of Ryans and Cushing were the only teammates to each rank among the league's top 10 tacklers.

Saleh's coaching career began with three seasons in the collegiate ranks. He launched his career at Michigan State University as an offensive assistant/tight ends coach (2002) and defensive assistant/defensive line coach (2003). He then spent one season (2004) as a defensive assistant/defensive line coach at Central Michigan University before a brief stint (2005) at the University of Georgia as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University, where he was a four-year starter at tight end.

He and his wife, Sanaa, have eight children: sons Adam, Zane, Michael, Sam, Jacob and Robert Jr., and daughters Mila and Ella.

NISSAN STADIUM

In 2015, the Titans and Nissan North America announced the formation of an exclusive naming-rights partnership that rebranded Nashville's downtown stadium as Nissan Stadium.

Eight years later, on Nov. 17, 2023, the Titans and Nissan North America announced a new agreement: a 20-year, exclusive naming-rights partnership that brands the new Titans home venue as 'Nissan Stadium.'

Slated for completion in 2027, the new Nissan Stadium will host Titans home games, Tennessee State University football games, concerts, large-scale events and other community events.

"This partnership is a natural extension of our already longstanding friendship with Nissan," said Burke Nihill, Titans President and CEO. "Our mission at the Titans is to Win, Serve, and Entertain. We pride ourselves on collaborating with organizations who love this city and state as much as we do, and for the past 40 years, Nissan has invested more than $10.5 billion statewide, serving as a great example of an outstanding corporate steward and community advocate. We look forward to the continued positive impact of this relationship for the Titans organization and the City of Nashville."

"Since 2015 our fans and organization have called our home 'Nissan Stadium,' and we are proud to continue that tradition in the new stadium as we deepen and expand our relationship with them," said Titans Chief Revenue Officer Adam Nuse. "The new stadium will host the world's largest events, as well as serve as a community hub for our local neighbors. We're excited to have a partner like Nissan embark on this journey with us as we look towards the future."

The partnership will feature dedicated areas in the new stadium for brand experiences and displays, innovative technology integration, and involvement in Titans broadcast platforms. Nissan also will support a to-be-determined program in the Titans' ONE Community philanthropic platform, which reaches Nashville's most underrepresented and marginalized communities with a focus on three areas – Opportunity, Neighborhoods and Education.

"Nissan Stadium is a centerpiece of the Nashville skyline and has become a household name in Middle Tennessee. It is important for Nissan to keep our name on the new stadium," said Jérémie Papin, chairperson, Nissan Americas. "As more people come to Nashville both to visit and to live in this wonderful city, Nissan Stadium is true showcase for our brand and for the career opportunities we've offered here for more than four decades. This partnership sends a strong message about the bright future for Nissan, the Titans, Nashville and the State of Tennessee."

Nissan's ever-growing footprint in Tennessee includes vehicle and powertrain manufacturing facilities in Smyrna and Decherd respectively, along with its North American headquarters in Franklin. Nissan is home to more than 11,000 employees across all three locations.

"Nissan has been a strong partner to middle Tennessee for four decades, and I'm thrilled that the Titans have united with a partner that invests in our community and its people," said Nashville Mayor Freddie O'Connell. "The familiarity and trust they've established with the Titans in the last eight years will undoubtedly be a great asset as we plan for the stadium's opening in 2027."

The new Nissan stadium will be built on the east side of the current stadium campus, along Nashville's East Bank. Features of the building include: a circular translucent roof; exterior porches with panoramic views of Nashville; improved sightlines for all spectators through a range of diverse seating experiences; and a 12,000 square foot community space available for use year-round. A waitlist for those interested in purchasing PSLs or suites is now open at NewNissanStadium.com.

Quarterback Cam Ward was selected by the Titans with the first overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. He became the first No. 1 overall pick for the franchise since running back Earl Campbell in 1978.

As a rookie, Ward was voted a team captain prior to the season. He started all 17 games, and his final statistics included 323 completions, 3,169 yards, 15 touchdowns and seven interceptions on 540 attempts with a passer rating of 80.2. He broke Marcus Mariota's franchise rookie record (2,818 passing yards in 2015) for passing yards in a season. He also rushed for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 39 attempts.

With 17 starts, he set a franchise record for starts by a rookie quarterback and joined Ryan Tannehill (2021) as the only Titans quarterbacks with 17 starts in a season since the NFL schedule went to 17 games in 2021. Previously during the 16-game schedule era from 1978 to 2020, six Titans/Oilers quarterbacks combined for 10 total seasons with 16 starts: Warren Moon (three), Steve McNair (three), Dan Pastorini, Ken Stabler, Matt Hasselbeck and Tannehill.

Ward's 540 attempts in 2025 were not only more than any other rookie in the organization's history, but also more than every quarterback in franchise annals in a season other than Warren Moon, who had 655 attempts in 1991 and 584 attempts in 1990.

On 540 attempts, Ward threw only seven interceptions. His 1.3 interception percentage stands as the best single-season mark in franchise history by all qualifying quarterbacks. He broke Ryan Tannehill's franchise record of 1.5 percent in 2020. Over the final nine games of the season, Ward threw only one interception. His 1.3 percent interception rate also tied for the third-best mark in the NFL among qualifiers in 2025 behind Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr. (1.1) and Chicago's Caleb Williams (1.2).

Prior to entering the NFL, Ward played for three different schools over five college seasons: Incarnate Word (2020-21), Washington State (2022-23) and Miami (2024). In 57 career games—all starts—he completed 1,516 of 2,330 passes for 18,184 yards, and his 158 touchdown passes set an NCAA Division I (FBS/FCS) record. He also totaled 399 rushes for 473 yards and 20 touchdowns.

During his graduate campaign at Miami, he started all 13 games and led the Hurricanes to a 10-3 record, giving them their first 10-win season since 2017. He earned first-team Associated Press All-America honors and was a Heisman finalist after establishing Miami's single-season records for passing yards (4,313), touchdowns (39) and completion percentage (67.2 percent, 305-for-454), while throwing only seven interceptions. He received the 2024 Davey O'Brien Award, recognizing the nation's top quarterback, and was named ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year and first-team All-ACC.

At Washington State in 2023, Ward started all 12 games and completed 324 of 486 passes for 3,732 yards and 25 touchdowns with seven interceptions. He also accounted for eight rushing touchdowns. At the conclusion of the season, he received All-Pac-12 Conference honorable mention for the second consecutive season.

Ward arrived at Washington State as a junior in 2022. He started all 13 games in his first season with the Cougars and completed 320 of 497 passes for 3,231 yards and 23 touchdowns with nine interceptions. He added five rushing touchdowns.

In 2021, Ward was a sophomore at Incarnate Word, where he was named Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FCS All-American second team and a Walter Payton Award Finalist after leading UIW to Southland Conference Championship, a 10-3 record and into the second round of the FCS playoffs. His statistics included 384 completions on 590 attempts for 4,648 yards, 47 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. He set program records for single game passing yards (610), single-game passing touchdowns (seven), career passing touchdowns (71) and career passing yards (6,908).

As a freshman in 2020, Ward started in all six games at Incarnate Word during the spring season (2021) that resulted from the COVID-19 outbreak. He completed 183 of 303 passes for 2,260 yards and 24 touchdowns and was named the Jerry Rice Award winner, given to the top FCS freshman.

Ward is a native of West Columbia, Texas.

quarter, he found Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard completion, his longest career completion to date. In the second quarter, he converted a third-and-six with a 22-yard pass to Calvin Ridley.

➢ At Arizona (10/5), earned his first career win as a starting quarterback, completing 21 of 39 passes for 265 yards. He engineered a 15-point fourth-quarter comeback in the win, and in the fourth quarter, he was 13-of-18 passing for 193 yards in the fourth quarter. He was credited with his first career game-winning drive, which ended with Joey Slye's game-winning field goal as time expired. Ward completed five of his six passes on the drive for 67 yards, including a 38-yard pass to Calvin Ridley to help set up the field goal. The Titans trailed by 18 points in the second quarter, which tied for the second-largest deficit by any quarterback in their first career win as a starter in the Super Bowl era (21 by Atlanta's Mike Moroski in Week 13, 1983; 18 by New York Giants' Daniel Jones in Week 3, 2019; 18 by Seattle's Jon Kitna in Week 16, 1997). Since 2000, Ward joined Vince Young (Nov. 26, 2006 against the New York Giants) as the only NFL rookie quarterbacks to win a game in which they trailed by 15 or more points in the fourth quarter. Ward's 193 fourth-quarter passing yards were the fourth-most by an NFL rookie in a game since the beginning of the 1978 season. In that span, Ward ranked behind only Tampa Bay's Jameis Winston (238 at St. Louis on Dec. 17, 2015), Houston's Davis Mills (220 vs. L.A. Rams on Oct. 31, 2021) and Washington's Jayden Daniels (194 vs. Dallas on Nov. 24, 2024). From that group, Ward's total was the second-most in a road game and the most in a victory. He found Ridley in the fourth quarter for a 47-yard pass, which was the longest of Ward's career to date, to help set up a touchdown.

➢ At Las Vegas (10/12), completed 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards with one touchdown and one interception. He completed his first six passes of the game, and in the first quarter, he converted a third-and-10 with an 18-yard pass to Calvin Ridley. Ward connected three times with Van Jefferson on passes of at least 20 yards: a 20-yarder in the second quarter, a 23-yarder in the third quarter and another 23-yarder in the fourth quarter. In the fourth quarter, he converted a fourth-and-15 with a 20-yard completion to Chig Okonkwo and registered his third career touchdown pass on a one-yard toss to David Martin-Robinson. He became the first quarterback in franchise history to start at least the first six games of his rookie campaign.

➢ Against New England (10/19), completed 25 of 34 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown and one interception. His 73.5 completion percentage, 7.50 yards per attempt, 14 passing first downs, and 92.2 passer rating were his best marks through seven NFL games. His 73.5 completion percentage was the best in franchise history by a rookie quarterback with at least 30 attempts in a game, eclipsing Marcus Mariota's previous mark of 71.8 (28-of-39) as a rookie at New Orleans on Nov. 8, 2015. Ward became the team's first rookie quarterback in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) with 25 or more completions in back-to-back games. The last quarterback to accomplish the feat for the Titans was Mariota, who accomplished the feat in two consecutive games from Sept. 11-18, 2016. Ward completed 10 of his first 11 passes for 144 yards and one touchdown (149.1 passer rating), including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the first quarter.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/26), completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards and a touchdown, eclipsing the 250-yard passing mark for the third time in four games. He became the first Titans quarterback since Marcus Mariota in 2015 to have 20 or more completions in four consecutive team games. Ward threw a 21-yard pass to Chimere Dike to convert a third-and-10 in the first quarter and added a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor in the second quarter. He also completed a 23-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo in the third quarter and a 22-yard strike to Gunnar Helm in the fourth quarter.

➢ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), completed 12 of 21 passes for 145 yards. He completed a 21-yard pass to Van Jefferson in the first quarter and connected with Tyjae Spears for a 26-yard completion in the second quarter. In the third quarter, he helped convert a third-and-seven with a 29-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor.

➢ Against Houston (11/16), completed 24 of 37 passes for 194 yards and one touchdown (87.0 passer rating). He also rushed for 33 yards on three attempts. During a 95-yard, game-tying drive in the fourth quarter, he completed a 39-yard pass to Chig Okonkwo and a four-yard touchdown pass to Van Jefferson. During the drive, he completed six of eight passes for 63 yards and also scrambled for a 20-yard gain. In the first quarter, he completed six of eight passes for 57 yards (94.3 passer rating). He rushed for a 10-yard gain to convert a third-and-four in the fourth quarter. He became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start the first 10 games of a season. Previously, Marcus Mariota held the franchise's longest rookie streak to begin a season with starts in the first five games as a rookie in 2015.

➢ Against Seattle (11/23), completed 28-of-42 passes for 256 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions, amounting to a 91.0 passer rating. He added six rushing attempts for 37 yards and one touchdown, and four of his rushing attempts resulted in first downs. He tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike in the fourth quarter. He also had completions of 25 yards to Dike and 26 yards to Chig Okonkwo. He scored his first career touchdown on a six-yard rushing attempt in the third quarter—the first rushing touchdown by a Titans quarterback since Mason Rudolph's 11-yard run at Detroit on Oct. 27, 2024. By increasing his total to 2,210 passing yards in 2025, he surpassed Vince Young (2,199 in 2006) for the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history behind Marcus Mariota (2,818 in 2015).

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/30), completed 24 of 38 passes for 141 yards and added a seven-yard rushing attempt for a first down. It was his fourth consecutive game without throwing an interception, and he extended his streak to 143 pass attempts without throwing an interception. At the conclusion of the game, it was the second-longest active streak in the NFL behind the 156 consecutive attempts without an interception by Atlanta's Michael Penix Jr.

➢ At Cleveland (12/7), logged his first career performance with multiple touchdown passes, completing 14-of-28 passes for 117 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. During the game's opening drive, he completed all four pass attempts for 48 yards, including a 14-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor. In the fourth quarter, he threw a five-yard touchdown pass to Chimere Dike. He became the second rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 13 games in a season, along with Vince Young (13 starts in 2006).

➢ At San Francisco (12/14), completed 18 of 29 passes for 170 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. It was his second consecutive game with two touchdown passes. His 101.2 passer rating was the best of his rookie season through 14 games. For the first time in his rookie campaign, he was not sacked. In the second quarter, he found Gunnar Helm for a 34-yard touchdown pass, his longest touchdown completion since a 38-yarder in Week 7 against New England. During a two-play span in the fourth quarter, he connected with Van Jefferson for a 43-yard completion and then found defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons on a one-yard touchdown pass. In the first half, he completed 10-of-15 passes for 106 yards and a touchdown, amounting to a 109.3 passer rating. Ward became the first rookie quarterback in franchise history to start at least 14 games in a season, surpassing Vince Young's previous mark of 13 starts as a rookie in 2006. Additionally, Ward joined Marcus Mariota (2,818 passing yards in 2015) as the only rookies in franchise history with 2,500 passing yards.

➢ Against Kansas City (12/21), completed 21-of-28 passes for 228 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. His 122.3 passer rating was his best through 15 NFL games. It was his second consecutive game with a passer rating above 100 and his third consecutive game with two touchdown passes. His 122.3 passer rating was the franchise's fourth best since 1970 by a rookie quarterback with at least 20 attempts in a game. In that span, only Marcus Mariota (135.7 at New Orleans on Nov. 8 ,2015), Will Levis (130.5 vs. Atlanta on Oct. 29, 2023) and Vince Young (127.7 at Buffalo on Dec. 24, 2006) fared better with 20-plus attempts as rookies. He threw a screen pass to Tyjae Spears that went 34 yards in the second quarter, and later on the same drive, he was credited with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Chig Okonkwo. On the opening series of the second half, he completed a 25-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor, a 30-yard pass to Chimere Dike and a one-yard touchdown pass to Dike. It was his 13th touchdown pass of the season, which put him past Vince Young (12 in 2006) for the second-most in franchise history by a rookie, behind only Marcus Mariota (19 in 2015). Ward converted a third-and-10 in the fourth quarter with a 24-yard completion to Elic Ayomanor to set up a touchdown on the next play. During the game, he set the record for the most passing yards in franchise history by a rookie quarterback, breaking Marcus Mariota's record of 2,818 passing yards in 2015.

➢ Against New Orleans (12/28), completed 21-of-40 passes for 251 yards and two touchdowns with no interceptions (88.6 passer rating). His streak of four consecutive games with at least two touchdown passes established the longest such streak for the Titans since Ryan Tannehill's five-game streak in 2020. Ward joined Brock Purdy (2022), Jayden Daniels (2024) and Bo Nix (2024) as the only rookie quarterbacks over five seasons (2021 to 2025) to have such a streak of four or more games. In the second quarter, facing a fourth-and-two, he delivered a pass to Chig Okonkwo for a 43-yard touchdown. It was Ward's longest touchdown pass to date. He also threw a seven-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor late in the second quarter. Ward and Chimere Dike connected on a 38-yard pass in the first quarter to set up a field goal. Ward delivered a 27-yard pass to Van Jefferson in the second quarter and completed a 34-yard pass to Mason Kinsey in the third quarter to help set up a field goal. He established the first rookie 3,000-yard passing season in franchise history and the 21st overall 3,000-yard season in team annals—the first since Ryan Tannehill in 2021. In 2025, Pollard was voted a team captain for the first time in his career. He led the Titans in rushing for the second consecutive season with 242 carries for a career-high 1,082 yards and five touchdowns. It was the second consecutive season in which he set a career high in rushing (1,079 yards in 2024).

Pollard became the fourth player in Titans/Oilers history to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his first two seasons with the club, joining Earl Campbell (1978-81), Eddie George (1996-00) and Chris Johnson (2008-13). With his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard rushing season, including his final two campaigns in Dallas, he joined Derrick Henry as the NFL's only running backs to rush for 1,000 yards every season from 2022 to 2025.

Pollard's durability continued through seven NFL campaigns, during which time he never missed more than two games in a season. During his time in Dallas, he appeared in 79 games with 23 starts, totaling 3,621 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns on 762 carries. In 2023, his first season as the lead running back in Dallas, Pollard started all 17 games for the first time in his career and led the team with 1,005 rushing yards on a career-high 252 carries (4.0 avg.) with six touchdowns.

In 2022, he set career marks with 193 carries for 1,007 yards and nine scores, averaging 5.2 yards-per-carry to rank third in the NFL and earn his first Pro Bowl nod.

At the University of Memphis, he played in 40 games at running back and wide receiver, amassing 2,233 yards and 18 touchdowns on offense. He also averaged 30.1 yards per kickoff return and tied an NCAA record with seven kickoff returns for touchdowns.

#17 • WR CHIMERE DIKE

6-1, 196, Rookie, Florida
Click for complete bio

Wide receiver Chimere Dike was selected by the Titans in the fourth round (103rd overall) of the 2025 NFL Draft.

As a rookie, he led the NFL with 2,427 all-purpose yards, which included 1,588 kickoff return yards, 398 punt return yards, 423 receiving yards and 18 rushing yards.

He was named to the Pro Bowl as the AFC's starting returner, becoming the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

Dike also earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors as a punt returner. He was the franchise's fourth rookie since the merger to earn first-team AP All-Pro honors, joining Campbell (1978), Kearse (1999) and tackle Jack Conklin (2016).

Dike's 2,427 all-purpose yards in 2025 ranked third in franchise history for a single season behind Derrick Mason's 2,690 all-purpose yards in 2000 and Johnson's 2,509 yards in 2009. The number established the all-time NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards and was the highest in a season by any NFL player since 2011, when Darren Sproles set the NFL record with 2,696 all-purpose yards.

Dike returned 23 punts for 398 yards and two touchdowns. His 17.3-yard average tied for the NFL lead with New England's Marcus Jones while also breaking the franchise single-season record, which was held for 48 years by Billy "White Shoes" Johnson. Dike averaged nearly two yards per return more than Johnson's mark of 15.4 yards in 1977 (35 for 539 yards).

Dike also returned 62 kickoffs for a franchise-record 1,588 yards, averaging 25.6 yards per attempt. He ranked second in the NFL in kickoff return yards in 2025 behind Dallas' KaVontae Turpin (1,814). His 1,588 kickoff return yards put him in third place in NFL history among rookies, trailing only the Raiders' Chris Carr (1,752 in 2005) and Arizona's Josh Scobey (1,684 in 2003).

With a punt return average of 17.3 yards and a kickoff return average of 25.6 yards, Dike became the NFL's first player since Detroit's Jack Christiansen in 1952 (21.5 punt return average and 25.6 kickoff return average) to qualify with an average 17.0-plus yards per punt return and 25.0-plus yards per kickoff return in a season.

On offense, Dike's rookie contributions included finishing second on the squad with 48 receptions, ranking third with 423 receiving yards, and tying for the team lead with four touchdown catches. His six total touchdowns led the Titans.

The Waukesha, Wis., native played four seasons (2020-23) at Wisconsin before transferring to Florida for his final season (2024). In five total seasons, he appeared in 57 games with 42 starts and tallied 139 receptions for 2,261 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 14 rushing attempts for 99 yards and one touchdown, and additionally, he recorded 26 punt returns for 300 yards and 20 kickoff returns for 472 yards.

In 2024, Dike was named a team captain for the Gators during his first and only season with the team. Gained nine yards on his first NFL rushing attempt in the second quarter. Recorded a 71-yard kickoff return in the second quarter to set up a Titans field goal. It was the Titans' longest kickoff return since Darius Jennings returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown on Sept. 9, 2018 at Miami. His 71-yard kickoff return was the longest by a Titans rookie since Marc Mariani's 73-yarder at Dallas on Oct. 10, 2010. His 144 kickoff return yards made up the highest single-game total for a Titans player since Darrynton Evans (145) on Dec. 27, 2020 at Green Bay.

➢ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), totaled 37 yards on two punt returns, including a 21-yard long. He also returned five kickoffs for 83 yards (16.6 avg.), caught two passes resulting in a net loss of one yard, and added nine rushing yards on two attempts.

➢ Against Indianapolis (9/21), registered his first NFL start at wide receiver. He totaled 162 kickoff return yards on six attempts (27.0 average), accumulating the most kickoff return yards in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington's 209 kickoff return yards at Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. His 35-yard kickoff return in the first quarter helped set up a field goal. Also totaled three yards on two rushing attempts and two yards on three receptions.

➢ At Houston (9/28), returned six kickoffs for a 23.5-yard average (long of 29). He became the NFL's first rookie since Chad Morton of the New Orleans Saints in 2000 with at least four kickoff returns in each of the first four games of his rookie season.

➢ At Arizona (10/5), contributed two receptions for 17 yards, three punt returns for 33 yards, and four kickoff returns for 136 yards. He provided a spark with a 65-yard kickoff return in the second quarter—the second-longest kickoff return of his rookie season (71 at Denver on Sept. 7). It gave him two of the NFL's top five longest kickoff returns to date in 2025. His 71-yarder against Denver was the second longest of the season and his 65-yard return ranked fourth.

➢ At Las Vegas (10/12), totaled 66 yards on three kickoff returns and eight yards on a pair of receptions.

➢ Against New England (10/19), totaled four receptions for 70 yards and a touchdown. He added a 15-yard punt return and 84 yards on three kickoff returns (28.0 avg.). In the first quarter, he posted four receptions for 70 yards in the first quarter. His 70 receiving yards in the first quarter were the most by a Titans rookie in the first quarter of a game since Justin McCareins had 70 in the first quarter against Tampa Bay on Oct. 14, 2001. His first career touchdown came on a 38-yard pass from Cam Ward after he set up the scoring drive with a 29-yard kickoff return to the New England 41-yard line. In the first seven games of 2025, he totaled 1,025 combined total yards (scrimmage yards + return yards) to join two previous players in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to reach 1,000 combined yards in the team's first seven games of a season: Derrick Mason in 2000 (1,221 yards in the first seven games) and Derrick Henry in 2021 (1,023). In the same span, only three previous NFL rookies reached 1,000 combined yards in the first seven games of a season: Adrian Peterson (1,251 in 2007), Percy Harvin (1,007 in 2009) and Kareem Hunt (1,002 in 2017). His 1,025 combined yards were the most in the NFL in a team's first seven games since Alvin Kamara had 1,031 in the first seven games of the New Orleans Saints' 2020 campaign.

➢ At Indianapolis (10/26), led the team with seven receptions and 93 receiving yards and added 175 yards on seven kickoff returns (25.0 avg.). His 93 receiving yards were the most by a Titans rookie since Treylon Burks' 111 at Green Bay on Nov. 17, 2022. Dike became the first rookie for the Titans to register back-to-back games with at least 70 yards receiving since Burks in Week 11-12 of the 2022 season. His 269 all-purpose yards at Indianapolis were the most in any NFL game in 2025 through Sunday, Oct. 26, and the total ranked third for the Titans since the beginning of the 1999 season behind only Derrick Mason's 302 all-purpose yards against Buffalo on Dec. 14, 2003 and Chris Johnson's 284 against Houston on Sept. 20, 2009. His 175 kickoff return yards were the most in a game by a Titans player since Leon Washington had 209 against Denver on Dec. 8, 2013. At the conclusion of the game, his 1,294 all-purpose yards in 2025 were the most for the Titans through eight games since Derrick Mason's 1,382 in 2000, and Dike had the most by any NFL player through eight games since New Orleans Saints running back Darren Sproles had 1,331 in 2011.

➢ Against the L.A. Chargers (11/2), totaled 220 all-purpose yards, including three punt returns for 98 yards, four kickoff returns for 117 yards and one reception for five yards. In the first quarter, he returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown—the team's first punt return touchdown since Darius Reynaud had two against Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012 and the team's first special teams return score (punt or kickoff) since A.J. Brown's kickoff return touchdown at Indianapolis on Nov. 29, 2020. His 98 yards on three punt returns made up the highest punt return yardage total in a game by a Titans player since Reynaud's franchise-record 160 vs. Jacksonville on Dec. 30, 2012. He was the first Titans rookie in the team's "Titans era" (1999 to present) to log multiple games with at least 200 all-purpose yards, while becoming the NFL's first rookie to do so since Cincinnati's Ja'Marr Chase in 2021. Dike joined Pacman Jones (1,127 in 2005) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) as the only rookies in franchise history to reach 1,000 kickoff return yards in a season (1,108), and he also secured the ninth overall individual season in franchise history with 1,000 kickoff return yards.

➢ Against Houston (11/16), caught two passes for 14 yards before exiting the contest in the second quarter with an injury.

➢ Against Seattle (11/23), caught five passes for 44 yards and a touchdown to go along with a 90-yard punt return for a touchdown, and he added 98 yards on five kickoff returns to give him 232 all-purpose yards—his second-highest total through 11 career games. It was his third time in a four-game span exceeding 200 all-purpose yards. In the third quarter, he returned a Michael Dickson punt 90 yards for a touchdown, and in doing so, he tied Pacman Jones' record (90-yard touchdown at Philadelphia on Nov. 19, 2006) for the longest punt return in franchise history. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a one-yard touchdown pass from Cam Ward. In doing so, he joined Billy "White Shoes" Johnson (Oct. 26, 1975 vs. Detroit) and Justin McCareins (Nov. 23, 2003 at Atlanta) as the only players in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a receiving touchdown in the same game. Dike became the first Titans player to return two punts for touchdowns in a season since Darius Reynaud did so in 2012, and Dike became the second NFL player in 2025, along with Jacksonville's Parker Washington, to return two punts for touchdowns. Only six previous rookies since 2000 recorded at least two punt return touchdowns: Patrick Peterson (four), Devin Hester (three), Jamal Agnew (two), Tyreek Hill (two), Dez Bryant (two) and B.J. Sams (two). Dike's highlights also included a 25-yard reception to convert a third-and-three in the first quarter. He finished the contest with 1,760 all-purpose yards in 2025 to join Derrick Mason (1,963 yards in the first 11 games of 2000) as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,700 all-purpose yards in the team's first 11 games of a season.

➢ Against Jacksonville (11/30), returned five punts for 76 yards and three kickoffs for 76 yards, in addition to an eight-yard reception. In the fourth quarter, he returned a Logan Cooke punt 47 yards. It was his third punt return of his rookie season of at least 47 yards. With a league-leading 1,921 all-purpose yards through 12 games, he joined Derrick Mason as the franchise's only players since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger with 1,900 all-purpose yards in the team's first 12 games of a season. Mason had 2,103 yards in the first 12 games of 2000. With 1,282 kickoff return yards through 12 games, he surpassed Darius Reynaud (1,240 in 2012) for the third-highest single-season total in franchise history, trailing only Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) and Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010).

➢ At Cleveland (12/7), registered a team-high five receptions for 24 yards and one touchdown, and he returned the opening kickoff 41 yards. In the fourth quarter, he scored on a five-yard pass from Cam Ward for the third touchdown reception of his rookie season. He established a new franchise rookie record in all-purpose yards, surpassing Jerry LeVias' 1,946 all-purpose yards as a rookie in 1969. He also moved past Bobby Jancik (1,317 in 1963) for the second-highest single-season kickoff return total in franchise history, trailing only Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010). Dike and Jacksonville's Parker Washington became the NFL's first players with at least two punt return touchdowns and three touchdown receptions in a season since Kansas City's Tyreek Hill (two punt return touchdowns and six receiving touchdowns) in 2016. Dike, Hill and Dez Bryant (two punt return touchdowns and six receiving touchdowns in 2010) were the only previous rookies to accomplish the feat since the start of the 2000 campaign.

➢ At San Francisco (12/14), caught four passes for 17 yards and added 90 kickoff return yards on four attempts. He secured the sixth season in franchise history with 2,000 all-purpose yards, joining Derrick Mason in 2000 (2,690), Chris Johnson in 2009 (2,509), Derrick Henry in 2020 (2,141), Billy Cannon in 1961 (2,043) and Mason in 2001 (2,004). He moved into second place in franchise history with 1,413 kickoff return yards, behind only Marc Mariani's 1,530 in 2010.

➢ Against Kansas City (12/21), caught three passes for 40 yards and a touchdown, while adding five kickoff returns for 122 yards (24.4 avg.) and three punt returns for 23 yards (7.7 avg.). On the opening series of the second half, he caught a 30-yard pass and finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown reception. He joined A.J. Brown (nine touchdowns in 2019), Chris Johnson (10 in 2008) and Vince Young (seven in 2006) as the only franchise rookies since the start of the 1999 season with at least six total touchdowns. Dike also became the fourth rookie in NFL history with four receiving touchdowns and two punt return touchdowns, joining Tyreek Hill (2016), Dez Bryant (2010) and Eddie Kennison (1996). He surpassed Derrick Henry's 2,141 all-purpose yards in 2020 for third place in franchise history and moved past Marc Mariani (1,530 in 2010) to set the franchise record for the most single-season kickoff return yards. At the conclusion of the contest, his 1,535 kickoff return yards were the most in the NFL in a season since Arizona's LaRod Stephens-Howling had 1,548 in 2010.

➢ On Dec. 23, he was named to the Pro Bowl as a returner. He became the franchise's sixth rookie to be named to the Pro Bowl since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger and the first since returner Marc Mariani in 2010. The others to do so were running back Earl Campbell (1978), defensive end Jevon Kearse (1999), quarterback Vince Young (2006) and running back Chris Johnson (2008).

➢ Against New Orleans (12/28), tied for the team lead with four receptions and 55 receiving yards. He added a seven-yard rushing attempt, a 33-yard kickoff return and a seven-yard punt return. In the first quarter, he hauled in a 38-yard pass to set up a field goal. On his 33-yard kickoff return in the second quarter, he set the NFL rookie record for all-purpose yards in a season, moving past Tim Brown (2,317 with L.A. Raiders in 1988) for the record. He drew a 50-yard pass interference penalty on the Saints defense to set up a touchdown late in the second quarter. He also became the first NFL player in the Super Bowl era (1966 to present) with at least 45 receptions, 60 kickoff returns and 20 punt returns in a season.

➢ At Jacksonville (1/4), caught three passes for 27 yards and added a nine-yard punt return and a 20-yard kickoff return. In the second quarter, he caught a 21-yard pass from Brandon Allen. JC Latham completed his second NFL season in 2025. He was drafted by the Titans with the seventh overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NFL Draft.

In 2025, Latham moved to right tackle, where he started 13 games. He was in the lineup every game for the final 12 contests after missing four of the first five weeks due to injury.

With 30 starts in his first two NFL seasons, Latham joined Jack Conklin (32 from 2016-17), Chance Warmack (32 from 2013-14), Michael Roos (32 from 2005-06) and Peter Skoronski (31 from 2023-24) as the franchise's only offensive linemen in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) to accomplish the feat. He did so all before his 23rd birthday (Feb. 8, 2026). Among NFL offensive linemen under 23 at the end of the 2025 regular season, Latham had the most career starts.

As a rookie, Latham notched 17 starts at left tackle, joining Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013) and Michael Roos (2005) as the franchise's only rookie offensive linemen in the "Titans era" (1999–present) to start every game. He was the first to do so exclusively at left tackle. Pro Football Focus named him to its All-Rookie team.

Latham did not miss an offensive snap during his rookie season. He led all rookie offensive linemen and ranked third among all rookies in 2024 with 1,032 offensive snaps. Only Chicago quarterback Caleb Williams (1,052) and Denver quarterback Bo Nix (1,040) played more offensive snaps than Latham among the 2024 rookie class.

Prior to entering the NFL, Latham spent three seasons at the University of Alabama, where he appeared in 41 total games, including 27 consecutive starts at right tackle to conclude his collegiate career. He was credited with allowing only four sacks during his time with the Tide.

As a junior in 2023, Latham was a second-team All-American and a first-team All-SEC selection at right tackle. He recorded 41 knockdown blocks and allowed only two sacks.

A native of Oak Creek, Wis., Latham attended IMG Academy for the final two years of high school. He began his high school career as a defensive lineman before finishing as one of the nation's top left tackle prospects.

STARTS BEFORE 23RD BIRTHDAY

In his first two NFL seasons, JC Latham started 30 of the Titans' 34 games—all before his 23rd birthday on Feb. 8, 2026.

As a rookie in 2024, the first-round pick started every game at left tackle. With 17 starts before his 22nd birthday, he ranked second in franchise history for starts before turning 22. He finished behind only former defensive tackle Randy Starks, who registered 21 starts before celebrating his 22nd birthday in 2005. Among all NFL players in 2024, Latham was the only one under age 22 to log 17 starts.

Then, in 2025, Latham moved to right tackle and registered 13 starts. By increasing his total to 30 games played and 30 starts, he ranked fifth in franchise history in total games before a player's 23rd birthday and second in total starts before a player's 23rd birthday. Only Starks (31) had more starts for the organization before turning 23.

Peter Skoronski completed his third NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans with the 11th overall pick in the first round of the 2023 NFL Draft.

During his first three seasons, Skoronski started 48 games at left guard. After missing three of the first four games during his rookie season due to an appendectomy, he started the next 47 games through the end of the 2025 campaign. In 2024 and 2025, he did not miss an offensive snap.

Through 2025, Skoronski's 48 starts were the most for the team in its "Titans era" (1999 to present) by a player before his 25th birthday (July 31, 2026). His streak of 47 consecutive starts at the conclusion of 2025 made up the team's longest active streak.

As a rookie in 2023, Skoronski started 14 games at left guard and helped running back Derrick Henry finish second in the NFL with 1,167 rushing yards. He was one of nine NFL rookie offensive linemen in 2023 to register 14 or more starts, and he joined Nicholas Petit-Frere (2022), Jack Conklin (2016), Chance Warmack (2013), Michael Roos (2005) and Jacob Bell (2004) as the only rookie offensive linemen to record at least 14 starts for the franchise during its "Titans era" (1999–present).

During a three-year career at Northwestern University, Skoronski started all 33 games at left tackle without missing a game. He earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a freshman and first-team recognition in each of the next two seasons. He became the first offensive lineman in program history to earn two All-Big Ten first-team awards.

As a junior in 2022, he was named the Rimington-Pace Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year—the first ever by a Northwestern lineman—after starting all 12 games at left tackle. He was the first player in school history to become a unanimous first-team All-American and was named first-team All-Big Ten by coaches and media. He finished as a finalist for the 2022 Outland Trophy.

When the Titans drafted Skoronski, he became Northwestern's highest draft selection since guard Chris Hinton went to Denver with the fourth pick in 1983, and he was the 11th player in program history to be picked in the first round.

His grandfather, Bob Skoronski Sr., was a left tackle for the Green Bay Packers, playing nine total seasons with the franchise. He was a permanent offensive captain for the Packers under Vince Lombardi and played on five NFL championship teams. Click for complete bio Defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons completed his seventh NFL season in 2025. He was selected by the Titans in the first round (19th overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During his first seven seasons, Simmons earned four Pro Bowl berths (2021-22, 2024-25), was a five-time team captain (2021-25), earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors (2025), second-team All-Pro honors (2021), and was nominated three times for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award (2023-25). During that span, he appeared in 99 games with 97 starts, accumulating 383 tackles, 42.5 sacks, 27 passes defensed, eight forced fumbles and six fumble recoveries.

From 2019 through 2025, Simmons was second on the Titans defense in sacks behind only outside linebacker Harold Landry III (46). In franchise history, Simmons' 42.5 sacks were 12th overall and fifth in the organization's "Titans era" (1999 to present). Additionally, his total ranked sixth among all NFL interior defensive linemen.

With at least five sacks every season from 2021 to 2025, Simmons joined Ray Childress (nine consecutive seasons), Jurrell Casey (seven), William Fuller (six), and Sean Jones (six) as the only players for the franchise to record five consecutive seasons with at least five sacks since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

In 2025, Simmons appeared in 15 games with 15 starts. He earned Pro Bowl and AP All-Pro honors after ranking first in the NFL among interior defensive linemen in solo tackles (39), tackles for loss (17), sacks (11.0), sack yards (79.0), quarterback pressures (60), pressure rate (14.5 percent) and forced fumbles (tied - three). His sacks, sack yards, tackles for loss and forced fumbles all set career highs, despite missing two games due to injury.

From 2016 through 2025, only two NFL interior defensive linemen recorded at least 65 tackles, 11 sacks, 17 tackles for loss and three forced fumbles in a single season: Aaron Donald (2021) and Simmons (2025).

Simmons missed only one game in 2024. His 16 starts made up the second-highest total of his career through six seasons behind his 17 starts in 2021. Among his season totals, he set career highs with 76 tackles and two forced fumbles, and he added five sacks and a team-high 42 quarterback pressures. He was rewarded with his third Pro Bowl invitation.

Simmons' 76 tackles ranked second on the Titans in 2024. It was the best number for any defensive lineman for the organization in its "Titans era" (1999 to present), topping defensive end Kyle Vanden Bosch's previous mark of 75 tackles in 2006 (GSIS/press box statistics). Among NFL defensive linemen in 2024, Simmons finished second in tackles behind Carolina's A'Shawn Robinson (80).

In 2023, although he was limited to 12 games and finished the season on injured reserve, he managed to register 5.5 sacks, marking his third consecutive season to reach that number or higher. He added 44 tackles, 38 quarterback pressures, 11 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one pass defensed. For the first time in his career, he received the honor of the team's nomination for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year award.

In 2022, Simmons appeared in 15 games and anchored a unit that ranked first in the NFL in rushing defense (76.9 opponent rushing yards per game). En route to his second consecutive Pro Bowl appearance, he totaled 53 tackles, 7.5 sacks, 43 quarterback pressures, nine tackles for loss, one forced fumble and a career-high seven passes defensed, which tied for the fourth-best mark among all NFL defensive linemen. Simmons and Arizona's J.J. Watt were the NFL's only players in 2022 with at least seven sacks and seven passes defensed.

Before the start of the 2021 season, Simmons was named a team captain for the first time in his career, and he went on to become one of six players on the roster to start all 17 games. He was named to his first career Pro Bowl and added Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after setting career highs in several categories, including sacks (8.5), tackles (54), quarterback pressures (58), tackles for loss (12) and passes defensed (six). He led the squad in pressures and placed third in sacks. Among all defensive tackles in the NFL, his 8.5 sacks ranked sixth. In the divisional playoffs, he set a franchise postseason record with three sacks.

In 2020, Simmons appeared and started in 15 games. With three defensive fumble recoveries, he tied Chase Young for the most in the NFL in 2020 and was the first Titans defender with three fumble recoveries in a season since 2005, when linebacker Brad Kassell accomplished the feat. Simmons ranked second on the team with 19 quarterback pressures and added 49 tackles, three sacks, three tackles for loss, five passes defensed and one forced fumble. In the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999), he became the first player to post at least three fumble recoveries, three sacks and five passes defensed in the same season. He also had three tackles and a tackle for loss in one playoff contest.

Simmons began his rookie season on the non-football injury list due to a knee injury he suffered during training in February 2019. He missed the first six games of the season before joining the 53-man roster in Week 7.

His rookie totals included 40 tackles, two sacks, two tackles for loss, 14 quarterback pressures and one pass defensed in nine games (seven starts). He added four tackles, three quarterback pressures and a fumble recovery in three playoff contests.

During a three-year career as a defensive tackle at Mississippi State, Simmons appeared in 38 contests with 28 starts. He finished his career ranked sixth in school history with 32.5 tackles for loss. He also tied for sixth in MSU annals with five forced fumbles and tied for fourth with three blocked kicks. His totals also included 163 tackles, seven sacks, seven passes defensed and two defensive touchdowns.

He was a first-team All-SEC selection as a sophomore and junior and was one of two players in the nation to be named a Bednarik Award Semifinalist in both 2017 and 2018.

As a junior in 2018, Simmons was named second-team All-American after totaling 63 tackles, 17 tackles for loss and two sacks. His 17 tackles for loss led the team, ranked fourth in the SEC and were the third-most in single-season school history.

During his sophomore season (2017), he set a career high with five sacks and added 12 tackles for loss. With three total blocked kicks and punts, he became the first SEC player since 2004 to lead the nation in the category.

Simmons is a native of Macon, Miss.

He joined the same four players as the only players in 2025 with five tackles, four tackles for loss and a sack in a game. According to NFL NextGenStats, Simmons sacked Stroud 2.09 seconds after the ball was snapped, the fastest sack in the NFL since the beginning of the 2024 season. He became the first Titans defender since Brian Orakpo in 2016 with at least 4.5 sacks and eight tackles for loss in the team's first six games of a season. The last NFL defensive tackle to accomplish the feat was Cincinnati's Geno Atkins in 2018.

During the preceding two plays on the three-and-out drive, he contributed a tackle on first down and a tackle for loss (three-yard loss by Quinshon Judkins) on second down. In the first quarter, he combined with Jaylen Harrell to bring down Shedeur Sanders on third down for a split-sack. By increasing his career total to 39.5 career sacks, he passed Kyle Vanden Bosch for 12th place in franchise history and fifth place for the organization during its "Titans" era (1999-present). He matched a career high (2021) with 12 tackles for loss in 2025.

➢ At San Francisco (12/14), finished with seven tackles, a strip-sack and a one-yard touchdown reception. He also led the team with seven quarterback pressures. With his strip-sack on Brock Purdy in the fourth quarter, Simmons recorded his ninth sack of the season, a new career high. It was his fifth career strip-sack and his first since Week 1 at Denver. After his strip-sack, the fumble was recovered by Kaiir Elam and returned nine yards. Two plays later, Simmons reported eligible on offense and recorded his second career touchdown reception (Nov. 19, 2023 at Jacksonville) on a pass from Cam

Ward. He was the first defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown during the 2025 season and the NFL's first player since J.J. Watt in 2014 with a strip-sack and touchdown reception in the same game. It was only the sixth time since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982 that a player accomplished the feat. He was the ninth defensive lineman since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger to record multiple touchdown receptions in his career and the franchise's first defensive lineman to do so. Simmons increased his career sack total to 40.5, becoming the franchise's 12th player to reach 40 sacks and the fifth player to do so in the organization's "Titans era" (1999 to present). Also at San Francisco, he notched two tackles for loss to raise his season total to 14, a new career high.

➢ Against Kansas City (12/21), finished with three tackles, two tackles for loss, three quarterback pressures, two passes defensed and a safety. In the second quarter, he tackled running back Kareem Hunt in the end zone for a safety—his first career safety and the first safety the Titans scored since Harold Landry III at Houston on Nov. 24, 2024. Simmons increased his total on the season to 16 tackles for loss, which tied Jason Babin (16 in 2010) for the most by a Titans player in any season since 2008. He joined Rocky Boiman (2003), Willie Rodgers (1975) and Doug Cline (1961) as the only players in franchise history with a safety and a touchdown in the same season.

➢ On Dec. 23, he was named to the Pro Bowl as a starter. It was his fourth career Pro Bowl berth (2021, 2022, 2024, 2025). He became the 12th player in franchise history to be named to a Pro Bowl (or AFL All-Star from 1960-69) at least four times with the team, joining Bruce Matthews (14), Mike Munchak (nine), Elvin Bethea (eight times), Robert Brazile (seven), Warren Moon (six), Earl Campbell (five), Jurrell Casey (five), Ray Childress (five), Ken Houston (five), Blaine Bishop (four), Eddie George (four) and Derrick Henry (four).

➢ Against New Orleans (12/28), finished with seven tackles, one sack and one forced fumble. He also tied for the team lead with four quarterback pressures. In the first quarter, he recorded his third strip-sack of the season, jarring the ball from Tyler Shough. His third forced fumble in 2025 tied for the most by a defensive tackle in 2025 through Week 17 and established a new career high for Simmons. It gave him 7.5 sacks on third down in 2025. Simmons became the fifth player since 1982, when individual sacks became an official statistic, to register at least 10 sacks and record a touchdown catch in the same season—the last player to do so was J.J. Watt in 2014. Simmons joined Brian Burns (2025), T.J. Watt (2023) and Khalil Mack (2023) as the NFL's only players from 2023 to 2025 with at least 10 sacks, 65 tackles, three forced fumbles, 16 tackles for loss and three passes defensed in a season.

➢ At Jacksonville (1/4), tallied two tackles, one sack and two quarterback pressures. He produced his career-high and team-leading 11th sack of the season, dropping Trevor Lawrence on the game's first play from scrimmage. In doing so, he broke Jurrell Casey's mark (10.5 sacks in 2013) for the most sacks in a season by a Titans defensive tackle in the franchise's "Titans era" (1999 to present). He notched his 17th tackle for loss of the season, passing Jason Babin (16 in 2010) for the most by a Titans defender since 2008. He appeared in seven road games in 2025, and he had at least one sack in each of those games. It was the most road games with at least one sack in a season for the Titans/Oilers since individual sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

➢ On January 8, he was named AFC Defensive Player of the Month for December/January. His totals during the five-game stretch included 26 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 27 quarterback pressures, seven tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and three passes defensed. No interior defensive lineman produced more sacks, quarterback pressures, forced fumbles or passes defensed during that span. He also tallied two scores during the month with his second career offensive touchdown at San Francisco (Dec. 14) and his first career safety against Kansas City (Dec. 21). He was the third NFL defender in the past 12 seasons to record a safety and an offensive touchdown in the same season and the first Titans defensive player to achieve the feat since linebacker Rocky Boiman in 2003.

Long snapper Morgan Cox completed his 16th NFL season and his fifth campaign with the Titans in 2025. He was signed by the Titans as an unrestricted free agent on March 19, 2021.

In 2025, Cox was voted a team captain for the third consecutive season and handled all of the team's long snapping duties for the fifth consecutive season. With 85 consecutive games played in his first five seasons with the Titans, he finished the 2025 campaign with the longest active streak of games played for the team. It was the 13th time in his career he appeared in every game for his team.

Cox also appeared in his 250th career game (regular season) in the 2025 season finale, becoming the 64th all-time NFL player to do so. He ranked ninth among all active NFL players, and his total also gave him the fourth-most NFL games played by a former University of Tennessee Volunteer behind tight end Jason Witten (271 NFL games), quarterback Peyton Manning (266) and punter Dustin Colquitt (255).

Cox worked with new battery mates in 2025 in punter Johnny Hekker and kicker Joey Slye. Hekker averaged 46.8 gross yards per punt to tie for 11th place in franchise history and 40.3 net yards per punt, which tied for ninth place in team annals. Slye delivered on 28 of 35 field goals, including four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards). Also in 2025, Cox was a finalist for the NFL's Bart Starr Award for the third consecutive year.

In 2024, Cox's consistency helped kicker Nick Folk lead the NFL in field goal percentage for the second consecutive season. Folk connected on 21 of 22 field goals for an NFL-best rate of 95.5 percent. Meanwhile, punter Ryan Stonehouse ranked third in the NFL with an average of 50.6 yards per punt attempt.

In 2023, Cox's efforts helped Folk lead the NFL in field goal accuracy (96.7 percent) and helped Stonehouse lead the NFL for a second consecutive season in gross punting average (53.1).

In 2022, Cox was named to his fifth career Pro Bowl. He garnered more Pro Bowl appearances than any other player at his position since the league began naming long snappers to the Pro Bowl in 2004.

His steady play in 2022 helped Stonehouse, a rookie, lead the league and set a new NFL record with a 53.1-yard gross punting average. Stonehouse also finished fourth in the NFL and set a rookie record with a 44.0-yard net average. Meanwhile, kicker Randy Bullock made 17 of 20 field goals (85.0 percent) and made all 28 extra point attempts.

In 2021, Cox handled all of the team's long snapping duties in 17 regular season games and one postseason game. He helped Bullock finish ninth in franchise history with 120 points in a single season, including three game-winning field goals (Sept. 19 at Seattle, Oct. 31 at Indianapolis and Dec. 23 against San Francisco). He also snapped for punter Brett Kern, who had the league's third-best ratio of punts inside the 20 to touchbacks (18:1).

In his first 11 seasons, Cox appeared in 165 regular season games for the Baltimore Ravens, serving as the team's primary long snapper after entering the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2010. He was selected to four Pro Bowls and was a part of five playoff teams in Baltimore, totaling 10 postseason games played.

In 2020, he earned his fourth career Pro Bowl selection. He helped kicker Justin Tucker record his fifth consecutive season with at least 130 points, tying the NFL record of consecutive seasons with 130-plus points. Tucker connected on 26 of 29 field goals (89.7 percent) and was 52 of 53 on extra points (98.1 percent). Cox also snapped on all 51 of Sam Koch's 51 punts, as Koch was the NFL's only punter to place at least 20 punts (22) inside the 20-yard line and have no more than one touchback.

A native of Collierville, Tenn., Cox played 38 games in three seasons (2007-09) as the primary long snapper at the University of Tennessee.

During the 2025 season, Slye made 28 field goals on 35 attempts and added 26 extra points on 27 attempts for a total of 110 points. It was the fourth time in his career that he went over the 100-point mark. His totals included a team-record nine field goals of at least 50 yards, breaking Stephen Gostkowski's record of seven such field goals in 2020. In only one season, Slye booted four of the eight longest field goals in franchise history (58, 57, 57 and 56 yards).

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, Slye totaled six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2019-20), Houston Texans (2022), San Francisco 49ers (2022), Washington Commanders (2022-23) and New England Patriots (2024). The Virginia Tech product has also spent time with the N.Y. Giants and Jacksonville Jaguars.

In 2024, Slye played in all 17 games for the Patriots and connected on 26 of 33 field goal attempts and 25 of 26 extra point attempts for a total of 103 points. At San Francisco on Sept. 29, 2024, he set a Patriots record and established his career long with a 63-yard field goal at the end of the second quarter. It tied for the fourth-longest field goal in NFL history.

In his final season in Washington (2023), Slye saw action in all 17 games and handled all kickoffs, field goals and extra points for the Commanders. He connected on 19 of 24 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for 89 points. Also had 64 touchbacks on 69 kickoffs.

2025 Game Notes:

➢ At Denver (9/7), converted on all four field goal attempts in his Titans debut, including makes of 50, 39, 42 and 35 yards. It was Slye's sixth career game with four or more made field goals. His first attempt as a member of the Titans was a 50-yarder that he made in the first quarter. Joined Nick Folk (Sept. 10, 2023 at New Orleans) and Ryan Succop (Sept. 7, 2014 at Kansas City) as the team's only kickers with four or more field goals in a Week 1 game in the franchise's "Titans era" (since 1999).

➢ Against the L.A. Rams (9/14), made all four field goal attempts, connecting from 55, 37, 57 and 35 yards. He added an extra point. Kicked two of the 10 longest field goals in franchise history in the game. Joined Brandon Aubrey (2024), John Kasay (1996) and Nick Lowery (1985) as the only NFL players since the 1970 merger to make four field goals in each of the first two weeks of a season. Became the first player in franchise history to record two field goals of 55-plus yards in the same game. At the time, his 55-yard field goal in the second quarter tied (four previous) for the fifth-longest field goal in franchise history. Drilled a 37-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Recorded a 57-yard field goal in the third quarter, the second-longest in franchise history. The only field goal from a longer distance was Rob Bironas' 60-yard game-winner against Indianapolis on Dec. 3, 2006. Increased his career total to 10 field goals of 55 yards or longer. For the first time in his career, he recorded back-to-back performances with four field goals, and for the first time in his career, he reached three consecutive games with at least three field goals made. He connected on a trio of field goals in the 2024 season finale with the Patriots before making four field goals in Week 1 of 2025 at Denver. In his first two games with the Titans, he connected on all eight field goal attempts with makes in six of the team's eight quarters played in 2025. His eight field goals established a new franchise high for any Titans/Oilers kicker in the first two games of a season, breaking the mark of seven field goals by Nick Folk in 2023.

➢ Against Indianapolis (9/21), made two of his four attempts, connecting from 57 and 42 yards and missing from 64 and 62 yards, the latter of which was blocked. In the first quarter, he made a 57-yard field goal to tie the second-longest field goal in franchise history, which he made in the previous game against the L.A. Rams (Sept. 14). Slye joined Rob Bironas (2009) as the team's only kickers in the "Titans era" (since 1999) to register three consecutive games with at least one field goal of 50-plus yards, and also became the only franchise kicker other than Bironas (four) with three career field goals of 55-plus yards. He was credited with a career-high two special teams tackles.

It was his first career game-winning field goal. He also made a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter and a 51-yarder in the second quarter. His game-winner was his 13th field goal of the season. He joined Ryan Succop (13 in 2018) and Nick Folk (13 in 2023) as the only players in franchise history with 13 or more field goals in the first five games of a season.

➢ Against New England (10/19), made a 49-yard field goal in the first quarter, and in the second quarter, he connected on a 50-yarder to give the Titans a 13-10 lead. With his sixth field goal of 50-plus yards in 2025, he joined Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020), Rob Bironas (six in 2011) and Nick Folk (six in 2024) as the only kickers in franchise history with at least six field goals of 50-plus yards in a season.

He joined Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) as the only kickers in franchise history to do so in a single season. He also made a 47-yarder in the third quarter.

➢ Against Seattle (11/23), made a 22-yard field goal in the first quarter and connected on all three extra point attempts.

In the fourth quarter, he made a 58-yard field goal, which tied for the third-longest field goal of his career and was the second-longest field goal in Titans/Oilers history behind Rob Bironas' 60-yarder in 2006. He also made field goals from 50 and 38 yards in the first quarter and 28 yards in the third stanza. With his eighth and ninth field goals of the season of 50-plus yards, he surpassed Stephen Gostkowski (seven in 2020) for the most field goals of 50-plus yards in a season in franchise history. His performance gave him four of the eight longest field goals in Titans/Oilers history. He went over the 100-point mark on the season for the fourth time in his career.

TITANS-BRONCOS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 1: Titans 12, Broncos 20

Sunday Sept. 7, 2025 • 2:05 p.m. MDT • Empower Field at Mile High

In Week 1 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Denver and fell by a score of 20-12 to start the season 0-1.

The Titans opened the game with a seven-play, 33-yard drive that culminated in a 50-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to take an early 3-0 lead. QB Cam Ward put the Titans in field goal range after avoiding a sack and finding RB Tony Pollard for a 29-yard gain on third-and-10.

Denver responded with a 39-yard field goal by K Wil Lutz to cap off a 10-play, 44-yard drive and evened the score at 3-3 with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

At the end of the first quarter, CB Roger McCreary intercepted a QB Bo Nix pass to give the Titans the ball on their own 46-yard line. It was the first of four turnovers the Titans would force throughout the day.

Tennessee was unable to capitalize as Pollard fumbled on the ensuing drive and Denver took over. But the defense stood tall and forced a three-and-out.

In the second quarter, the Titans reclaimed the lead after another turnover caused by the defense produced a field goal.

DT Jeffery Simmons sacked Nix, forcing a fumble, and DL Sebastian Joseph-Day jumped on the loose ball. The Titans took over at the Denver 38 and took it all the way to four-yard line. But Ward was sacked on third down and the Titans had to settle for a 33-yard field goal from Slye to make it 6-3 with 2:16 before halftime.

After forcing a punt on the next Denver possession, Tennessee took over at their own seven-yard line with 47 seconds left. A pair of incompletions and Ward getting sacked at the one forced the Titans to punt with 39 seconds left.

The Broncos cashed in on the time and field position with a 22-yard touchdown pass from Nix to WR Courtland Sutton to make it 10-6 with 16 seconds left in the half.

WR Chimere Dike responded with a 71-yard kickoff return to put Slye in position for a 42-yard field goal to make it 10-9 heading into the half.

The Titans came out of the half forcing another Denver turnover, this one an interception by S Xavier Woods and the Titans cashed in on the turnover with a 35-yard field goal by Slye.

The Broncos reclaimed the lead on their next possession with a 13-play, 48-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard field goal by Lutz to make it 13-12 with 4:17 left in third quarter.

The Titans forced another turnover early in the fourth quarter when the Broncos muffed a punt and LB Dorian Mausi jumped on the football at the Denver 20. But the Titans allowed back-to-back sacks and were forced to punt.

Denver answered with a 19-yard touchdown run by RB J.K. Dobbins to extend their lead to 20-12 with 7:37 left in the game.

The Titans stuffed the Broncos on fourth-and-one at the Denver 46-yard line but was unable to move the ball and was forced to punt.

A late penalty by Simmons allowed the Broncos to run the clock down to 59 seconds. It was the 13th penalty the Titans were called for throughout the game.

When the Titans got the ball back, Ward was sacked and fumbled and the game was over dropping the Titans to 0-1 to start the season.

TITANS-RAMS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 2: Titans 19, Rams 33
Sunday, Sept. 14, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 2 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the Los Angeles Rams and fell by a score of 33-19.

The Rams took an early 7-0 lead on their first possession after the Titans were forced to punt to open the game. WR Puka Nacua took a handoff on fourth-and-one and raced 45 yards for a touchdown with 8:39 left in the first quarter.

The Titans cut the lead to 7-3 with a 55-yard field goal from K Joey Slye.

Los Angeles answered immediately to extend their lead to 10-3 with a 21-yard field goal by K Joshua Karty. The Rams were able to drive down to the Tennessee three-yard line, but the defense forced three incomplete passes by QB Matthew Stafford to force the field goal.

Later in the second quarter, WR Chimere Dike appeared to take a punt 57-yard to the end zone, but the play was called back because of an illegal blindside block. The Titans' offense took over at their own 44-yard line instead.

RB Tony Pollard gained 19 yards on three carries before QB Cam Ward converted on a third-and-one. Ward then found WR Elic Ayomanor who made a one-handed catch off his shoulder pads to bring the Titans to the Rams' nine-yard line. Facing third-and-nine, Ward scrambled to his right and then threw across the field to find Ayomanor in the end zone for the rookies first career touchdown to even the score at 10-10 with 38 seconds left in the half.

On the next possession for the Rams, LB Cody Barton intercepted Stafford's first pass attempt giving the ball back to Tennessee at the Los Angeles' 46-yard line. The Titans got into field goal range with two Pollard runs and a pass interference penalty, and Slye made the 37-yard attempt to give the Titans a 13-10 lead heading into the half.

The Rams opened the second half with a 11-play, 62-yard drive that culminated in a 21-yard field goal by Karty to tie the game at 13-13. CB L'Jarius Sneed had a nice pass defensed on third-and-three in the end zone to force the field goal.

The Titans responded with a 57-yard field goal by Slye, the second longest field goal in franchise history to give the Titans a 16-13 lead with 3:32 left in the third quarter.

The Rams reclaimed the lead four plays later. Stafford found Nacua for 46 yards on two completions. RB Blake Corum added 15 yards on a run before TE Davis Allen caught an eight-yard pass from Stafford and dove to the pylon for the touchdown to make it 20-16 with 1:17 left in the third quarter.

Ward was then stripped-sacked early in the fourth quarter at the Tennessee 21-yard line. The Rams scored three plays later when Stafford found WR Davante Adams for the 16-yard score to make it 27-16 with 9:40 left in the contest.

On the Rams next possession, they extended the lead to 33-16 with a five-play, 66-yard drive that was capped off with a one-yard touchdown run by Corum with 6:48 left.

Slye's fourth field goal of the game, this one from 35 yards, made it 33-19 and capped a 12-play 48-yard drive.

The Titans attempted an on-side kick but the Rams recovered and were able to run out the rest of the clock to drop the Titans to 0-2 to start the season.

TITANS-COLTS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 3: Titans 20, Colts 41
Sunday, Sept. 21, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • Nissan Stadium

In Week 3 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Indianapolis Colts and fell by a score of 41-20.

The Colts took an early 7-0 lead after CB Kenny Moore II intercepted a QB Cam Ward throw and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown on the third play from scrimmage.

The Titans responded with a 57-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3.

Indianapolis extended its lead with a 24-yard field goal by K Spencer Shrader which capped a nine-play, 59-yard drive that saw the Colts drive down to the Tennessee six-yard line before settling for the field goal to make it 10-3.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next offensive possession and the Colts took over at their own 23-yard line. QB Daniel Jones strung together a nine-play, 77-yard drive that included three completions for 49 yards and a 17-yard scramble on third-and-seven. RB Jonathan Taylor capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run to make it 17-3 with 1:11 in the first quarter.

Tennessee responded with an 11-play, 54-yard drive that culminated in a 42 yard field goal by Slye to make it 17-6 with 10:50 left in the second quarter.

The Titans then forced the Colts to punt for the first time this season and took over at their own nine-yard line. Ward drove Tennessee to midfield before the drive stalled and Slye came out to attempt a 64-yard field goal which was no good.

Indianapolis then tried a 51-yard field goal on the ensuing drive that was also no good to keep the score at 17-6 with 3:15 left in the half.

The Titans took over at their own 41-yard line. After RB Tony Pollard picked up an initial first down and nine more yards, the Titans faced fourth-and-one at the Indianapolis 39-yard line. After a delay of game penalty, Slye attempted the 62-yard field goal which was blocked.

The Colts took advantage of the field position and ended the half with a 36-yard field goal from Shrader to head into the break up 20-6.

Indianapolis extended its lead with a six-play, 67-yard drive in which Jones found WR Michael Pittman for a 20-yard touchdown to make it 27-6 with 11:08 left in the third.

The Titans answered with a long scoring drive of their own. The 13-play, 73-yard drive culminated in a one-yard touchdown run by Pollard after RB Julius Chestnut broke loose for a 27-yard gain to bring the Titans to the Colts four-yard line.

But a 46-yard touchdown run by Taylor extended the Colts lead to 34-13 on the next possession.

The Titans strung together a 16-play, 77-yard drive that ended in a Ward eight-yard touchdown pass to WR Elic Ayomanor to make it 34-20 with 8:40 left in the game.

However, the Colts once again responded, this time with a five-play, 58-yard drive that ended in another Taylor touchdown to make it 41-20 and drop the Titans to 0-3.

TITANS-TEXANS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 4: Titans 0, Texans 26
Sunday Sept. 28, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CDT • NRG Stadium

In Week 4 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to division rival Houston Texans and fell by a score of 26-0. It was the first time the team has been shut out since 2019.

The Titans started the game with the ball. QB Cam Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor for a 33-yard gain to bring the Titans to the Texans 28-yard line. However after two incomplete passes and a five-yard run by RB Tony Pollard the Titans were forced to settle for a 41-yard field goal attempt by K Joey Slye which was wide right and no good.

The Texans took over and constructed an 11-play, 40-yard drive that culminated in a field goal by K Ka'imi Fairbairn to take an early 3-0 lead with 4:49 left in the first.

Another Fairbairn field goal on the Texans next drive made it 6-0 with 13:28 left in the second quarter.

Later in the second quarter, DT Jeffery Simmons tackled RB Woody Marks for a one-yard loss and the OLB Arden Key took down QB C.J. Stroud for a six-yard sack to force a third-and-17 which the Texans did not convert.

The Titans took over at their own 23-yard line with 1:48 left in the half. Ward drove the Titans down to the Houston 29-yard line on four completions for 44 yards to four different pass catchers. But the drive halted and Slye was off-target on the 43-yard attempt to keep the score 6-0 heading into the half.

The Texans opened the second half with a missed field goal of their own.

Tennessee was forced to punt on their next possession and Houston took over at their own 18-yard line. Despite facing second-and-33 due to penalties, Stroud found WR Nico Collins for a 37-yard gain to extend the drive. The Texans stretched the lead on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to Marks to make it 12-0 after the two-point conversion failed.

Ward was intercepted on the next Titans drive and the Texans cashed that in for another touchdown just six plays later on a 24-yard pass from Stroud to WR Jayden Higgins to extend their lead 19-0 with 9:26 left in the game.

Facing fourth-and-one on their own 31-yard line, the Titans were unable to convert and the Texans took over. Houston took advantage of the field position. Marks extended the lead to 26-0 with an 18-yard touchdown run to cap off the victory for the Texans and drop the Titans to 0-4.

TITANS-CARDINALS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 5: Titans 22, Cardinals 21
Sunday Oct. 5, 2025 • 3:05 p.m. MST • State Farm Stadium

In Week 5 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Arizona and won 22-21 by outscoring the Cardinals 16-0 in the fourth quarter. It was the franchise's largest fourth-quarter comeback victory since a 21-point comeback to defeat the Giants in 2006.

The Cardinals jumped to an early 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by RB Michael Carter which capped off an eight-play, 67-yard opening drive.

The Titans responded with a 44-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3 with 5:00 left in the first quarter.

But the Cardinals answered right back. QB Kyler Murray connected with WR Marvin Harrison Jr. for two completions for 36 yards. Murray capped the drive with a 12-yard scamper into the end zone to make it 14-3 at the end of the first quarter.

Later in the second quarter, the Cardinals capitalized on a RB Tony Pollard fumble in Titans territory with a one-yard touchdown run by RB Zonovan Knight to extend the lead to 21-3.

WR Chimere Dike responded with a 65-yard kickoff return to give the Titans a spark. But they were forced to settle for another field goal by Slye to make it 21-6 with 8:29 left in first half.

Neither team scored in the third quarter. Tennessee came up with a fumble recovery by OLB Dre'Mont Jones after a snap gone wrong for the Cardinals but were unable to capitalize and went three-and-out on the ensuing possession.

The Cardinals began the fourth quarter deep in their own territory. RB Emari Demercado broke through for what would have been a 72-yard touchdown run. However CB L'Jarius Sneed chased him until the end zone, providing pressure before Demercado let go of the ball before crossing the goal line. Instead of a touchdown, it was a touchback.

The Titans capitalized on the mishap with a six-play, 80-yard drive that featured a 47-yard completion from QB Cam Ward to WR Calvin Ridley. Pollard capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run. A missed extra point by Slye made it 21-12 with 10:26 left in the game.

The Titans defense forced a three-and-out on the Cardinals next possession and took over at their own 19-yard line. Ward drove Tennessee down to the Cardinals 20-yard line before chaos ensued. A Ward pass was tipped by LB Mack Wilson Sr. before being intercepted by S Dadrion Taylor-Demerson, but he lost control of the ball, and as players scrambled to pick up the fumble, the ball was kicked by a Cardinals defender into the end zone, where WR Tyler Lockett fell on it for Tennessee. Instead of an interception, the Titans came away with a touchdown to make it 21-19.

The Titans defense stood tall and forced a punt to give the offense the ball back at their own 18-yard line with 1:53 left on the clock.

After a quick couple of completions, Ward found TE Chig Okonkwo for 16 yards to cross midfield. Then a 38-yard completion to Ridley in the final minute put the team in field goal range, before an 11-yard run by running back Tony Pollard put the team on the doorstep of the win.

Slye connected on the 29-yard kick as time expired to give the Titans their first win of the season.

TITANS-RAIDERS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 6: Titans 10, Raiders 20
Sunday Oct. 12, 2025 • 3:05 p.m. PDT • Allegiant Stadium

In Week 6 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Allegiant Stadium for the first time and lost 20-10 to the Las Vegas Raiders.

The Raiders took an early 3-0 lead on a 50-yard field goal by K Daniel Carlson to cap off a 13-play, 48-yard drive.

Later in the second quarter, the Raiders were facing third-and-four at their own 41-yard line when OLB Jihad Ward hit QB Geno Smith. The ball came loose and LB Cody Barton recovered the fumble and took it back for a touchdown. However, a replay review ruled it an incomplete pass instead of a fumble to keep the score 3-0 with 11:04 left in the second quarter.

A couple of drives later, the Titans were backed up deep in their own territory when LB Devin Whtie sacked QB Cam Ward and forced a fumble in the process. DE Tyree Wilson recovered the fumble at the Titans' two-yard line and cashed it in for a short touchdown pass from Smith to TE Michael Mayer to make it 10-0.

The Titans appeared to be headed for points at the end of the first half, as Ward drove the Titans from their own 16-yard line to the Raiders 30-yard line with a 20-yard pass to WR Van Jefferson and 25 rushing yards by RB Tyjae Spears. But on second-and-10, Ward was hit as he threw the ball, and it was intercepted to keep it 10-0 heading into the half.

The Raiders stretched their lead on the opening drive of the third quarter with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Ashton Jeanty to cap a 13-play, 70-yard drive and make it 17-0.

The Titans got on the scoreboard on the following drive with a 46-yard field goal by K Matthew Wright to make it 17-3 with 1:06 left in the third quarter. Ward had three completions for 39 yards but a sack and penalty halted the drive and forced the Titans to settle for the field goal.

Despite an interception by Barton to start the fourth quarter, the Titans were unable to capitalize as the offense went three-and-out and punted right back to the Raiders who extended their lead to 20-3 on another Carlson field goal with 7:14 left in the game.

A one-yard touchdown pass from Ward to TE David Martin-Robinson capped a 12-play, 65-yard drive to make it 20-10 with 3:03 left in the game.

After an onside kick, the Titans defense forced a three-and-out on the Raiders next drive to give the offense a chance to make it interesting. However, after crossing midfield, Ward was pressured and the ball slipped out of his hands and was recovered by the Raiders who kneeled out the game.

In week 7 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the New England Patriots and fell by a score of 31-13 in Mike McCoy's first game as interim head coach.

The Titans took an early 3-0 lead on a 49-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to open the game.

The Patriots tied it with a 36-yard field goal by K Andy Borregales on the next drive.

Tennessee responded with a three-play, 59-yard touchdown drive. WR Chimere Dike returned the kickoff 29 yards to the Tennessee 41-yard line. Dike then caught two passes from QB Cam Ward, an 18-yarder followed by a 38-yard touchdown reception to make it 10-3 with 5:04 left in the first quarter.

Later in the second quarter, the Patriots tied the game with an 11-play, 93-yard touchdown drive. QB Drake Maye completed five passes to five different pass catchers for 51 yards, including the three-yard touchdown pass to TE Austin Hooper to even the score 10-10.

The Titans responded again, putting together an eight-play, 32-yard drive that was capped off with a 50-yard field goal from Slye. WR Van Jefferson had a pair of catches for 27 yards on the march to make it 13-10 with 1:48 left in the first half.

New England responded with a three-play, 60-yard touchdown drive. Slye's kickoff was out of bounds, giving the Patriots the ball at their own 40-yard line. Maye then found WR Kayshon Boutte for a 39-yard touchdown to give the Patriots their first lead of the day, which they never relinquished.

The Patriots began the second half with the ball and strung together a 12-play, 88-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a four-yard touchdown run by RB Rhamondre Stevenson to make it 24-13 with 7:31 left in the third quarter.

On the next possession, Ward lost control of the ball deep in the Titans territory and LB K'Lavon Chaisson scooped up the fumble and returned it four yards for a touchdown to make it 31-13 with 7:20 left in the third quarter.

Neither team scored for the rest of the game as the Titans fell to 1-6 on the season.

TITANS-COLTS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 8: Titans 14, Colts 38

Sunday Oct. 26, 2025 • 4:25 p.m. EDT • Lucas Oil Stadium

In Week 8 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Lucas Oil Stadium to face division rival Indianapolis Colts and fell by a score of 38-14.

The Colts jumped out to an early 3-0 lead with a 43-yard field goal by K Michael Badgley on the opening drive of the game.

After the Titans were forced to punt on their first offensive possession, the Colts extended their lead to 10-0 on a RB Jonathan Taylor 18-yard touchdown run that capped an eight-play, 73-yard drive with 15 seconds left in the first quarter.

Tennessee responded with a six-play, 69-yard drive that resulted in a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Cam Ward to TE Gunnar Helm to make it 10-7 with 11:14 left in the second quarter. The touchdown was set up by RB Tyjae Spears who broke through for a 41-yard run which put the ball at the Indianapolis one-yard line.

However, the Colts immediately responded with another touchdown to extended the lead to 17-7. QB Daniel Jones found WR Michael Pittman Jr. on a 21-yard touchdown pass.

With 26 seconds left in the second quarter, the Titans started to drive from their own 20-yard line. Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor for 26 yards and WR Chimere Dike for 14 yards to bring the Titans to the Colts 40-yard line. But K Joey Slye missed the 58-yard field goal attempt to keep the score 17-7 heading into the half.

The Titans opened the second half with the ball, but the drive stalled and Tennessee opted to punt on fourth-and-three at the Colts 42-yard line. The punt resulted in a touchback and the Colts took over at their own 20-yard line.

Taylor scored on the next play with an 80-yard touchdown run, making it 24-7 with 11:10 left in the third quarter.

After a three-and-out by the Titans on the next possession, the Colts extended the lead even further with a 10-yard touchdown pass from Jones to WR Josh Downs which capped an eight-play, 74-yard drive to make it 31-7 with 5:12 left in the third.

A 19-yard pass from Jones to Taylor made it 38-7 at the start of the fourth quarter.

The Titans got on the board again late with a three-yard touchdown run by Spears to make the final score 38-14.

TITANS-CHARGERS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 9: Titans 20, Chargers 27
Sunday Nov. 2, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 7 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the Los Angeles Chargers and fell by a score of 27-20 to drop to 1-8 on the season.

The Titans jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on a pick-six from LB Cody Barton, who stepped in front of a QB Justin Herbert pass, intercepted it and raced 24 yards for a touchdown.

The Chargers responded with a seven-play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a two-yard touchdown pass from Herbert to FB Scott Matlock to tie the game at 7-7.

The Titans were forced to punt after their drive stalled at the Chargers' 49-yard line. However, the Titans defense forced a three-and-out after OLB Dre'Mont Jones sacked Herbert for a six-yard loss on the play. It was one of six sacks the Titans defense recorded on the day. P JK Scott punted 60 yards to the Tennessee 33-yard where WR Chimere Dike fielded it and returned it 67 yards for a touchdown to give the Titans a 14-7 lead. It was the first punt return for a touchdown for the Titans since 2012.

The Chargers opened the second quarter with a 27-yard field goal by K Cameron Dicker to make it 14-10 with 14:06 left in the first half.

After the Titans were forced to punt again, the Chargers took over at their own 30-yard line. Herbert constructed a six-play, 70-yard drive and capped it off with a 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Quentin Johnston to give the Chargers their first lead of the day at 17-14.

The Titans responded with a 49-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to tie the game at 17-17 with 5:02 left in the half. However, the Chargers took a 20-17 lead into halftime after a 52-yard field goal by Dicker with 20 seconds left in the second quarter.

After the Titans defense forced a three-and-out to start the second half, the Titans began to drive at their own 28-yard line. QB Cam Ward drove the team down to the one-yard line, but RB Tony Pollard was stopped short of the goal line on back-to-back plays to keep the score 20-17 and give the Chargers the ball on their own one-yard line.

On the ensuing possession, the Chargers drove the ball 99 yards in 9:03, using 15 plays, and capped the drive with a one-yard touchdown run by Herbert to extend their lead 27-17.

The Titans brought the game within one score on a 37-yard field goal by Slye with 4:13 left, but the Titans never got the ball back as the Chargers ran out the clock with three third-down conversions in the closing minutes.

TITANS-TEXANS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 11: Titans 13, Texans 16
Sunday Nov. 16, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 11 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Houston Texans and fell by a score of 16-13 on the last play of the game.

The game got off to an interesting start. The Texans won the toss and elected to receive. After driving down to the Tennessee 13-yard line, Houston elected to attempt a field goal facing fourth-and-two. K Matthew Wright's 31-yard attempt hit the right upright and was no good. But a penalty on DT Jeffery Simmons for unnecessary roughness gave the Texans first-and-goal from the six-yard line. The defense responded with a goal-line stand, and on fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line LB Cody Barton sacked QB Davis Mills and the Titans took over.

The Titans then strung together a 13-play, 50-yard drive that culminated in a 56-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 3-0. QB Cam Ward found first down completions to WR Calvin Ridley, WR Chimere Dike, WR Van Jefferson, RB Tyjae Spears, and TE Chig Okonkwo throughout the drive.

It was a defensive battle for the rest of the half, and it was 3-0 at the break.

The Titans extended their lead on the opening drive of the second half with a 47-yard field goal by Slye to make it 6-0 with 10:45 left in the third quarter.

The Texans responded with a seven-play, 65-yard scoring drive that was capped with a three-yard touchdown pass from Mills to WR Nico Collins to make it 7-3.

The Titans went three-and-out on their next offensive possession and the Texans took over at their own 14-yard line. Wright capped a 10-play, 63-yard drive with a 41-yard field goal to extend the Texans lead to 10-6 heading into the fourth quarter.

The Texans cashed in on a Ward sack fumble forced by DE Will Anderson Jr. with a 43-yard field goal by Wright to extend their lead to 13-6 with 11:59 left in the game.

The Titans made it exciting towards the end. After the Titans defensed forced their second consecutive three-and-out, the offense took over at their own five-yard line. A 39-yard pass from Ward to Okonkwo gave the Titans a first-and-goal at the Houston seven-yard line in the closing minutes. Then, Ward connected with WR Van Jefferson for a four-yard touchdown to tie the game at 13-13 with 1:35 remaining.

The Titans were on the verge of getting the ball back, but the Texans converted a third-and-16 with a 17-yard completion from Mills to Collins to cross midfield. The Texans were able to burn the rest of the clock while setting up a 35-yard field goal by Wright on the final play of the game to drop the Titans to 1-9 on the season.

TITANS-SEAHAWKS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 12: Titans 24, Seahawks 30
Sunday Nov. 23, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 12 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the Seattle Seahawks and fell by a score of 30-24.

The Titans opened the game with a 15-play, 63-yard drive that took 9:09 off the clock and resulted in a 22-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to take an early 3-0 lead. QB Cam Ward connected with TE Gunnar Helm for a 10-yard gain on fourth-and-two to keep the drive alive but a sack on third down at the Seattle three-yard line forced the field goal.

The Seahawks answered with a field goal of their own, a 47-yarder from K Jason Myers to tie the game at 3-3 with 2:14 left in the first.

Early in the second quarter the Seahawks extended their lead when QB Sam Darnold found WR Jaxon Smith-Njigba for a 63-yard touchdown to make it 10-3.

A quick three-and-out by the Titans offense on the next possession gave the ball back to Seattle. The Seahawks drove down to the Titans two-yard line, but the defense was able to hold them off to a 30-yard field goal to make it 13-3 with 4:44 left in the first half.

After driving to the Seattle 40-yard line, the Titans were stuffed for no gain on fourth-and-one. Seattle took over and stretched their lead to 16-3 with another field goal by Myers this one from 36 yards as time expired in the first half.

The Seahawks opened the second half with a quick three-play, 76-yard scoring drive. Darnold found Smith-Njigba for 56 yards before connecting again on a 13-yard touchdown pass to make it 23-3 with 13:19 left in the third quarter.

The Titans defense forced a three-and-out on the next Seahawks possession and Seattle was forced to punt for the first time of the day. WR Chimere Dike fielded the 60-yard punt at the Tennessee 10-yard line and returned it 90 yards for the touchdown to bring life back to the Titans and Nissan Stadium. The 90-yard punt return tied the franchise record for the longest punt return set by Pacman Jones in 2006.

However, the Seahawks answered with a six-play, 74-yard scoring drive on their next possession, stretching the lead to 30-10 with a five-yard run by RB Zach Charbonnet.

The Titans didn't quit. Ward drove the team 73 yards on nine plays, completing passes of 26 yards to TE Chig Okonkwo, 12 yards to WR James Proche II and 15 yards to Helm before capping the drive himself with a six-yard run for the score. It was his first rushing touchdown of the season and made it 30-17 heading into the fourth quarter.

Then, the defense got a big play from OLB Arden Key, who sacked Darnold on a fourth-and-three play from the Tennessee 41-yard line with 13:17 left, and the Titans had life.

The Titans drove deep into Seattle territory but a penalty and sack stalled the drive giving the ball back to the Seahawks.

The Titans defense came up big again with a three-and-out giving the ball back to the offense with 5:08 left in the game. The Titans strung together a 15-play, 62-yard drive capped off with a one-yard touchdown pass from Ward to Dike to make it 30-24 with 43 seconds left.

But the hope for a comeback win ended on the failed onside kick and the Titans fell to 1-10 on the season.

TITANS-JAGUARS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 13: Titans 3, Jaguars 25
Sunday Nov. 30, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 13 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 25-3 to drop to 1-11 on the year.

The Titans got off to a good start. S Kevin Winston Jr. sacked QB Trevor Lawrence on the opening drive of the game to force the Jaguars to punt.

QB Cam Ward then drove the Titans down to the Jacksonville 10-yard line but a stalled drive led to a 28-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to give the Titans a 3-0 lead with 5:06 left in the first quarter. RB Tony Pollard contributed 36 yards on three carries throughout the drive.

The Jaguars answered with a seven-play, 84-yard drive that ended in a three-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to WR Jakobi Meyers to give Jacksonville a 7-3 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, WR Chimere Dike fumbled the return and RB LeQuint Allen Jr. recovered the ball at the Jacksonville 35-yard line. Jacksonville cashed in on the turnover with a 21-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to TE Brenton Strange. An encroachment penalty on the extra point attempt allowed the Jaguars to attempt a two-point conversion which made it 15-3 one play into the second quarter.

The Titans were shut out for the rest of the half, including on a fourth-and-two attempt from the Jaguars 21-yard line to turn the ball over with 20 seconds left in the half. After coming up with a stop as time expired, OLB Arden Key was flagged for roughing the passer and K Cam Little cashed in for a 45-yard field goal on an untimed down to make it 18-3 heading into the break.

Jacksonville forced another three-and-out by the Tennessee offense to open the half and took over at their own 29-yard line. The Titans defense responded by a forcing a three-and-out of their own, but a roughing the punter penalty on S Mike Brown on fourth-and-20 gave Jacksonville a first down, and the Jaguars ended a 15-play drive with another score, this one a two-yard touchdown run by RB Bhayshul Tuten to make it 25-3 at the 6:45 mark of the third quarter.

Neither team scored again as the Titans offense failed to convert two fourth down attempts and lost a fumble in the final quarter.

TITANS-BROWNS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 14: Titans 31, Browns 29
Sunday Dec. 7, 2025 • 1:00 p.m. EST • Huntington Bank Field

In Week 14 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to Cleveland and took home a 31-29 victory.

The Titans got off to a fast start, scoring their first opening drive touchdown of the year. WR Chimere Dike opened the game with a 41-yard kickoff return. QB Cam Ward converted two third downs, the first to RB Tyjae Spears for a 24-yard gain and the next to TE Chig Okonkwo for nine yards to keep the drive alive. Ward then found WR Elic Ayomanor on a 14-yard touchdown pass to give the Titans an early 7-0 lead.

After a three-and-out stop by the Titans defense, Tennessee was on the verge of extending its lead, but Ward was intercepted by LB Devin Bush at the Cleveland 18-yard line, and after a 44-yard return, the Browns cashed that in for a 38-yard field goal by K Andre Szmyt to make it 7-3 with 1:42 left in the first quarter.

The Titans responded immediately with an explosive 65-yard touchdown run by RB Tony Pollard, which made it 14-3. Pollard finished the day with a career-best 161 rushing yards Barely two minutes later, the Browns cut the lead to 14-10 on a one-yard touchdown pass from QB Shedeur Sanders to TE David Njoku. It came after a 58-yard completion from Sanders to RB Quinshon Judkins.

Later in the second quarter, the Browns took their first lead of the game on a 60-yard touchdown pass from Sanders to WR Jerry Jeudy with 2:47 left in the first half.

Both teams punted multiple times in the third quarter before S Xavier Woods intercepted a Sanders pass and returned it 35 yards to the Cleveland 38-yard line with 1:41 left in the quarter.

Two plays later, Pollard busted loose again, this time on a 32-yard touchdown run to give the Titans a 21-17 lead with 51 seconds left in the third quarter.

Later in the fourth quarter after a Titans punt, CB Marcus Harris forced a fumble from RB Dylan Sampson and LB Cedric Gray scooped it up and returned it to the Cleveland eight-yard line. Ward found Dike in the end zone three plays later to give the Titans a 28-17 lead.

The Browns were forced to punt on their next offensive possession and LB James Williams Sr. blocked the punt - the first Titans blocked punt since their 2012 season. S Mike Brown recovered at the Browns 36-yard line.

The Titans cashed that in for a 41-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 31-17 with 6:17 remaining in the game.

The Browns cut the lead to 31-23 on a seven-yard scramble by Sanders which capped a five-play, 66-yard drive. However their two-point conversion failed to make it 31-23.

After a three-and-out by the Titans offense, the Browns went 80 yards on seven plays and scored on a seven-yard touchdown pass from Sanders to TE Harold Fannin to make it 31-29. But once again, the Titans defense stopped the two-point conversion attempt.

Dike recovered the onside kick and the Titans took home their first victory since October to improve to 2-11 on the season.

In Week 15 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to San Francisco and fell by a score of 37-24.

The 49ers jumped out to an early 7-0 lead after a 12-play, 70-yard touchdown drive capped off with a four-yard pass from QB Brock Purdy to WR Jauan Jennings.

The Titans drove to the 49ers five-yard line on the next possession, but were forced to settle for a 25-yard field goal by K Joey Slye to make it 7-3 with 1:22 left in the first quarter.

San Francisco responded with another 70-yard touchdown drive. RB Christian McCaffrey capped the seven-play drive with a one-yard touchdown run to extend their lead to 14-3.

The Titans responded with a long touchdown drive of their own. QB Cam Ward found TE Gunnar Helm for a 34-yard touchdown to make it 14-10. Helm's catch capped an eight-play, 68-yard drive that included a pair of first down completions to TE Chig Okonkwo.

A 33-yard field goal by K Eddy Piniero made it 17-10 with a minute left in the first half.

Ward then drove Tennessee to the San Francisco 32-yard line to set up for a 50-yard field goal as time expired, but Slye misfired on the attempt and the score remained 17-10 heading into the break.

49ers opened the second half with a four-play, 67-yard touchdown drive. Purdy found WR Ricky Pearsall for a 38-yard gain before connecting with Jennings for the 13-yard touchdown.

After a three-and-out by the Titans offense, the 49ers extended their lead on a 15-play, 95-yard drive capped on a one-yard touchdown pass from Purdy to TE George Kittle to make it 31-10 with 2:10 left in the third quarter.

DT Jeffery Simmons came up big to start the fourth quarter. Simmons knocked the ball out of Purdy's hand for a strip-sack that was recovered by CB Kaiir Elam at the 47-yard line. It marked Simmons' ninth sack on the season, setting a new career-high.

Ward then found WR Van Jefferson for a 41-yard completion to bring the Titans to the 49ers one-yard line. Simmons reported as eligible and lined up as a fullback on the next play. Simmons got behind the defense after Ward scrambled, and he caught a one-yard touchdown pass to make the score 31-17 with 14:16 left in the contest.

Another Piniero field goal, this one from 37 yards, made it 34-17 with 9:28 left.

On the next Titans drive, RB Tony Pollard and RB Tyjae Spears combined for 53 rushing yards including a six-yard touchdown run by Pollard to make it 34-24 with 5:37 left in the game. Pollard recorded 104 total rushing yards, marking the first back-to-back 100-yard rushing performance for the Titans since 2022 after he recorded 161 yards last week.

A 40-yard field goal by Pineiro with 1:14 left in the game accounted for the final margin.

TITANS-CHIEFS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 16: Titans 26, Chiefs 9
Sunday, Dec. 21, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 16 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the Kansas City Chiefs and won by a score of 26-9. The win snapped an 11-game losing streak at Nissan Stadium.

The Titans tallied four sacks in the contest, as the Chiefs managed just nine first downs and 133 yards of offense. The Titans won the time of possession 38:01 to 21:59. RB Tony Pollard accounted for 102 rushing yards while RB Tyjae Spears amassed 105 yards of offense (52 rush, 53 receiving) and a touchdown in the contest. It was Pollard's third straight 100-yard rushing performance.

The Titans took the lead early on a safety, when DT Jeffery Simmons exploded through the line of scrimmage and tackled RB Kareem Hunt in the end zone. The play gave the Titans a 2-0 lead at the 13:06 mark of the second quarter.

The Chiefs responded with a nine-play, 28-yard drive that resulted in a 54-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker to take a 3-2 lead with 7:40 left in the second quarter. QB Chris Oladokun entered the game for the drive in place of an injured QB Gardner Minshew. QB Patrick Mahomes had been placed on injured reserve the week prior.

The Titans reclaimed the lead on their next offensive possession. Tennessee strung together an 11-play, 89-yard drive and capped it off with a seven-yard touchdown pass from QB Cam Ward to TE Chig Okonkwo. Spears was a big contributor on the possession, running the ball and catching it out of the backfield for 64 yards.

The Chiefs kept it close heading into the half with a 41-yard field goal by K Harrison Butker that capped a quick seven-play, 45-yard drive to make it 9-6.

Tennessee came out hot in the second half with a nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Ward connected with WR Elic Ayomanor on a 25-yard pass before finding WR Chimere Dike for 30 yards and then the one-yard touchdown to make it 16-6 with 10:32 left in the third quarter.

The Titans defense responded by forcing a long field goal attempt. Butker was wide right on the 51-yarder and the Titans reclaimed possession.

Later in the third quarter, Butker made good on a 27-yard field goal to make it 16-9 with 3:00 left in the third quarter.

The Titans responded with a 10-play, 64-yard touchdown drive. A defensive offside by Kansas City nullified a 51-yard field goal by K Joey Slye and gave the Titans a first down a the Chiefs' 28-yard line. Ward found Ayomanor for a 24-yard completion and Spears finished it off with a four-yard touchdown run to make it 23-9 with 11:56 left in the game.

The Titans then executed a methodical 13-play, 57-yard drive that took 6:17 off the clock and culminated in a 27-yard field goal by Slye to extend the lead to 26-9 with 3:44 left.

Tennessee's defense forced a three-and-out and the Titans ended the game in victory formation.

TITANS-SAINTS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 17: Titans 26, Saints 34
Sunday, Dec. 28, 2025 • 12:00 p.m. CST • Nissan Stadium

In Week 17 of the 2025 season, the Titans hosted the New Orleans Saints and fell by a score of 34-26 after being outscored 24-6 in the second half to fall to 3-13 on the season.

The Titans got on the board first. After DT Jeffery Simmons stripped-sacked QB Tyler Shough for his 10th sack of the season, the Saints were forced to punt. P Kai Kroeger hit a 17-yard punt to give the Titans the ball at the Saints 35-yard line. K Joey Slye made it 3-0 with a 50-yard field goal with 9:10 left in the first quarter.

After a missed field goal by the Saints, Slye extended the lead to 6-0 with a 38-yard field goal later in the first quarter after QB Cam Ward connected with WR Chimere Dike for a 38-yard gain to put the Titans in field goal range.

After the Titans defense forced another three-and-out on the next possession, the Titans offense took over at their own 36-yard line. On a fourth-and-two from the New Orleans 43, Ward found TE Chig Okonkwo, and the tight end did the rest. After catching the ball, Okonkwo raced downfield, and after shoving off would-be tackler CB Kool-Aid McKinstry at the 12-yard line, he raced into the end zone for a touchdown to make it 13-0 with 12:57 left in the half.

The Saints cut the lead to 13-3 on the next drive with a 56-yard field goal from K Charlie Smyth.

The New Orleans defense then made a big play. With Ward already under pressure in the pocket, DE Chase Young came up from behind and took the ball away from Ward and raced 33 yards for a touchdown to make it 13-10 at the 3:51 mark of the second quarter.

However, Ward and the Titans responded with a nine-play, 80-yard touchdown drive. Ward launched a ball to WR Chimere Dike who drew a 50-yard pass interference penalty that brought the Titans to the New Orleans seven-yard line. Ward then connected with Elic Ayomanor for a the touchdown with 13 seconds left before halftime to make it 20-10 Titans at the break.

The Saints came out firing to start the second half, however, and Shough cut the lead to 20-17 on a 19-yard touchdown pass to WR Chris Olave.

Another Slye field goal, this one from 28 yards, made it 23-17 Titans with 7:20 left in the third quarter.

After Smyth and the Saints answered back with a 57-yard field goal to make it 23-20 late in the third, Slye responded with a 58-yard field goal of his own to make it 26-20 with 12:50 left. The 58-yard field goal was good for the second-longest in franchise history.

A wild play ensued on the next series. Shough found WR Dante Pettis along the sideline who broke free of a tackle by CB Kemon Hall and raced towards the end zone. However, Hall hustled all the way back to punch the ball out and save the touchdown. CB Kaiir Elam recovered in the end zone for a touchback to give the Titans the ball back.

However, the ensuing drive stalled and New Orleans took over at their own 20-yard line after a 61-yard punt from P Johnny Hekker.

After trailing all game, the Saints took their first lead of the game on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Shough to WR Kevin Austin Jr. to make it 27-26 with 6:22 left.

The Saints extended the lead to 34-26 with 3:44 left on a 31-yard touchdown run by RB Audric Estime.

The Titans had two opportunities with the football in the closing minutes, but they couldn't find any late-game magic and dropped to 3-13 on the season.

TITANS-JAGUARS: GAME SUMMARY

Week 18: Titans 7, Jaguars 41
Sunday Jan. 4, 2026 • 1:00 p.m. EST • EverBank Stadium

In Week 18 of the 2025 season, the Titans traveled to division rival Jacksonville Jaguars and fell by a score of 41-7 in the season finale.

The Titans got off to a promising start. After DT Jeffery Simmons recorded his 11th sack of the season on the opening play, the Jaguars were forced to punt after a three-and-out.

QB Cam Ward and the Titans offense took over, driving 58 yards on five plays before Ward found the end zone on a seven-yard run to make it 7-0 early in the first quarter. However, Ward was injured on the play and was ruled out for the remainder of the game.

Things went downhill from there as the Jaguars scored 41 unanswered points.

A 23-yard touchdown pass from QB Trevor Lawrence to WR Parker Washington made it 7-7 before TE Brenton Strange's seven-yard catch from Lawrence made it 14-7.

Then Jaguars CB Antonio Johnson picked off QB Brandon Allen, who was playing in place of the injured Ward, and returned it 58 yards for a touchdown to make it 21-7 midway through the second quarter.

A five-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to TE Quinton Morris made it 28-7. A 67-yard field goal by K Cam Little at the halftime horn made it 31-7 at the break.

Another Little field goal, this one from 52 yards with 1:03 left in the third quarter, made it 34-7 Jaguars.

QB Nick Mullens replaced Lawrence in the fourth quarter. RB Bhayshul Tuten made it 41-7 on a five-yard touchdown run with 7:28 left.

K Joey Slye missed a 52-yard field goal in the final minutes and the Jaguars ended the game in victory formation and dropped the Titans to 3-14 on the season.

TITANS HURT THEMSELVES IN 20-12 SEASON-OPENING LOSS TO THE BRONCOS

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEETITANS.COM
SEPTEMBER 7, 2025

DENVER – The Titans had a great opportunity for a Week One upset here on Sunday.

But missed opportunities on offense, and too many mistakes across the board, ended up dooming them in the end.

The Titans lost 20-12 to the Broncos to start the season at Empower Field at Mile High.

"At the end of the day, we didn't make enough plays to put ourselves in a position to win at the end," Coach Brian Callahan said. "I thought our team played with great effort, and we had opportunities to go win it. … We couldn't get any rhythm offensively at all. Defensively I thought we played pretty good, but some of the third down penalties were critical. … Disappointed we couldn't find a way to win.

"We have some things to clean up."

Quarterback Cam Ward completed 12-of-28 passes for 112 yards in the contest, but he was sacked six times and lost a fumble.

The Titans were just 2-of-14 on third down on a day when the team managed just seven first downs and 133 yards of offense. The team also fell short in the red zone, settling for four field goals in the game.

"We didn't score touchdowns, that's really the biggest frustration," Ward said. "Shooting ourselves in the foot, getting in long (down and distance) situations. At the end of the day, we have to continue to get better. It's only game one, and we have 16 more ahead of us."

The defense forced three turnovers, and they also recovered a fumble on special teams.

But the Titans committed too many penalties – 13 for 131 yards – and many of them proved costly.

It left the Titans at 0-1 to start the season.

"Penalties, man," Titans defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "Myself, dumb (expletive) that hurts the team. There's no excuse for that, and I take full responsibility for (mine). But even with all the freakin' penalties we still had a chance, we were still in the game.

"But when you have that many penalties, that's terrible. You'll never win a game like that, especially against a good football team on the road. We have to clean that up."

The Titans were in it from start to finish, which made this one tougher to accept.

The Titans took an early 3-0 lead on a 50-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye, which capped a seven-play, 33-yard drive that included a big play from Ward on third and 10. Ward avoided a sack on the play, and he flipped the ball to running back Tony Pollard for a 29-yard gain.

The Broncos tied the game at 3-3 on a 39-yard field goal by Will Lutz.

It was a defensive battle throughout, and the Titans made some plays to keep them in it.

On this day, however, they just couldn't make enough plays to win it.

"It's very frustrating," center Lloyd Cushenberry said. "Week One, tough environment, no excuse.

"We have to capitalize on those chances we have. Opportunity will come again, but we have to get seven instead of settling for three, and hurting ourselves for penalties."

Titans cornerback Roger McCreary intercepted Broncos quarterback Bo Nix toward the end of the first quarter when he went up and took the ball away from Broncos receiver Courtland Sutton.

In the second quarter, the Titans jumped back ahead after another turnover caused by the defense, and a field goal.

Simmons sacked Nix, forcing a fumble, and defensive lineman Sebastian Joseph-Day jumped on the loose ball for the second forced turnover of the day.

The Titans took over at the Denver 38, and took it all the way to the four-yard line.

But Ward was sacked on third down, and the Titans had to settle for a 33-yard field goal from Slye to make it 6-3 with 2:16 before halftime.

The end of the first half featured plenty of swings, including a tough one for the Titans.

Leading 6-3 in the closing minute, the Titans had a chance to get into halftime with the lead.

But a pair of incompletions, and Ward getting sacked at the 1, forced the Titans to punt.

The Broncos took advantage of the time, and good field position, and they cashed it in for a touchdown – a 22-yard touchdown pass from Nix to Sutton, which made it 10-6.

Titans returner Chimere Dike returned the ensuing kickoff 71 yards to put Slye in position to kick a 42-yard field goal, and he made it, and the game went to halftime with the Broncos leading 10-9.

The Titans continued to be scrappy on defense, forcing another turnover early in the third quarter. Safety Xavier Woods picked off Nix this time, after Simmons created pressure.

The Titans cashed that in for three more points on a 35-yard field goal by Slye, to make it 12-10 at the 11:56 mark of the third quarter.

The Broncos reclaimed the lead, 13-12, on another field goal from Lutz, this one from 33 yards, with 4:17 left in the third quarter.

The Titans got another break early in the fourth quarter when the Broncos muffed a punt, and linebacker Dorian Mausi jumped on the football at the Denver 20.

But the Titans allowed back-to-back sacks on Ward, and ended up punting.

The Broncos then extended their lead to 20-12 with 7:37 left on an 19-yard touchdown run by J.K. Dobbins.

The Titans had another chance late after a fourth down stop on defense, but they couldn't move the ball.

A late penalty by Simmons allowed the Broncos to run more clock.

When the Titans got the ball back, Ward was sacked, and fumbled, and the game was over.

So, too, were the hopes of a Week One upset.

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Los Angeles Rams at Nissan Stadium.

"It's the NFL – the next game is coming in seven days," Callahan said. "We have another good team coming to our place, another playoff caliber football team. We have to get ready to go, and we have to clean up what we didn't do well and play another game."

TITANS CAN'T SUSTAIN MOMENTUM, FALL 33-19 TO RAMS

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEETITANS.COM
SEPTEMBER 14, 2025

NASHVILLE – Cam Ward brought some magic to his Nissan Stadium debut on Sunday.

Unfortunately for the Titans, all the fun disappeared in the second half, when the Rams pulled away.

"Frustrating to start a season 0 and 2, certainly," Coach Brian Callahan said after his team's 33-19 loss. "I still have a lot of belief in our football team, that we can win games in this league, in this season. But right now, we haven't put together a game that is worthy of winning, against two really, really good football teams to start.

"We have to bounce back."

Ward, selected first overall in the 2025 NFL Draft, electrified the crowd with a highlight-reel throw for his first career touchdown pass.

It came near the end of the first half in what was a back-and-forth game for a while.

But the Titans couldn't sustain the momentum, and with the loss dropped to 0-2.

Ward completed 19 of 33 passes for 175 yards and a touchdown in the game. But the rookie quarterback was also sacked five times, and he lost the ball on a fumble, which set up a Rams score.

"We just have to continue to have urgency," Ward said. "Offensively, we just have to have urgency every play. At the end of the day, we have to stop shooting ourselves in the foot. … We have to lock in."

Running back Tony Pollard carried the ball 20 times for 92 yards in a game when kicker Joey Slye made all four of his field goal attempts.

But the Titans defense had trouble stopping Los Angeles from scoring touchdowns on Sunday, as quarterback Matthew Stafford completed 23 of 33 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns, and the Rams racked up 439 yards of total offense and four touchdowns.

The Titans were penalized 10 times for 62 yards in the contest, making things even more difficult on themselves.

"As a team, whether it's offense, defense, special teams," linebacker Cody Barton said, "we didn't do enough to win the game. We didn't do enough as a team to win the game, that's it."

The Titans got off to a tough start, and after rallying for a halftime lead, saw the Rams separate from them in the second half before an announced crowd of 59,069.

The Rams took a 7-0 lead on their first possession of the contest when receiver Puka Nacua took a handoff on 4th and 1 and raced 45 yards for a touchdown.

The Titans cut the lead to 7-3 in a 55-yard field goal by Slye, before the Rams extended their lead to 10-3 on a 21-yard field goal by kicker Joshua Karty.

It looked like the Titans had seized the momentum on a 57-yard punt return for a touchdown by rookie Chimere Dike, but the play was called back because of an illegal blindside block by linebacker Cedric Gray, which set off loud boos at Nissan Stadium.

But those boos changed to cheers minutes later, when Ward connected with rookie Elic Ayomanor for a nine-yard touchdown pass, which made it 10-10.

Only this wasn't your average nine-yard touchdown pass.

On the play, Ward ran to his right, and then threw across the field – and his body -- to Ayomanor, who'd previously made a great one-handed catch off his shoulder pads to keep the drive alive.

Nissan Stadium erupted after Ward's throw, and a big celebration followed.

"The o-line gave me time, and Elic, just knowing what I like on the scramble drill," Ward said. "(After that) it was just us connecting on the play. It was exciting to throw my first touchdown. I just wish it came after a win."

Then, on the next possession for the Rams, Barton intercepted Stafford.

The Titans got into field goal position, and Slye kicked his second field goal of the day, to give the Titans a 13-10 lead at halftime.

The Rams got the ball to start the second half, and a 26-yard field goal by Karty early in the third quarter made it 13-13. The Titans defense, for the second time in the game, kept the Rams out of the end zone after they had a first and goal situation.

Then the Titans responded with a scoring drive of their own, and capped it off with a 57-yard field goal by Slye with 3:32 left in the third quarter to reclaim the lead at 16-13.

Things went downhill from there, however.

The Rams answered Tennessee's score with a four-play, 69-yard drive they capped off with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Stafford to tight end Davis Allen, which made it 20-16 with 1:17 left in the third quarter.

Ward was then sacked early in the fourth quarter, and he lost the football at the Tennessee 21-yard line.

The Rams made the Titans pay, in a hurry, as Stafford connected with Davante Adams for a 16-yard touchdown to make it 27-16 with 9:40 left in the contest.

A few minutes later, Rams running back Blake Corum scored on a one-yard touchdown to make it 33-16 Rams with 6:45 left in the contest.

Slye's fourth field goal of the game for the Titans, this one from 35 yards, made it 33-19 with 2:40 left, but it was too little, too late.

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Colts at Nissan Stadium.

"We have to come back ready to work," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "This is how we can turn this season around, by winning a big game in our division, against the Colts. We know that is going to be a tough one – it is always tough against those guys. We just have to come back with a mindset that we need to go 1 and 0. That is the mindset and hopefully that is the message. We are still in this thing. After two games, do we want to be 0 and 2? No. But the goal and the message should be: Let's go 1 and 0 this week."

TITANS FALL 41-20 TO COLTS, DROP TO 0-3 ON THE SEASON

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
SEPTEMBER 21, 2025

NASHVILLE – Titans fans will not want to remember the 21st day of this September.

That's because the Colts came to town and had way too much fun while handing the Titans a 41-20 loss at Nissan Stadium.

The Titans were forced to play catch up from the start on Sunday, and they couldn't do it.

Now they're faced with having to dig out of a hole after falling to 0-3 on the season.

"This is disappointing, obviously," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "We just didn't do anything well enough over the course of the game in any phase to put ourselves in a position to win."

Titans quarterback Cam Ward completed 23-of-38 passes for 219 yards with a touchdown and an interception. He was sacked four times in the contest.

"We put ourselves in a hole, starting off 0-3, something that we got to climb ourselves out of," Ward said. "But it's all learning stuff, especially from my standpoint, the offense standpoint as a whole, and then on the defensive side of the ball."

On defense, the Titans couldn't stop the Colts. Indianapolis running back Jonathan Taylor ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns, and quarterback Daniel Jones threw for 228 yards and a score.

The Titans couldn't sustain drives, and they kicked too many field goals.

The Titans also committed eight more penalties, for 68 yards.

Once again, it was not a recipe for success.

It even prompted boos at Nissan Stadium.

"I personally don't like it, but I understand why they're not liking how we're playing," cornerback Darrell Baker Jr. said. "So, I kind of expect that, they're not booing a single person, they're booing all of us as a collective unit. Right now, we haven't done what we needed to do in order for them to give us the cheers."

Added Ward: "If I was them, I'd be mad, too."

Sunday's game got off to an ominous start, as the Colts returned Ward's first interception of the season for a touchdown on the game's opening series. It was cornerback Kenny Moore who stepped in front of a Ward pass intended for Tony Pollard, and he returned it 33 yards to make it 7-0 just 49 seconds into the game.

The Titans got three points back in less than two minutes, however, when kicker Joey Slye made a 57-yard field goal to cap off a short drive.

The Colts then scored 10 straight pointd, first on a 24-yard field goal by kicker Spencer Shrader, and then on a one-yard touchdown run by Taylor to make it 17-3.

Another Slye field goal, this one from 42 yards, made it 17-6 with 10:50 left in the second quarter.

The two teams both missed field goals in the second quarter, including a 64-yard attempt by Slye, which was his first miss of the season.

Slye later missed another long field goal after a forgettable possession late in the first half, and the Colts kicked another field goal to lead 20-6 at the half.

Things got worse, before they got better.

And on this day, things never really got better.

The Colts stretched the lead to 27-6 on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Jones to receiver Michael Pittman early in the third quarter.

The Titans answered with a long scoring drive of their own, and capped it off with a one-yard touchdown run by Pollard to make it 27-13 with 5:09 left in the third quarter.

But a 46-yard touchdown run by Taylor made it 34-13 Colts with 1:27 left in the third quarter.

Not a lot of fans were left in the stands when Ward directed a 16-play, 77-yard drive that he capped off with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Elic Ayomanor to make it 34-20 with 8:40 left.

Even fewer were there when a one-yard touchdown run by Taylor made it 41-20 with 5:53 left.

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Houston Texans.

"I'm not going to sit here and point fingers at anybody, you know," linebacker Cody Barton said. "I want to watch the film first, but just like I've said numerous times now, we're going to win and lose as a team, coaches included. We're all in this together, and so we're going to win and lose as a team."

TITANS SHUT OUT IN HOUSTON, LOSE 26-0 TO THE TEXANS

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
SEPTEMBER 28, 2025

HOUSTON – The Titans had a problem, make that problems, in Houston.

Count Titans quarterback Cam Ward among those frustrated with the issues on offense on a day when the team was shut out for the first time since the 2019 season.

"Everything," Ward replied when asked what's going wrong with the offense following the team's 26-0 loss to the Texans. "From an interception, to a penalty, to an incompletion by me, a bad ball. And once we pass the 50 (yard-line), we just are not continuing the drive.

"If we are keeping a book right now, we're (expletive). We're 0 and 4. At this point, we have nothing to lose. We dropped a quarter of our (expletive) games, and we have yet to do anything. So, we have to lock in, especially myself. From the offensive line from the defensive line from the special teams, all three phases, we have to play together. We have not played together this year yet."

On Sunday, the Titans defense tried to keep the team in it on a day when the offense couldn't get anything going.

But in the end, the defense gave way, too, in an ugly, and lopsided loss.

The Titans are now 0-4 on the season.

"We are playing bad football, it's simple," Titans defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons said. "I'm tired of hearing the same thing coming in the locker room, and I am tired of saying it, that we have to play better. I am tired of saying that. This is the NFL and they wanted it more than us, they played like they wanted it more than us. We are not playing good right now. It is frustrating as hell."

The Titans didn't play well on Sunday.

Ward completed just 10 of 26 passes for 108 yards in the contest, with an interception.

Throughout the game, the Titans couldn't make this game interesting because the offense couldn't sustain drives, or get close to the end zone. The Titans managed just 10 first downs in the game, and the offense went just 2-of-11 on third down.

A pair of missed field goals by Titans kicker Joey Slye in the first half were deflating, and didn't help matters.

Defensively, the Titans allowed Texans quarterback C.J. Stroud to complete 22-of-28 passes for 233 yards and two touchdowns. After playing bend-but-don't-break defense for a while, Tennessee's defense surrendered three touchdowns in the second half.

It all added up to another frustrating, and lopsided loss.

It marked the first time the Titans had been shut out since a 16-0 loss to the Broncos during the 2019 season.

"Obviously disappointed in the result of that game," Coach Brian Callahan said. "We didn't really do anything well enough during the course of the game. … All the way around, not good enough."

On Sunday, the Titans fell behind 3-0 in the first quarter on a Ka'imi Fairbairn field goal, which followed a 41-yard miss by Slye.

Another Fairbairn field goal, this one from 43 yards, made it 6-0 Texans with 13:28 in the second quarter.

The Titans got into position for a field goal at the end of the first half, but Slye was off target on his 43-yard attempt on the final play of the first half and the Texans led 6-0 at the break.

The Titans defense forced the Texans to try another field goal on their first possession of the second half, and this one sailed wide right to keep the score 6-0.

The Titans had chances, but they couldn't do anything with them.

The Texans then stretched the lead to 12-0 on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to running back Woody Marks with 14:55 left in the contest.

Ward was intercepted in the fourth quarter as the Titans tried to rally, and the Texans cashed that in for another touchdown – a 24-yard pass from Stroud to Jayden Higgins.

The Texans then made it 26-0 on an 18-yard run by Marks.

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Arizona Cardinals, and they now find themselves in a big hole.

"I think it's reflection of all of us not doing anything well enough at this point," Callahan said. "That's players, that's coaches, that's everybody. We haven't found a way to win a game in a while, and that reflects on all of us."

TITANS STAGE FURIOUS RALLY, BEAT CARDINALS 22-21

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 5, 2025

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The Titans struck gold in the desert.

A furious fourth quarter rally produced an improbable 22-21 win over the Cardinals here on Sunday at State Farm Stadium.

The Titans rallied from a 21-3 deficit, scoring the game's final 19 points to end a 10-game losing streak dating back to last season.

"Obviously, just really exciting to get a win," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "To show that kind of fight in a game where we had to claw our way back into it. It was everything that we needed to see from our football team, and we'd been waiting to see for a couple of weeks now, the ability to make the plays when it mattered to help us win the game.

"Those guys fought like crazy. It was superb effort all the way around. It was awesome to see just the resilience of the team, the fight that they showed. … I'm really proud of the team."

Titans quarterback Cam Ward came through with a game-winning drive in the clutch, and kicker Joey Slye kicked the game-winner from 29 yards out at the horn.

It set off a wild celebration on the field, and in the locker room.

"You can tell the energy around here," cornerback L'Jarius Sneed said with a smile. "Everybody is happy, felt like we'd won the Super Bowl or something. It felt great, and as a team we came in here and celebrated. But there's more to do."

The Titans trailed 21-6 entering the fourth quarter, and scored 16 straight points in the final 10:26, including 10 points in the final 4:39, to win it.

Behind Ward, the Titans became the first team to overcome a deficit of at least 18 points and win with a rookie starting quarterback since the Giants with Daniel Jones in 2019.

It was the franchise's largest fourth-quarter comeback in a victory since a 21-point comeback to defeat the Giants in 2006.

"It felt good," Ward said. "A win, especially for my first one, in a game like that, it was a big-time win. The biggest thing is we have to continue to build off it."

With the victory, the Titans improved to 1-4.

Trailing 21-19 with 1:53 remaining, the Titans got the ball at their own 18-yard line, needing a field goal.

Ward's 38-yard completion to receiver Calvin Ridley in the final minute put the team in field goal range, before an 11-yard run by running back Tony Pollard put the team on the doorstep of the win.

Slye made his kick on a fourth-down play from the Arizona 11, and he was mobbed by teammates as the kick sailed through the uprights.

Ward completed 21-of-39 passes for 265 yards in the contest, doing his best work late. Pollard ran 14 times for 67 yards and a score, while Ridley caught five passes for 131 yards.

Things didn't look good until the end.

The Cardinals jumped ahead 7-0 on a one-yard touchdown run by Michael Carter, before the Titans the responded with a 44-yard field goal by Slye to cut the lead to 7-3.

But the Cardinals answered right back, scoring on a 12-yard touchdown run by quarterback Kyler Murray to make it 14-3 at the end of the first quarter. After a fumble by Pollard, and a one-yard touchdown run by Zonovan Knight, it was 21-3 Cardinals early in the second quarter.

The Titans got a spark with a 65-kickoff return by Chimere Dike, but they had to settle for another field goal from Slye, this one from 51 yards, to make it 21-6 at the 8:29 mark of the second quarter, and that was the score at the half.

The Titans couldn't get anything going on offense in the third quarter, when they had three straight three-and-outs.

It looked bleak.

Until a crazy comeback in the closing minutes.

In the fourth quarter, the Titans cut the lead to 21-12 with 10:26 left on a one-yard touchdown run by Pollard, which capped a six-play, 80-yard drive that included big catches from Ridley and tight end Gunnar Helm. But a missed PAT by Slye kept it a two-score game.

A wild play ensued, as receiver Tyler Lockett recovered a fumble in the end zone, after a Cardinals player fumbled following an interception. It made the score 21-19 with 4:39 left in the contest.

"It was a crazy play overall," Lockett said. "It was a scramble play. They always talk about keep running to the ball, you never know what is going to happen. I was able to dive on it, and secure it for a touchdown."

Earlier, the Titans benefited from Cardinals running back Emari Demercado fumbling just before he crossed the goal line on a long run. Sneed chased Demercado to the end, and impacted the play. Instead of a touchdown, it was a touchback.

It all contributed to the Titans having life at the end.

After a late defensive stop, Ward and the offense produced in the clutch.

Then, Slye delivered.

The victory provided joy, and relief.

"It was wild," defensive lineman Jeffery Simmons said. "We talk about resilience, and about being a team that can finish. It felt good to finally win a football game."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Las Vegas Raiders.

TITANS FALL 20-10 TO RAIDERS, DROP TO 1-5 ON THE SEASON

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 12, 2025

LAS VEGAS – The Titans better hope what happened in Vegas stays in Vegas.

In the Sin City, the Titans committed plenty of sins that got them beat.

The team's 20-10 loss to the Raiders halted the positive feelings coming from last week's win at Arizona, and it dropped the team to 1-5.

"It's disappointing all the way around," Coach Brian Callahan said after the game. "It's disappointing we can't find a way to play better offensively, and that's why we're at where we're at.

"I am incredible discouraged by the outcome. We felt good coming into the game, and to not be able to perform well on offense, and to not be able to score points, is disappointing. We all have to be better."

Quarterback Cam Ward threw a touchdown pass late, but the Titans sputtered on offense for most of the day and turned the ball over three times.

While the defense battled, and did its part to keep the game close, this wasn't a day for complementary football, as the Titans couldn't muster up much offense on a day when Ward was sacked five times, and was responsible for all three of the team's turnovers.

Ward finished the day 26-of-38 passes for 222 yards and an interception. Ward also lost two fumbles on the day.

"Real disappointed, just as an offense, especially myself," Ward said after the game. "Any time you have three turnovers you are not going to have a chance to win the game. … I know I can't let it happen, but we have to keep going.

"At the end of the day, there's no excuses out there for us. We just have to be better, and I have to be better. Any time you are scoring 10 points, you are not winning the football game. Offensively, we just have to (help) the defense. They've done their part the whole season and we just have to start doing ours."

The Titans were forced to play catch-up football from the get-go, and they couldn't do it.

The Raiders took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 50-yard field goal from kicker Daniel Carlson on their opening possession.

While the Titans defense created havoc early, providing consistent pressure on Raiders quarterback Geno Smith, the offense struggled to get anything going.

Then, late in the second quarter, disaster struck.

That's when Raiders linebacker Devin White sacked Ward deep in Tennessee territory, forcing a fumble in the process. The Raiders recovered it at the Titans two-yard line, and cashed it in for a short touchdown pass from Smith to tight end Michael Mayer to make it 10-0.

The Titans appeared to be headed for points at the end of the first half, but Ward was hit as he threw the ball, and it was intercepted, and it was 10-0 at halftime.

The Raiders then stretched the lead to 17-0 midway through the third quarter on a three-yard touchdown run by Ashton Jeanty.

The Titans finally got on the scoreboard with 1:08 left in the third quarter on a 46-yard field goal by kicker Matthew Wright, which capped an eight-play, 51-yard drive.

But the Titans couldn't make it much of a game after that, as the Raiders extended their lead to 20-3 on another Carlson field goal with 7:14 left to make it 20-3.

A one-yard touchdown pass from Ward to tight end David Martin-Robinson made it 20-10 with 3:03 left, but it was too little, too late.

"It is frustrating, and I hate losing," linebacker Cody Barton said. "But you have to keep going, this is part of the job. We have to keep fighting, keep sticking together, keep trusting each other. Obviously there will be things on both sides of the ball that we need to fix and change from that, but we can't point fingers and we have to stick together."

The Titans return to action next week against the New England Patriots at Nissan Stadium.

TITANS FALL 31-13 TO THE PATRIOTS, DROP TO 1-6

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 19, 2025

NASHVILLE – The Titans showed some spunk early.

At the end of an eventful week, the team scored on its first two possessions and put points on the scoreboard three of the first four times it had the football.

But the offensive success eventually dried up under interim head coach Mike McCoy on a day when the defense had all kinds of trouble stopping the Patriots.

The end result: A 31-13 loss to the Patriots, which dropped Tennessee's record to 1-6 on the season.

"We got off to a fast start, exactly what we wanted to do as a football team," McCoy said. "It's disappointing the way the game went after the end of the first half. … Offensively, we can't get shut out in the second half and do what we did. … But we're going to stick together here, we're going to fight our tails off, and find a way to go win the next one."

Titans quarterback Cam Ward completed 25-of-34 passes for 255 yards and a touchdown and an interception in the contest, making some really nice throws early.

Ward was sacked five times, however, and he lost the football on a play that gave New England an easy touchdown. He also threw an interception on a ball that was behind tight end Chig Okonkwo.

"With the quick start, it was just us having an urgency," Ward said. "That's how we need to start every game, and maintain it throughout the whole game."

While the Titans were shut out in the second half, the Patriots heated up.

Patriots quarterback Drake Maye completed 21-of-23 passes for 222 yards in the contest with two touchdowns. The Patriots also racked up 175 yards on the ground as they took over the contest in the middle portion of the contest, outscoring Tennessee 28-3 in the second and third quarters combined, including 14-0 in the second half.

Making matters worse: Defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons (hamstring) and cornerback L'Jarius Sneed (quad) left the contest with injuries, and neither player returned.

It all contributed to another tough Sunday.

"We just have to keep improving," linebacker Cedric Gray said. "It might not be our time right now, or this year. But we just have to find ways to get better, keep stacking, and our time will come.

"It feels a lot better when you stay through the (expletive), you work through the (expletive) together and when you finally come out on top it is going to feel a lot better."

The Titans looked good early on Sunday.

It was 3-0 Titans after a 49-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye, and after the Patriots tied it up with a 36-yard field goal by kicker Adam Borregales, the Titans answered back.

A 38-yard touchdown pass from Ward to receiver Chimere Dike made it 10-3 Titans. Dike had four catches for 70 yards in the first quarter, in fact.

Even after the Patriots answered back with a scoring drive of their own, capping it off with a three-yard touchdown pass from Maye to tight end Austin Hooper to make it 10-10, the Titans came back again, putting together an eight-play, 32-yard drive that was capped off with a 50-yard field goal from Slye. Receiver Van Jefferson had a pair of catches on the drive, which made it 13-10 with 1:48 left in the half.

Then came a flurry of points from the Patriots, and no answer from the Titans.

A 39-yard touchdown pass from Maye to receiver Kayshon Boutte with 49 seconds left before the half made it 17-13 Patriots at the half.

Then, a three-yard touchdown run by Rhamondre Stevenson made it 24-13 Patriots with 7:31 left in the third quarter.

Ward lost control of the football on the team's next possession, and when the ball hit the turf, Patriots linebacker K'Lavon Chaisson had it bounce into his hands, and he returned it four yards for a touchdown to make it 31-13 with 7:20 left in the third quarter.

That ended any hope of a Tennessee victory.

Instead, players were once again left talking about things that need to be better.

"I think that the belief is still there within the group," Dike said. "And any time you go through adversity in life, and we're facing adversity early in the season, it definitely feels good when you're able to come out the other side. So, it's important we get back to work this week, have a great week of preparation and go play a great game Sunday."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the Indianapolis Colts.

GAME RECAP: COLTS RACE PAST TITANS, 38-14

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
OCTOBER 26, 2025

INDIANAPOLIS – There were moments, albeit brief ones, early on Sunday when the Titans flashed potential, and showed some promise.

Those moments, however, were too few and far between here at Lucas Oil Stadium in a 38-14 loss to the Colts.

And the biggest moment of the game – a quick sequence early in the third quarter – helped put in motion what ended up being another long day for the Titans.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 1-7.

"We have to do a better job overall as an entire football team," interim head coach Mike McCoy said. "We have to play better."

Titans quarterback Cam Ward completed 22-of-38 passes for 259 yards, with a touchdown and an interception.

Receiver Chimere Dike had seven catches for 93 yards.

Running back Tyjae Spears ran for 59 yards and a touchdown.

But any good vibes for the Titans disappeared here in Naptown early in the third quarter.

That's when Colts running back Jonathan Taylor broke the game open with an 80-yard touchdown run, immediately following a Tennessee punt.

It was ugly after that, as Taylor finished the game with 153 rushing yards and three total touchdowns on the day.

"Obviously, I am very upset," linebacker Cedric Gray said. "As a team, as a defense, we have to be better, it's that plain simple. … I think the biggest problem – offense, defense, special teams – there's a lack of execution that I feel like is lacking with this team, and we have to change that."

"We are just going through some rough (expletive) right now, excuse my language," said Spears. "It's very frustrating, because we put the work in, put the time in. But we have to show it on Sundays."

It was interesting early, at least for a bit.

After the Colts jumped out to a 10-0 lead on a 43-yard field goal from kicker Michael Badgley, and an 18-yard touchdown run by Taylor, the Titans answered back in the second quarter.

That's when Ward connected with tight end Gunnar Helm for a one-yard touchdown pass to make it 10-7 at the 11:14 mark. Helm's score was set up by a 41-yard run by Spears, which put the ball at the Indianapolis one-yard line.

The Colts stayed the aggressor, quickly scored on a 21-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Daniel Jones to receiver Michael Pittman Jr. to make it 17-7 with 7:44 left in the second quarter.

It was still a game, 17-7 at the half, even after Titans kicker Joey Slye misfired on 58-yard attempt with one second left before the break.

The Titans were on the move early in third quarter, in fact, looking to make it closer.

But Tennessee's drive stalled at the Indianapolis 42, and the team punted on fourth-and-three.

The game quickly changed from there.

Taylor scored on his long run on the first play of Indy's next possession, making it 24-7, and the Colts scored again on a 10-yard touchdown pass from Jones to receiver Josh Downs to make it 31-7 with 4:26 left in the third quarter.

A 19-yard touchdown pass from Jones to Taylor made it 38-7 with 14:22 left in the contest.

A three-yard touchdown run by Spears made it 38-14 with 2:36 left, snapped a 28-0 scoring run for the Colts, and that's how it ended.

"We had some positive moments, but it wasn't enough to win the game," Ward said. "I have to do more, I have to be more accurate with the football, and we have to consistently move the ball up and down the field and end with points. I think the last couple of weeks we have been better just moving the ball, but we have to end it with points.

"If we don't score points, we are not going to be in a lot of games."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at Nissan Stadium against the Los Angeles Chargers.

GAME RECAP: TITANS DROP CLOSE ONE TO CHARGERS, 27-20

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 2, 2025

NASHVILLE – With the Chargers in town, sparks flew early for the Tennessee Titans.

A quick defensive touchdown and the first punt return for a touchdown in 13 years electrified the crowd at Nissan Stadium.

But the Titans couldn't sustain the positive energy in this one because the offense couldn't finish drives, the defense had trouble slowing down the Chargers, and the team hurt itself with too many penalties and mistakes.

It all added up to a 27-20 loss, which dropped the team to 1-8 on the season.

"Real disappointed," quarterback Cam Ward said of the offense's inability to produce enough points. "Especially just because we know that's the biggest problem – we have to execute on drives, and we didn't.

"Special teams, defense, they did their jobs today to put us in a situation to win. But offensively, we didn't do enough to win."

The biggest turning point in the game happened in the third quarter, when the Titans were stuffed on back-to-back plays from the Chargers one-yard line.

When the Chargers got the ball, they proceeded to drive the ball 99 yards to take a double-digit lead, and it was too much of a deficit to overcome.

"That's the difference," Titans coach Mike McCoy said. "It's frustrating to look at, because of the missed opportunities that we had.

"Losing sucks any way you look at it. It's hard, like I just told (the players). We talked about playing hard, tough and together – that's what they did. But we made too many mistakes in the game, from the first quarter all the way to the fourth quarter. You can't just say it's one play here or there – the goal-line stand was obviously big, but there were plenty of other things that we had an opportunity to go out there and execute better, and we didn't."

Titans quarterback Cam Ward completed 12-of-21 passes for 145 yards for the Titans. Running back Tony Pollard carried the ball 10 times for 56 yards on a day when the Titans averaged 4.6 yards per carry.

Defensively, the Titans sacked Chargers quarterback Justin Herbert six times.

But Herbert threw for 250 yards and two touchdowns in the contest, and he ran for 57 yards and another score as the Chargers outgained the Titans 343 to 206 in total yards.

Meanwhile, the Titans were penalized seven times for 60 yards to slow themselves down in the first half, and the offense was just 1-of-9 on third down.

It helped doom the Titans once again.

Things looked promising early, as the Titans jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on a pick-6 from linebacker Cody Barton, who stepped in front of a Herbert pass, intercepted it, and raced 24 yards for a touchdown.

"When you get a play like that, it just energizes the whole team," Barton said. "And we used that to our advantage."

After the Chargers answered back on a three-yard touchdown pass from Herbert to fullback Scott Matlock to make it 7-7, the Titans then turned in another big play later in the first quarter, compliments of returner Chimere Dike.

Dike returned a Chargers punt 67 yards for a touchdown to make it 14-7. Dike's punt return for a touchdown was the first for the Titans since Darius Reynaud had two during a December 2012 vs. the Jaguars.

"I am more happy for our (special teams) unit," Dike said. "Those guys work their tails off, so to do my job and finish off the run, it was great."

A 27-yard field goal by Chargers kicker Cameron Dicker made it 14-10 with 14:06 left in the second quarter, and then Los Angeles took their first lead of the game on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Herbert to Johnston with 8:37 left in the second quarter.

After the Titans tied it up on a 49-yard field goal from kicker Joey Slye with 5:02 left in the first half, the Chargers took a 20-17 lead into halftime after a 52-yard field goal by Dicker with 20 seconds left in the second quarter.

The game was there for the taking, but here's where things changed:

Midway through the third quarter, the Titans had a great chance to retake the lead. But Pollard was stopped short of the goal line on back-to-back plays from the Chargers one-yard line, and the game remained 20-17 Los Angeles.

On their ensuring possession, the Chargers drove the ball 99 yards in 9:03, using 15 plays, and capped the drive off with a one-yard touchdown run by Herbert.

It was the biggest swing of the game, and costly sequence for the Titans, who managed to get a 37-yard field goal from Slye to make it 27-20 with 4:19 remaining.

The Titans couldn't get the ball back as the Chargers ran out the clock with three third-down conversions in the closing minutes.

The Titans have a bye next weekend before returning to action on November 16 at Nissan Stadium against the Houston Texans.

"We have to reset," said edge rusher Dre'Mont Jones, who had 1.5 sacks. "It was a bad first half of the season, but hopefully we can turn this thing around. You want to finish on a strong note as much as you possibly can."

TITANS COMEBACK EFFORT FALLS SHORT IN 16-13 LOSS TO TEXANS

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 16, 2025

NASHVILLE – At least for a moment, Nissan Stadium was buzzing again.

The Titans had rallied to tie the game in the closing minutes, fans were waving rally towels, and there was hope a comeback win might be on the horizon.

But that moment was spoiled not long after, as the Texans made a big third-down conversion, and then kicked a field goal as time expired to beat the Titans 16-13.

"These are the hardest ones," Titans edge rusher Arden Key said. "These are the ones that hurt the most."

While the Titans showed some spunk late, they were in a funk offensively most of the day, and it came back to bite them.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 1-9.

"We didn't do enough on offense," quarterback Cam Ward said. "You score 13 points and you are not going to win a lot of games. We have to help the defense out – they played their butts off today, and they do it every week for us. But we have to come through for these guys in the back half of the season."

Titans defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons was visibly upset in the locker room after the game.

"It's tough as hell (to lose like this)," Simmons said. "We have to play complementary football. Too many self-inflicted things, all around. Three-and-out, three-and-out, three-and-out, we have to be better. I am tired of sugar-coating it, we have to be better, especially at home. We have to play better team football. Sometimes the offense plays good, sometimes the defense, but we have to play good as a team in three phases.

"I'm tired of losing. That team is not better than us – I don't care what people say. They have some good players, but we should have won that game. We have to stop beating ourselves."

There was a stretch late where it looked like the Titans would beat the Texans.

Trailing 13-6 late, the Titans rallied to tie it.

A 39-yard pass from Ward to tight end Chig Okonkwo gave the Titans a first-and-goal at the Houston seven-yard line in the closing minutes.

Then, Ward connected with receiver Van Jefferson for a four-yard touchdown to tie the game at 13-13 with 1:35 remaining.

The Titans were on the verge of getting the ball back, but the Texans converted a third-and-16 with a 17-yard completion from quarterback Davis Mills to receiver Nico Collins, and that eventually set up a 35-yard field goal by kicker Matthew Wright on the final play of the game.

"This is the NFL, and you have to make those plays," linebacker Cedric Gray said of the third-and-16 play. "As a defense, we have to make that play. There is really no other way to put it."

For most of the game, the Titans had problems against Houston.

In the end, not enough offense, and too many penalties, ultimately proved to be too much to overcome.

Ward completed 24-of-37 passes for 194 yards and a touchdown in the contest, and he also ran the ball three times for 33 yards. But Ward also lost the ball on a fumble, he was sacked three times, and the offense had trouble moving the ball all day.

The Titans also committed nine penalties for 62 yards, including a lot of them false starts.

"Well, we've got to clean it all up," Titans interim coach Mike McCoy said. "That's the first thing I told everybody. There were so many good things in the game. The way the defense played the whole entire time, the offense going down there, getting points to start halves, and there's plays that guys are making. But you just can't beat yourself against a really good football team, and that's what happened. The penalties kill you. It's tough. It's tough enough to play against a great defense like that, and then when you have just the penalties that you hurt yourself, it's even harder."

The game started with some early fireworks.

After the Texans misfired on an early field goal, Simmons was flagged for unnecessary roughness for making contact with the long snapper.

The penalty gave the Texans a first-and-goal at the Tennessee six-yard line.

The Titans rose up with a goal-line stand, and on a fourth-and-goal play from the one-yard, Titans linebacker Cody Barton sacked Mills, and the Titans took over.

The Titans then put together a 13-play, 50-yard drive that was capped off with a 56-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye, which made it 3-0 Titans. The Titans got first down completions to receiver Chimere Dike, running back Tyjae Spears and tight end Chig Okonkwo on the drive.

It was a defensive battle for the rest of the half, and it was 3-0 at the break.

The Titans extended their lead to 6-0 on a 47-yard field goal by Slye, which capped an eight-play, 37-yard drive that included first down completions to receiver Mason Kinsey and tight end Gunnar Helm.

But the Texans then put together a long scoring drive of their own, and they took a 7-6 lead with 7:21 left in the third quarter on a three-yard touchdown pass from Mills to Collins.

A 41-yard field goal by Wright made it 10-6 Texans with 1:32 left in the third quarter.

Disaster struck early in the fourth quarter, when Ward was sacked by Texans edge rusher Will Anderson, and he fumbled in the process. Anderson jumped on the loose ball, and the Texans took over at the Tennessee 34.

But the Titans defense kept it a game by holding the Texans to another field goal, this one from 43 yards out, to make it 13-6.

Then came the exciting, but disappointing conclusion.

"It's definitely tough," running back Tyjae Spears said. "You can always say like we right there, but enough has got to be enough. Like we've been saying that for the last 11 weeks. I don't know how many weeks it's been, we've been saying that, and it's right there. We just got to be able to make a difference."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at Nissan Stadium against the Seattle Seahawks.

TITANS COME UP SHORT IN 30-24 LOSS TO SEAHAWKS

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 23, 2025

NASHVILLE – The Titans, and their fans, got a jolt of excitement with a highlight-reel punt return in the third quarter on Sunday.

Unfortunately, the team didn't make enough plays around it in a 30-24 loss to the Seahawks.

Chimere Dike's 90-yard punt return for a touchdown was Tennessee's biggest highlight on a day when the Titans couldn't muster up enough offense, or defense.

Yes, the team made it interesting late, when quarterback Cam Ward connected with Dike for a one-yard touchdown with 43 seconds left to make it a one-score game.

But the Titans couldn't recover the onside kick, ending their hopes for a comeback win.

And, they were once again left with the realization they didn't do enough.

"The only thing that matters is a win or a loss," said Ward, who completed 28-of-42 passes for 256 yards in the contest, with a touchdown pass, and a six-yard touchdown run.

"It's a loss, and we have to continue to try and win games to dig ourselves out of the hole that we're in. At the end of the day, we get better every week, and we have to emphasize getting better now, getting better faster. And that starts tomorrow."

For large chunks of the game, the Titans had trouble slowing down Seahawks quarterback Sam Darnold and Seattle's offense, and that kept them from building any kind of momentum on a day when their own offense had trouble finishing drives in the middle portion of the game, which put them in a big hole.

Darnold was 16-of-26 in the contest for 244 yards, with a pair of touchdowns. Jaxon Smith-Njigba caught eight passes for 167 yards and two touchdowns in the game.

Penalties were an issue once again, too – the Titans were penalized 10 times for 63 yards in the game.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 1-10 on the season.

"The last few weeks, it's been competitive," linebacker Cody Barton said. "We're going to compete. Now, we have to finish the game, and not put ourselves in a situation where we're behind, trying to win it.

"We're still looking for that win, that damn win. Everyone is going to stay positive, stay up, and bring that energy. We just need to be consistent."

The Titans and Seahawks sparred early.

The Titans put together a time-consuming drive (15 yards, 63 yards, 9:09) to start the contest, but it ultimately ended with a 22-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye. Ward completed a 10-yard pass to tight end Gunnar Helm on a fourth-and-2 play, and he also picked up 18 yards on the ground on the drive before things stalled out near the goal line.

The Seahawks answered back with a scoring drive of their own, and they tied the game at 3-3 on a 47-yard field goal by kicker Jason Myers.

Early in the second quarter, Darnold connected with receiver Smith-Njibga for a 63-yard touchdown pass to make it 10-3, before a 30-yard field goal by Myers made it 13-3 Seattle.

After the Titans were stopped for no gain on a fourth-and-one run by Julius Chestnut, the Seahawks stretched their lead to 16-3 on another field goal by Myers, this one from 36 yards, as time expired in the first half.

The Seahawks opened their lead early in the third quarter on another Darnold-to-Smith-Njigba touchdown pass, this one from 13 yards out. It stretched Seattle's lead to 23-3 with 13:19 left in the third quarter.

It looked like a blowout might be in store.

Then came the 90-yard punt return by Dike, which tied the Titans' franchise record, set by Pacman Jones in 2006.

It cut Seatle's lead to 23-10, and at least for the moment gave Titans fans something to be excited about. Dike became the first Titan to return two punts for touchdowns in a season since Darius Reynaud did so in 2012.

"We kind of fed off that," Dike said. "It's something we have to continue to do. When somebody makes a big play, just take the momentum and keep building. It definitely felt good to help flip it."

But the good feelings were short-lived, as Seattle drove the field in just minutes and stretched their lead to 30-10 on a five-yard touchdown from running back Zach Charbonnet.

The Titans didn't quit.

Ward and the Titans responded with a nice drive of their own, and capped it off with a six-yard run by the quarterback to make it 30-17 with 1:18 left in the third quarter.

Then, the defense got a big play from edge Arden Key, who sacked Darnold on a fourth-and-three play from the Tennessee 41-yard line with 13:17 left, and the Titans had life.

After a drive deep into Seattle territory eventually stalled, the Titans got the ball back, and that drive ended with a Ward-to-Dike touchdown with 43 seconds left.

But the hope for a comeback win ended on the failed onside kick.

"I just love the way the guys compete," interim coach Mike McCoy said. "They just keep going. They fight their tails off. It's been that way the entire time, the way they work, the week of preparation, the little details, the fine focus they had in practice this week.

"We've got to find a way to make more plays consistently and not hurt ourselves at certain times of the game like the second series. The first drive of the game, that's a phenomenal way to start against a really good defense, the plays that we're making, the efficiency, going down there and getting points to start the game, that's awesome, but then you come around to the next series and you have a number of penalties. Those are the things against a good football team you have to avoid."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Jacksonville Jaguars.

AND WE'RE ON TO DECEMBER: TITANS FALL 25-3 TO JAGUARS

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
NOVEMBER 30, 2025

NASHVILLE – And we're on to December.

The Titans ended November with a forgettable performance on Sunday, losing 25-3 to the Jaguars in a game that quashed any positive feelings the team might have had following some close losses in previous weeks.

"It was a big step back," guard Peter Skoronski said. "It was a pretty rough performance, I think we all saw that. We have to look at everything and figure it out."

On this day, the Titans didn't produce much offense in a game when they once again committed way too many penalties while playing not enough defense when it mattered.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 1-11.

Five games remain in the 2025 season.

"Yeah, it's sloppy," interim coach Mike McCoy said. "You look at the whole thing, you have 10 penalties, two turnovers, some big plays were given up. We weren't very good on third down offensively, where that's where we had been better the past couple weeks. I think it was 2-of-12 or whatever. That's never going to be good enough. So there's a lot of things—it was a sloppy game all around."

Quarterback Cam Ward finished the game 24-of-38 for 141 yards in the contest, but the Titans managed just 11 first downs and 188 net yards. The Titans were penalized 10 times for 86 yards.

And, yes, the team was 2-of-12 on third down, which is just 16.7 percent.

Returner Chimere Dike turned the ball over with a fumble, and later running back Tony Pollard lost a fumble as well.

Ward brushed off talk that the team had made strides in recent weeks, after losing three consecutive games by seven, three and six points.

"I mean, I am big on results," Ward said. "Wins and losses are the only things I care about. Strides? We haven't made any strides. We've got the same outcome for the last couple of weeks. So, it's more about winning a football game now, it doesn't matter how it gets done."

The Titans took an early 3-0 lead on a 28-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye, which capped a 70-yard drive that was highlighted by 36 rushing yards from Pollard.

But the Jaguars answered back with a long scoring drive of their own, capping it off with a three-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Trevor Lawrence to receiver Jakobi Meyers to make it 7-3.

Following the fumble on the ensuing kickoff by Dike, the Jaguars scored again on a 21-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to tight end Brenton Strange, and after a two-point conversion, it was 15-3 one play into the second quarter.

After a 45-yard field goal by kicker Cam Little, the Jaguars led the Titans 18-3 at the half.

Mistakes continued to cost the Titans in the second half.

A roughing the punter penalty on Titans safety Mike Brown on fourth-and-20 gave Jacksonville a first down, and the Jaguars ended a 15-play drive with another score, this one a two-yard touchdown run by Bhayshul Tuten to make it 25-3 at the 6:45 mark of the third quarter.

The game featured a pair of scuffles from the two teams, with Brown being disqualified from the contest. Edge Arden Key was in the middle of a sideline scrum that resulted in him being flagged for roughing the passer and unnecessary roughness.

"Everybody has to look in the mirror, individually, and just do their 1/11," Key said. "And put good stuff out there on film. We have to be better."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the Browns in Cleveland.

TITANS SNAP LOSING STREAK, BEAT BROWNS 31-29 IN SNOWY CLEVELAND

BY JIM WYATT
TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 7, 2025

CLEVELAND – The weather outside was frightful, but on this day, winning was so delightful for the Tennessee Titans.

"Ain't in beautiful?," Titans defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons said after the team's 31-29 win over the Browns. "We've been talking about how desperate we've all been just for a win.

"It's a relief, and it's hard to win in this league. It feels good to head back to Tennessee with a win."

With snow falling and the temperature right around freezing, the Titans hitched their sled to running back Tony Pollard, and he helped guide the team to a victory.

Pollard ran for 164 yards in the contest, along with a pair of touchdowns, and the Titans snapped a seven-game losing streak while improving to 2-11 on the season.

"It was big for us, getting that momentum going on the ground," said Pollard, who scored on touchdown runs of 65 and 32 yards. "Relying on those big guys up front, moving the line of scrimmage.

"It's been a minute (since we won), so it's a good feeling."

Quarterback Cam Ward threw for 117 yards and tossed a pair of touchdown passes in the contest, and the Titans made the Browns pay for a pair of turnovers.

But the Titans had to hold on for dear life late.

It was a nice break from the disappointments of previous weeks.

"Much better, huh?, This is nice," Titans interim coach Mike McCoy said after the game. "This is the way it should be all the time. … What a team effort. We challenged the guys … and this is how you have to play the game.

"What a great team effort. It's a long time coming, and I couldn't be happier for the guys."

The Titans got off to a fast start, scoring their first opening drive touchdown of the year on Sunday.

Ward connected with receiver Elic Ayomanor on a 14-yard touchdown pass to give the Titans an early 7-0 lead. The score capped an eight-play, 53-yard drive that included third down completions from Ward to running back Tyjae Spears (24 yards) and tight end Chig Okonkwo (nine yards).

The Titans were on the verge of extending their lead, but Ward was intercepted by Browns linebacker Devin Bush at the Cleveland 18-yard line, and after a 44-yard return, the Browns cashed that in for a 38-yard field goal by Andre Szmyt to make it 7-3.

But the Titans answered back with an explosive play – a 65-yard touchdown run by Pollard, which made it 14-3.

At this point, things were looking pretty good.

But things changed quickly.

Barely two minutes later, the Browns cut the lead to 14-10 on a one-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Shedeur Sanders to tight end David Njoku. It came after a 58-yard completion from Sanders to running back Quinshon Judkins.

The Browns then went ahead 17-14 on a 60-yard touchdown pass from Sanders to receiver Jerry Jeudy with 2:47 left in the second quarter, and that was the score at the half.

But the Titans turned the momentum late in the third quarter, starting with an interception by safety Xavier Woods.

Two plays later, Pollard busted loose again, this time on a 32-yard touchdown run, to give the Titans a 21-17 lead with 51 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Titans made another play on defense when cornerback Marcus Harris forced a fumble from Browns running back Dylan Sampson, and linebacker Cedric Gray scooped it up and returned it to the Cleveland eight-yard line.

Ward hit receiver Chimere Dike for a six-yard touchdown pass just over a minute later to give the Titans a 28-17 lead with 9:29 left in the game.

Later in the game, linebacker James Williams Sr. blocked a punt – it was the team's first blocked punt since the 2012 season, when Tim Shaw recorded a block.

The Titans cashed that in for a 41-yard field goal by Joey Slye to make it 31-17 with 6:17 remaining.

The Browns cut the lead to 31-23 on a seven-yard touchdown run by Sanders with 4:27 left, before getting the ball back and scoring again on a Harold Fannin seven-yard touchdown catch with 1:03 left.

But the ensuing two-point try failed, and Dike recovered the onside kick.

What followed was a celebration on the Titans sideline.

"It's been too long," guard Peter Skoronski said. "It's been a rough year, and we all know it. Even though the playoff implications aren't there, you still go out there and you try to win games. It feels great, and gratifying for sure."

The Titans return to action next Sunday at the San Francisco 49ers.

TITANS FALL 37-24 TO 49ERS, DROP TO 2-12

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 14, 2025

SANTA CLARA, Calif. – In pregame, and during the early stages of Sunday's Titans-49ers game, a heavy fog hovered over Levi's Stadium.

In time, the fog subsided, and there were sunny skies above.

But on this day, things never really brightened up until it was too late for the Titans, who lost 37-24 to the 49ers.

The team showed some bright spots in a competitive first half, but that evaporated in the final 30 minutes of the game, when the offense sputtered, and the defense couldn't get stops.

"The slow starts in both halves (hurt us)," Titans interim coach Mike McCoy said. "This is a really good football team, San Francisco. They are well coached, they execute at a very high level.

"We didn't make enough plays for four quarters, and we didn't slow them down."

The Titans did have a few shining moments in the second half: Defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons caught a touchdown pass in the fourth quarter, and running back Tony Pollard capped a long drive off with a touchdown run.

Titans quarterback Cam Ward completed 18-of-29 passes for 170 yards and two touchdowns in the contest.

Pollard finished the day with 104 yards and a touchdown on 14 carries.

But the Titans allowed the 49ers to rack up 430 yards of offense and 28 first downs, and they couldn't get off the field on third down.

With the loss, the Titans fell to 2-12 on the season.

"They had a bye week, so they had two weeks to prepare for us," edge Arden Key said, "and it showed."

It wasn't a great start for the Titans, and they ended up playing catch-up all day.

After a three-and-out on offense, the Titans allowed the 49ers to drive 70 yards on their first possession, with quarterback Brock Purdy connecting with Jauan Jennings for a four-yard touchdown to make it 7-0.

After the Titans cut the lead to 7-3 on a 25-yard field goal by kicker Joey Slye, the 49ers put together another 70-yard scoring drive and capped it off with a one-yard touchdown run by Christian McCaffrey to make it 14-3.

The Titans showed some spunk early. Midway through the second quarter, Ward connected with tight end Gunnar Helm for a 34-yard touchdown pass to make it 14-10. Helm's catch capped an eight-play, 68-yard drive that included a pair of first down completions to tight end Chig Okonkwo.

A 33-yard field goal by 49ers kicker Eddy Piniero made it 17-10.

Titans kicker Joey Slye misfired on a 50-yarder on the final play of the first half, and things took a bad turn at the start of the second half.

The 49ers then scored on their first possession of the second half, this time on a 13-yard touchdown pass from Purdy to Jennings, to make it 24-10.

The 49ers stretched the lead to 31-10 late in the third quarter on a one-yard touchdown pass from Purdy to tight end George Kittle.

In the fourth quarter, Simmons made big plays on offense and defense.

It was Simmons who knocked the ball out of Purdy's right hand for a forced fumble that was recovered by cornerback Kaiir Elam.

After a 47-yard pass from Ward to receiver Van Jefferson put the Titans at the San Francisco one-yard line, Simmons had a moment to shine on offense.

Simmons got behind the defense after Ward scrambled, and he caught a one-yard touchdown pass to make the score 31-17 with 14:16 left in the contest.

Another Piniero field goal, this one from 37 yards, made it 34-17 with 9:28 left.

Pollard's touchdown with just over five minutes left made it 34-24 before another Piniero field goal accounted for the final margin.

The Titans return to action next Sunday at Nissan Stadium against the Kansas City Chiefs, who will be without quarterback Patrick Mahomes, who suffered a torn ACL in Sunday's game against the Chargers.

"It is sad," Ward said of Mahomes. "I know God has a plan for him, and (I'm) sending prayers his way."

TITANS SNAP LOSING STREAK AT NISSAN STADIUM, BEAT CHIEFS 26-9

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 21, 2025

NASHVILLE – Hail to the Titans.

And, to hell with that losing streak at Nissan Stadium.

Four days before Christmas, the Titans gave their fans – and themselves – a long overdue present: a home win.

Sunday's 26-9 victory over the Chiefs snapped an 11-game losing streak for the Titans at Nissan Stadium. Prior to Sunday, the team's last home win came on November 3, 2024, over the Patriots.

"We were desperate to win at home," defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons said. "And guys played that way today."

"It's been a long time coming since we've won a home game here," Titans interim coach Mike McCoy added. "So, it's just a great feeling for everybody in the entire organization, everyone who puts so many hours in, and then to be able to come home and play like this is phenomenal."

With quarterback Cam Ward leading the way, the Titans surged ahead in this one and controlled the game throughout. It was arguably Ward's best game of the season.

Ward threw a pair of touchdown passes for the third consecutive game as the Titans matched their win total from the 2024 season with two games left to play.

Ward finished the day completing 21-of-28 passes for 228 yards and two touchdowns, with a passer rating of 122.3.

"It's a good win," Ward said. "It was the first time we'd played good enough complementary in all three phases. Defense kept us in the game the entirety … and it was a good team win.

"We didn't feel the weight of (the home losing streak). We just want to win every game, and we have to be able to establish a home atmosphere by winning games. … We have to continue to play complementary football."

The Titans got big performances from both of their running backs in this one.

Tony Pollard ran for 102 yards on 21 carries, while Tyjae Spears accounted for 105 yards (52 rush, 53 receiving) and a touchdown in the contest. It was Pollard third straight 100-yard game.

By winning for the second time in three games, the Titans improved their record to 3-12 on the season.

"It was a good opportunity for all of us to go out there and put on for the Titans, and that's what we went out there and did," linebacker James Williams Sr. said. "It's a blessing, man. We go out there and fight every single week, and today was the week we succeeded. Thank you to the team, to all the guys coming out and performing."

Gardner Minshew started at quarterback for the Chiefs, in place of an injured Patrick Mahomes. But Minshew suffered a knee injury himself in the second quarter of Sunday's game, and he did not return. QB Chris Oladokun replaced Minshew and he finished the contest, but he had limited success.

The Titans tallied four sacks in the contest, as the Chiefs managed just nine first downs and 133 yards of offense. The Titans won the time of possession 38:01 to 21:59.

"Getting ahead and staying ahead," Williams said. "That was the key."

The Titans took the lead early on a safety, when defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons exploded through the line of scrimmage and tackled Chiefs running back Kareem Hunt in the end zone.

The play gave the Titans a 2-0 lead at the 13:06 mark of the second quarter.

After the Chiefs took a 3-2 lead at the 7:40 mark of the second quarter on a 54-yard field goal by kicker Harrison Butker, the Titans put together an 11-play, 89-yard drive, and capped it off with an eight-yard touchdown pass from Ward to tight end Chig Okonkwo. Spears was a big contributor on the possession, running the ball and catching it out of the backfield, and the Titans led 9-3.

The Titans led 9-6 at the half after Butker made a 41-yard field goal with six seconds left before the break.

But the Titans kept coming, starting the second half on a beautiful nine-play, 75-yard touchdown drive executed by Ward, who found receiver Chimere Dike open for a one-yard score to make it 16-6 with 10:32 left in the third quarter.

Butker misfired on a 51-yard field goal midway through the third quarter before making one from 27 yards out, and the Titans led 16-9 with 3:00 left in the third quarter.

The, the Titans put it away.

A four-yard touchdown run by Spears gave the Titans a 23-9 lead with 11:56 remaining.

Another Slye field goal, this one from 27 yards, made it 26-9 Titans with 3:44 left in the contest.

"Couldn't be happier for the players in the locker room, the entire organization, everybody that's bought in and worked so hard," McCoy said. "There's nothing like winning at home."

The Titans return to action next Sunday against the New Orleans Saints at Nissan Stadium.

TITANS END CALENDAR YEAR ON A SOUR NOTE, FALL 34-26 TO SAINTS

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
DECEMBER 28, 2025

NASHVILLE – The Titans ended the 2025 calendar year on a sour note.

The chance to win back-to-back games for the first time since the 2022 season went up in smoke in the second half on Sunday at Nissan Stadium as the Saints rallied for a 34-26 win.

It left defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons pondering the thought of better days ahead – and how to win back-to-back games in the future.

When Titans interim head coach Mike McCoy informed players of that streak on Saturday night, the mission was to break it. Unfortunately, it didn't happen.

"I wish I knew," Simmons said of the team's inability to win two in a row. "When coach McCoy said last night we hadn't won two in a row in a long time, that was surprising. I'm like: What the heck? I want to get back to winning football games, and that has to be our mindset (moving forward): How can we stack wins? Because we haven't done that in a long time."

The home finale provided plenty of fireworks, but it ended in disappointment.

"To sum it up," McCoy said, "we didn't finish. Simple as that. We did not finish. We got outscored 24-6 in the second half."

Titans quarterback Cam Ward completed 21-of-40 passes for 251 yards and two touchdowns in the contest. It was Ward's fourth straight game with two touchdown passes.

Running back Tony Pollard ran for 85 yards on 18 carries. Pollard eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for the season in the contest.

But the Titans surrendered 423 yards on defense, when the Saints surged ahead and the held on.

With the loss, the Titans dropped to 3-13.

"Obviously it's frustrating," receiver Chimere Dike said. "You want to be able to stack wins in the league, and we weren't able to do that. It was a good opportunity for us today, but we are going to come back to work and keep building.'

The Titans led for most of the contest – 6-0 after the first, 20-10 at the half, and 23-20 after three quarters.

But the lead slipped away in the fourth quarter, and the Titans couldn't come back.

Back-to-back field goals by kicker Joey Slye, from 50 and 38 yards, gave the Titans an early 6-0 lead.

Then came a big play by the Titans, courtesy of Ward and tight end Chig Okonkwo.

On a fourth-and-two from the New Orleans 43, Ward found an open Okonkwo, and the tight end did the rest. After catching the ball, Okonkwo raced downfield, and after shoving off would-be tackler Kool-Aid McKinstry at the 12-yard line, he raced into the end zone for a touchdown.

Okonkwo danced, and the Titans had a 13-0 lead at the 12:57 mark of the second quarter.

"I loved it," Ward said. "That's a free touchdown for the quarterback, but that's all Chig right there. Spinned out of somebody, do a cartwheel, going in the end zone, he hit his dance. That's a Chig play."

After the Saints cut the lead to 13-3 on a 56-yard field goal by kicker Charlie Smyth, they got a big play from defensive end Chase Young. With Ward already under pressure in the pocket, Young came up from behind and took the ball away from Ward and raced 33 yards for a touchdown to make it 13-10 at the 3:51 mark of the second quarter.

But Ward and the Titans got off the mat, as Ward connected with Elic Ayomanor for a seven-yard touchdown with 13 seconds left before halftime to make to 20-10 Titans at the break.

The Saints came out firing to start the second half, however, and quarterback Tyler Shough cut the lead to 20-17 on a 19-yard touchdown pass to receiver Chris Olave.

Another Slye field goal, this one from 28 yards, made it 23-17 Titans with 7:20 left in the third quarter.

After Smyth and the Saints answered back with a 57-yard field goal to make it 23-20 late in the third, Slye responded with a 58-yard field goal of his own to make it 26-20 with 12:50 left.

After trailing all game, the Saints took their first lead of the game on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Shough to Kevin Austin Jr. to make it 27-26 with 6:22 left.

The Saints extended the lead to 34-26 with 3:44 left on a 31-yard touchdown run by Audric Estime.

The Titans had two opportunities with the football in the closing minutes, but they couldn't find any late-game magic.

The Titans will wrap up the 2025 season next weekend at the Jacksonville Jaguars.

TITANS LOSE QB CAM WARD, AND GAME, IN JACKSONVILLE AS SEASON COMES TO AN END

TENNESSEETITANS.COM
JANUARY 4, 2026

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – The Titans lost their starting quarterback, and another football game, here on Sunday.

It was a painful ending to a tough season.

Cam Ward suffered a right shoulder injury in the first quarter of Sunday's game after diving into the end zone on a seven-yard touchdown run, which gave the Titans an early lead.

Ward did not return on a day when the Titans lost 41-7 to the Jaguars.

With the loss, the Titans finished the season with a 3-14 record.

The Titans got off to a promising start, as Ward capped a five-yard, 58-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run to give the team a 7-0 lead.

But Ward was immediately greeted by trainers when he returned to the team's bench, before heading into the medical tent. From there, Ward headed into the Titans locker room.

An official announcement was made in the press box that Ward would be questionable to return.

But Ward was downgraded to out, as he did not return to the game. Ward watched the second half on the sideline, in a jacket, with a sling on his right shoulder and with a headset on his head.

Brandon Allen replaced Ward, who had played in every snap for the Titans this season, and he finished the contest.

Things didn't go well for the Titans the rest of the way, as the Jaguars scored 31 straight points to close out the first half to blow the game open.

A 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Trevor Lawrence to Parker Washington made it 7-7 before tight end Brenton Strange's seven-yard catch from Lawrence made it 14-7.

Then Jaguars cornerback Antonio Johnson picked off Allen and returned it 59 yards for a touchdown to make it 21-7 midway through the second quarter. A five-yard touchdown pass from Lawrence to Quinton Morris made it 28-7.

A 67-yard field goal by Jaguars kicker Cam Little at the halftime horn made it 31-7 at the break.

Another Little field goal, this one from 52 yards with 1:03 left in the third quarter, made it 34-7 Jaguars.

A five-yard touchdown by Bhayshul Tuten made it 41-7 with 7:28 left.

The Titans couldn't muster up much offense on a day when the Jaguars clinched the AFC South. Joey Slye misfired on a 52-yard field goal in the closing minutes.

The Titans were scheduled to fly back to Nashville immediately after the contest.

Titans interim head coach Mike McCoy is scheduled for a season ending press conference on Monday, when players will clean out their lockers at Ascension Saint Thomas Sports Park.

UPDATED BIOS

10 BRANDON ALLEN

QUARTERBACK • 6'2" • 209 LBS
COLLEGE: ARKANSAS • ACQUIRED: UNRESTRICTED FREE AGENT (SF) - 2025
NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 9/1 • HOMETOWN: FAYETTEVILLE, ARK.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 19/10 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

PRO: The Titans signed Brandon Allen as a free agent during the 2025 offseason to bring experience to the quarterback room. The 6-foot-2-inch quarterback has appeared in 18 games with 10 starts in his NFL career. He spent the last two seasons with the San Francisco 49ers where he saw action in three games with one start. Allen's most extensive action came in 2020 when he started five games for the Cincinnati Bengals. The Fayetteville, Ark., native has completed 166 of 293 passes for 1,810 yards and 11 touchdowns in nine seasons. Allen has also spent time with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2017-18), L.A. Rams (2017-18) and Denver Broncos (2019).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
• Allen won his first career start against Cleveland on Nov. 3, 2019 by posting a passer rating of 125.6. He completed 12 of his 20 passes for 193 yards and two scores, including a 75-yard touchdown to tight end Noah Fant.
• On Dec. 27, 2020 on the road in Houston, Allen notched his second win as a starter. Allen began the game with seven consecutive completions and finished with a career-best 371 yards with two touchdowns in the 37-31 victory.

TITANS TIDBITS:
• Allen has been coached by Brian Callahan before when the Titans head coach served as the Cincinnati Bengals offensive coordinator while Allen played there from 2020-22. Allen started five games during the 2020 season after the Bengals' Joe Burrow suffered a season-ending injury. "I don't think people have enough respect for what Brandon Allen is," Callahan told Titans.com upon Allen's signing with the team. "Ultimately, Brandon has played 10 years for a reason."
• The tie between the Allen family and the University of Arkansas runs very deep. Allen's father, Bobby, spent over 20 years at the school as a position coach for the defensive line, linebackers, cornerbacks and free safeties and served as the team's defensive coordinator in 1998 and 2000. Allen's younger brother, Austin, led the SEC with 3,340 passing yards to go with 25 touchdown passes in 2016.
• In 2014, Arkansas super fan Canaan Sandy was able to score a touchdown during the Razorbacks' spring game when Allen handed him the ball and he ran for a 50-yard touchdown in front of fans. Sandy is a dedicated fan with special needs and formed a relationship with Allen among other Arkansas players and staff through his commitment to attending many of the school's athletic events.

• The Fayetteville, Ark., native was selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the sixth round (201st overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft.
• Waived by the Jaguars on Sept. 3, 2017.

36 JULIUS CHESTNUT

RUNNING BACK • 5'11" • 228 LBS
COLLEGE: SACRED HEART • ACQUIRED: FREE AGENT - 2022
NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 4/4 • HOMETOWN: BOWIE, MD.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 43/0 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

PRO: The Titans signed Julius Chestnut as an undrafted free agent following the 2022 NFL Draft to provide depth to the running back rotation. The 5-foot-11-inch, 228-pounder possesses excellent play strength as a bigger-bodied running back and also adds value on special teams. In 2024, he set career highs with 22 carries for 102 yards and ranked second on the team with 13 kickoff returns for 337 yards. The Bowie, Md., native logged 593 carries for 3,467 yards (5.8-yard avg.) and 29 touchdowns over four seasons at Sacred Heart (2018-21).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
• In the Titans' 2024 season opener at Chicago, Chestnut recorded his first career fumble recovery, jumping on a Velus Jones muffed kicked in the first quarter.
• In 2021, Chestnut averaged 205.2 all-purpose yards per contest, which ranked first in the FCS.
• As a sophomore in 2019, Chestnut set career-highs with 293 carries for 1,495 yards and 11 touchdowns. His 1,495 rushing yards were the second-most in program history and third-most in the nation.

TITANS TIDBITS:
• While at Sacred Heart, Chestnut interned for the school's athletic department and assisted with statistical analysis, marketing, and ticket sales.
• His father, Keith, owns a landscaping company. Throughout high school and college summer breaks, Chestnut would wake up at 5 a.m. to help load trucks and lay mulch.
• Despite having the opportunity to enter the transfer portal and play for a larger program, Chestnut chose to remain at FCS-level Sacred Heart because of his relationships at the school and within the program. "Everybody thinks about it," Chestnut said. "But I was like, why would I leave a place where people love me and care about me? If I left, would I get the same love that I get here? I don't think so. The coaches care about me — and I care about them, as well. I've made a lot of good friends here, met a lot of good people, and there are a lot of connections I can make in the outside world from here. So I was like, no — no way I can do that."
• In 2022, Chestnut became the second player from Sacred Heart University to appear in an NFL game, joining former Bills defensive back Jon Corto (2008-10).

CAREER TRANSACTIONS:
• The Bowie, Md., native was signed by the Titans as an undrafted free agent on May 13, 2022.

33 CEDRIC GRAY

LINEBACKER• 6'2" • 234 LBS
COLLEGE: NORTH CAROLINA • ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2024
NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 2/2 • HOMETOWN: CHARLOTTE N.C.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 23/16 (PLAYOFFS: 0/0)

PRO: The Titans selected Cedric Gray in the fourth round of the 2024 NFL Draft. The 6-foot-3-inch, 234-pounder brings a versatile skill set as a defender and is a sideline-to-sideline talent with speed and athleticism. The Charlotte, N.C., native appeared in seven games as a rookie, recording 14 tackles. At North Carolina, Gray was a two-time All-ACC selection and recorded 369 tackles, 30 stops for loss, 8.5 sacks and five interceptions in 51 games with the Tar Heels.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
• Gray had a standout performance at Indianapolis during his rookie season. With 11 tackles on defense and four stops on special teams, he became the second player since 2000 with at least 10 tackles on defense and at least four tackles on special teams in the same game.

TITANS TIDBITS:
• Gray originally envisioned himself as a wide receiver prior to attending North Carolina, but he went from playing with Drake Maye in youth 7-on-7 camps to practicing against him in college. When he arrived on the Chapel Hill campus from Ardrey Kell High School, he exchanged his 11 jersey number he wore throughout his life — an ode to his favorite player Julio Jones — for No. 33.
• Gray has two older brothers, Devon and Michael Jr., who were "definitely hard on me, definitely rough on me, put a chip on my shoulder, made me tougher. So, I'm appreciative of them, and they definitely attributed to helping to make me who I am."

37 AMANI HOOKER

SAFETY • 5'11" • 210 LBS
COLLEGE: IOWA • ACQUIRED: 4TH ROUND - 2019
NFL EXPERIENCE (NFL/TITANS): 7/7 • HOMETOWN: MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.
GAMES PLAYED/GAMES STARTED: 96/67 (PLAYOFFS: 5/1)

CAPTAIN: 2025

PRO: The Titans traded up to select Amani Hooker with the 116th overall pick in the fourth round of the 2019 NFL Draft. The 5-foot-11-inch, 210-pound defender was coveted for his versatility, having played safety, and a hybrid linebacker/cornerback position at Iowa. Hooker played in 80 games in his first six NFL seasons and amassed 315 tackles, 12 interceptions and 31 passes defensed. He will be relied upon for his defensive leadership and saavy ballhawking ability in the Titans' secondary.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
• In 2024, Hooker led the team with a career-high five interceptions while tying for the team lead with nine passes defensed.
• In 2023, Hooker started 13 games at safety and ranked fourth on the team with a career-best 80 tackles and finished second on the squad with seven passes defensed.
• In 2020, Hooker tied for the team lead with four interceptions while posting 44 tackles and eight passes defensed.

TITANS TIDBITS:
• Hooker was named a finalist for Minnesota's Mr. Football in 2015. Yet he had just two FBS scholarship offers. When the in-state university showed hesitancy after multiple workouts, Hooker knew he belonged at Iowa saying, "love who loves me."
• In February 2019, Hooker helped crowdfund about $1,200 for the Park Center high school football program through a Pledge-It campaign raising a dollar amount for every inch of his vertical jump at the NFL Scouting Combine. His 37-inch jump ranked fifth among safeties and equaled money for better equipment at his alma mater.
• Amani's brother, Quinton, played basketball for North Dakota and helped take the team to the NCAA tournament his senior year. Quinton was Minnesota's Mr. Basketball in high school and currently plays basketball professionally in Italy. For the past three years, the brothers have hosted a camp in their hometown, bringing together kids from all over the Brooklyn Park area to learn about both football and basketball.
