HEART OF A GIANT CLINIC

The Giants hosted their annual USA Football and Hospital for Special Surgery Heart of a Giant Spring Clinic. Members from HSS, the Giants wellness and clinical service team and the Taylor Hooton Foundation educated coaches, tackle, and flag football players on the importance of player safety, injury prevention, mental wellness, supplements, and the pressure to perform. Over 70 coaches and athletes were in attendance for the day which ended with a clinic led by Giants legend Jonathan Casillas and a USA Football Master Trainer.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS FLAG FOOTBALL

PRESENTED BY KENDRA SCOTT

The New York Giants have been proud to support the launch of high school girls flag football in the following conferences/sections across the tri-state area: Section 1 (NYS), Section 2 (NYS), Section 4 (NYS), Section 7 (NYS), Shore Conference (NJ) & Central Connecticut Conference (CT).

Thanks to support from Kendra Scott, the New York Giants visited every Section and Conference to host a kickoff event ahead of the spring season.

Section 1 kicked off their fourth season at Somers High School with over 27 teams in attendance and Andrew Thomas, Jimmy Morrissey, Tyler Nubin and Anthony Johnson led drill stations for the girls.

Section 2 in New York State kicked off their second season with 16 teams, with Casey Rogers, Raheem Layne and Anthony Johnson.

Section 4 kicked off their season with 17 teams in Binghamton, NY with Giants Legend and Super Bowl Champion Brandon London.

Giants Legend and Super Bowl Champion Jonathan Casillas and Casey Rogers visited Plattsburgh, NY to host the first kickoff event for Section 7 with 11 teams.

Joshua Ezeudu, Jordan Riley, Raheem Layne and Giants Legend Jonathan Casillas kicked off the fifth season of the Shore Conference high school girls flag football league in Neptune, NJ with 24 teams

Chris Manhertz and Ihmir Smith-Marsette kicked off the third season of high school girls flag football in the Central Connecticut Conference with a clinic for all 16 teams.

GIANTS IN GERMANY

To support our international market of Germany, the Giants traveled to the country several times this past year to provide resources and programming for community and youth football organizations.

BERLIN REBELS CLINIC

New York Giants Legend Jonathan Casillas and linebacker Dyontae Johnson were joined by members of Ford for their visit to Passaic County Technical Institute. Casillas, Johnson and Ford met with members of the PCTI Football team and students in the Automotive School to provide students with an understanding of different roles in the automotive industry.

Giants Legend Brandon London hosted a clinic for players of the Düsseldorf youth tackle football team and surprised them with a $10,000 grant.

The Germany Women's National Team represented the Giants at this year's USA Football Summer Series event in Los Angeles, California.

Giants Legends Eli Manning, Shaun O'Hara and Markus Kuhn hosted a youth football camp for the Fursty Razorbacks and Munich Cowboys in Munich, Germany with each program receiving a $10,000 equipment

LATINO HERITAGE

NFL LATINO YOUTH HONOREES

The NFL and Hispanic Heritage Foundation have partnered for several years to celebrate Hispanic and Latino excellence in the football community. The Giants nominated two high school athletes for the league’s outstanding Latino youth football recognition award.

Jason Lajara is senior quarterback and captain of the Brick Memorial Mustangs, which he led to a 9-3 record and a sectional final appearance in 2024. An avid flag football player since the age of 7, Jason has also won 2 gold medals and served as a global ambassador for the game on the US National Jr. Flag Football Team for the last 3 years, while proudly maintaining a 3.2 GPA.

Isabella Jubrey began playing flag football at 9 years old when her father started CT Flag and recently led East Windsor to the inaugural CIAC High School Girls Flag championship game this past spring as quarterback and team captain. She. Isabella was named the overall winner for the award at this year’s Super Bowl!

Giants Legend and Super Bowl Champion Victor Cruz returned to his alma mater, School 21 in Paterson, NJ, where he was honored for his contributions to the school and community.

In celebration of Latino Heritage Month, Giants Legend Jonathan Casillas and Your Local Ford Stores visited with Hackensack High School to teach students about different Ford vehicles and career growth opportunities in the automotive industry.

GIANTS WOMEN'S CLUB

The Giants Women's Club was founded in 2014 as the team's official female fan club. By joining The Giants Women's Club, members have the opportunity to attend exclusive events, receive numerous deals and discounts and enter contests to win great prizes. And it's free to join!

THE GIANTS WOMEN'S CLUB

TRAINING CAMP

Women's Club members were invited to join us for our very first day of training camp this year.

COOKING WITH THE CHAMPS

Women's Club members spent the evening at the Quest Diagnostics Training Center to enjoy a Q&A with Giants Legends and Super Bowl Champions Amani Toomer and Mathias Kiwanuka in the team auditorium and ended the night with a cooking session led by Angelo Basilone, Giants Executive Chef.

END ZONE ZEN

Giants Legend Rashad Jennings joined the first End Zone Zen event presented by Novartis where participants learned about the importance of having open conversations about breast health and how early detection can make all the difference.

BIG BLUE CHALLENGE CHARITY FLAG FOOTBALL

Roy Robertson-Harris and Thomas Fidone II joined Women's Club members at the Quest Diagnostics Training Center to raise money for the American Cancer Society in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

GIANTS LEGENDS

Most Giants Legends do not hail from the New York area. However, many of our players remain in the vicinity at the conclusion of their playing careers as possibilities for post-football professions in the metropolitan area are endless. With that in mind, the Giants provide numerous opportunities to our Legends through both sponsor and local community appearances as well as business options.

UNITED WAY OF NEW YORK CITY GRIDIRON GALA

Kayvon Thibodeaux was named the United Way of New York City Hometown Hero at the 2025 Gridiron Gala. Thibodeaux was honored for his commitment to supporting youth through his JREAM Foundation which focuses on educational resources and program for children. Thibodeaux was joined by teammates to celebrate the honor and helped raise over $3 million for United Way of New York City's programming.

MAKE-A-WISH

Throughout the season, the New York Giants and Make-A-Wish come together to make children's wishes come true.

EARTH DAY

To celebrate Earth Day, staff members from the Giants, MetLife Stadium and NJSEA visited the Meadowlands Environmental Center for a walking tour to learn about the unique wetlands environment right in our backyard. Dante “Turbo” Miller joined the group for an environmental service project to help expand their native pollinator garden by planting trees, shrubbery, and flowers. Jevón Holland and Turbo also joined the Secaucus High School Football Team for a pontoon tour of the wetlands.

Giant staff members headed to the Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum in New York City to participate in the National Meal Pack for 9/11 event.

Chris Manhertz headed back to his hometown of the Bronx to join the United Way of New York City and Bronx Connect to speak with students at JHS 22 Jordan L. Mott Middle School for Career and College Readiness Week!

Joshua Ezeudu visited the Prospector Theater in Connecticut to tour their facility and host a screening of the movie Rudy. The Prospector Theater is a non-profit dedicated to improving the quality of life for people with disabilities through meaningful employment.

Casey Kreiter presented NJEA Educator of the Year Award to Manchester Township Middle School's Michael Balog

Bobby Okereke stopped by Cicely L. Tyson Community School of Performing and Fine Arts to host a financial literacy learning event for their student-athletes.

Brian Burns hosted a backpack giveaway for the children of Nassan's Place ahead of the school year.

Joshua Ezeudu, who was honored at the American Institute for Stuttering Gala for his advocacy and support of the stuttering community last year, attended the 2025 gala alongside teammates Tomon Fox, John Michael Schmitz and Bryan Hudson.

In celebration of the WWE's first ever two-night SummerSlam event, the Giants provided New City Kids, Tackle Kids Cancer and the NJSEA EMS team with grants to help the teams continue their great work in the community. Members of the Giants rookie class and Andrew Thomas were in attendance to recognize these organizations.

Montrell Washington visited Norman A. Bleshan Regional Day School to celebrate their annual prom with the students.

Newark native and Giants wide receiver Ihmir Smith-Marsette and teammate Montrell Washington joined staff members from Citizens to plant cherry trees and clean graffiti at Branch Brook Park in Newark.

Andrew Thomas and his wife Ashley-Ann visited New City Kids in Jersey City, NJ to play instruments and share the importance of faith. They also surprised the group with a $20,000 check from the Andrew Thomas Foundation.

Roy Robertson-Harris joined staff from the NFL as they hosted their mentees from Big Brothers Big Sisters of NYC. Roy participated in several brainstorming activities as well as a Q&A with the high school students.

The New York Giants and EVERFI team up each year to educate middle school students on the importance of creating and maintaining healthy relationships and the importance of mental wellness through Character Playbook.
